Chapter 340

GREEN APPLES & Green Apple Rules

My father, John Hundley Hoskins, when he was 17 years old, met a beautiful young lady in Tappahannock. She lived in upper Essex County. They got along well and she invited him to a church picnic.

He arrived at the church and tied his horse and buggy to a nearby tree. It was an appletree that had a bountiful crop of green apples.

After the picnic, Daddy asked the parents of the young lady to allow him to drive her home which was nearby. His request was granted. Daddy and his new girl friend started the ride home.

Before I go farther with my story, there are things city people ought to know. First, in the early 1900s people often wore white in the summertime because white didn't show perspiration. Daddy wore a white suit, tie and hat, and his young lady friend wore a lovely white dress, white hat, and carried a white parasol to keep her face from the sun.

Something else - it isn't wise to tie a horse to an apple tree bearing green apples. Horses eat apples. Green apples are upsetting to a horse's system.

Lastly. If a horse has eaten green apples it isn't wise to ride behind him in a buggy, and if one must, it is especially important to keep him at a very slow walk and not have him gallop. Even that is no guarantee of safety.

After the picnic Daddy drove his girlfriend home. He was young and on the way Daddy skylarked to impress his young girlfriend - he put his horse into a gallop. His girlfriend was properly terrified.

Then it happened!

The horse raised his tail - Daddy threw his arm and leg in front of his face to try to shield himself - the young lady used her parasol.

Alas, all was in vain. Both of them - hats, clothing and parasol, as well as themselves - were stained green from head to toe.

The young lady in question never invited my Daddy to a church picnic again. Daddy was too embarrassed to ask her for another date. Thus ended what might have been true love.

Words To Describe

The West today stands stock still in amazement, just like my father did so many years ago. What has happened?

We try to use words to describe, but words are just words. They can be deceptive because people lie. The WORD says "By their acts ye shall know them". Let us look at their acts.

The Rocky Way

The WORD is ancient. It was the Law-system of our ancestors. The rise of the great Greek and Roman trade-empires replaced the WORD with their "trade-religion" containing "trade-law".

A man named Jesus restored the WORD. For doing this he was killed by the priests who supported empire "trade-law".¹

Need For Trade-Religion Gods

Trade-religions need many gods. They need many gods if they expect to do business with alien peoples whose gods follow similar trade-laws.

Since each god has many laws, a skilled priest can choose the right combination of gods to follow - the ones whose laws are agreeable to both merchant and customer. Then, business as usual!

The result is "admiralty law". A type of law created to aid trade.

The WORD is different. It never changes. AND, it forbids trade with strangers. Such unchangeable Laws are not only bad for trade - it destroys certain kinds of trade.²

Christians

The men³ who accepted and followed the WORD that Jesus taught were called "Christians."⁴ These Christians grew in power and threatened to overturn the Roman Empire's "law-system" with their own Law. If the WORD Law-system of the Christians prevailed, the Law-system that does not change, it would destroy the Roman trade-empire.

Admiralty Law

Anchor - Trade-law; Circle - "the Force", universalism. A manifestation of "OM".

To save itself, the Empire used muscle and pre-empted the Christian movement by taking it over and making it a department of state - a "state religion" - an episcopal, unchangeable, monopoly, trade-religion. They retained the old Roman "trade-laws" and added the name "Christian". They also added the rituals and appointed their own priests to teach Roman "trade-law" to which Rome owed its prosperity, while suppressing the Law-system of the WORD. It denied the right of followers of the WORD to study the WORD. The Roman world's "trade-system" had gotten a new Christian paint job - but nothing basic had changed.

² "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared with the words of thy mouth. Pr. 6:1; "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

³ MAN: Heb: Adam 119 - "to show blood(in the face), ie: to flush or turn rosy: - be (dyed, made) red(ruddy). Strong's Concordance

⁴ CHRIST: The Anointed; the Messiah, as foretold by the prophets of the Old Testament. From the Greek Khristos, "the anointed (one)" from khriein, to anoint. "The Divine manifestation of God" American Heritage Dictionary

Followers of the WORD protested. Many times they broke away and formed reform groups. Each reform lasted for a time and then the leaders of the protesting group were coaxed into following the trade-laws of the old gods - the result of the eternally watchful "Dharmamatras". The protests ended with the usual priestly squabbles over trivia, and with everyone abandoning the Law of the WORD and obeying the "trade-laws" of the heathen.

Initially protesting Lutheran and Huguenot separatists opposed Roman universalists. Presbyterian and Puritan separatists opposed Anglican universalists; it all ended with the parties quibbling over rituals but agreeing to unite on things promoting trade.

By Their Acts

"Christian" priests today proclaim that to get into heaven one must follow their version of "Christianity". Let's look at their claims:

USURY - Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20 The WORD specifically prohibits usury. Usury is lending 10 units when only 10 units of the thing lent is in existence - while requiring the repayment of 11 of those units, or forfeiture of assets. This creates an oxymoron. An "oxymoron" is an impossibility. Given time, Usury logically results in ALL property falling into the hands of one usurer with all other usurers becoming his agents.

The borrower is in default the instant he signs the contract. Bankruptcies result. Usury forces borrowers to borrow more - this causes booms. Paying off the loans causes economic busts, layoffs and unemployment. Ultimately, war is needed to force more borrowing to jump-start the economy back to temporary prosperity. This is why we constantly have wars. All because of usury.

Logic says that there can be only one ultimate usurer who will own or control all wealth. This means that somewhere there is someone, an enemy of the WORD because the WORD forbids usury, who has unlimited wealth, wealth that can buy kings, priests, and merchants. It is he, that ultimate "666 anti-christ" so-called, that causes the world's chaos. After all does not the WORD teach: "The love of money is the root of all evil"?

The Question

We must ask the question. How is it that there is someone who is able to cause such chaos when the WORD, the God of our people, specifically forbids such a practice?

The reason is simple: We have usury because people are not taught that usury is against the Law. The reason they don't know it's against the Law is that the priests refuse to tell them.

With the exception of a rare handful - do the "Christian" priests you know teach God's Law against usury, or do they look the other way?

If the priests, the specialists who have spent long years studying God's Law, refuse to teach the LAW prohibiting usury - who then is responsible for the booms, busts, unemployment, wars, misery, starvation - and the mountains of bodies that result from their refusal? Those who practice usury - or those who allow them do it?

What Does The WORD Say?

To answer this question we once again must go to the rule book:

"You shall not ... stand by idly when your neighbor's life is at stake." Lev 19:16; "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "If thou givest him not warning ... to save his life ... his blood will I require at thine hand." Ezek 3:18

It appears from the above that those who "stand by idly", "Who know to do good and doeth it not," it is those who are the guilty ones.

Since the WORD declares usury to be a capital crime to be punished by Law - the offenders should know what the punishment is:

"Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people." I Ki 20:42; "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore [is] wrath upon thee from before the LORD." 2 Ch 19:2⁵

⁵ "And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and [is] a witness, whether he hath seen or known [of it]; if he do not utter [it], then he shall bear his iniquity." Le 5:1

More Condemnation

Why have these priests who call themselves "Christian" not warned us about -

Kings - 1 Sam 8:5-22, Enoch I 52:3,5, Rev 1:5-6. Why haven't we been told that the WORD has appointed us kings and has given us land to divide to be our kingdoms - land that is never to be sold?

Monopolies -Isaiah 5:8; Mic 2:1-2; Jer 22:13 - Why haven't the priests warned us about monopolies that force the weak out of business and concentrate power in the hands of giants? Monopoly that allows them to squeeze the poor to enrich themselves. Why have we not been told?

Taxes Lu 23:2; Matt 17:25-26; Matt 22:19-21; Matt 17:27; Neh 5:4 - The WORD specifically prohibits taxes but tells us to pay them to avoid the king's displeasure. Taxes are the tribute that allows kings to commit and continue their tyranny. Without taxes there would be no kings. Why have the priests not told us?

Strangers -Ps 10:16, Neh 9:2, Lev 20:24. The WORD specifically prohibits strangers in the land - lest we learn their ways of sodomy, murder, rape, drugs, robbery, voodoo, vampires, fortune telling, horoscopes, AIDS, usury, kings, taxes and other lawlessness.⁶

⁶ Stranger, two kinds. 2114 - (Zuwr) profane, alien, foreigner. Stranger, (1616 (ge^r) kinsman usually living in different political sub- division. In case of confusion, trust the context.)

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!" Isaiah 5:20-21

Conclusion

Priests who obey and teach the WORD are of God. Those who do not, follow a god other than the WORD. With few exceptions, most priests who call themselves "christian" have sided with and consequently serve the god of the Cartel. Because of this - the West today stands in filth and reeks of offal.

Next month we will go to the land where lives the god who approves of these things condemned by the WORD. We will study his ways so that we may better recognize his followers in our midst and their message of death.

Our guide will be the WORD - which is the God of our father Isaac - whose name we bear and whose promises are ours by right of descent.

SOVIET INTENTIONS

The Communists killed millions in the Soviet Union. They murdered the entire upper and middle classes of the nation - millions! Every family in the USSR has a martyred member.

A free Russia should be eager to bring to trial the thousands of murderers who are responsible and available. When the new government tries and executes these criminals wholesale - then one can believe that the present new government isn't the old communist government with a new name and a smiling face.

ORGANIZED RELIGION

MARRIED: Archbishop Emmanuel Milingo recently revealed that he was married by the Rev. Suin Myung Moon to a South Korean acupuncturist. Milingo renounced the marriage after a personal appeal from Pope John Paul II. (Story in News & Advance, Sep 18, 2002, A4)

RKH: It's the "reproach" not the "act" that causes episcopal monopolies concern. Episcopacies tend to overlook deviations and soften criticism so that they can attract maximum numbers of divergent peoples. This theological soup is called universalism.

Whose Law Is Being Enforced?

The Supreme Court recently ruled that is is "cruel and unusual punishment" to execute people "with diminished mental capacities".

RKH: The WORD demands the death penalty for capital crimes. It makes no mention "diminished mental capacities".

However, Talmudic law states:

"It clearly appears that there was a tendency to reduce capital punishment... if not to abolish it altogether. That capital punishment... was stigmatizes as "murderous" if it condemned to death more than one human being in the course of seven years. ... Tryphon and Akiba... saying, "Had we belonged to the Sanhedrin [during Judea's independence], no man would ever have been executed," as they would always have found some legal informalities by which to make a sentence of death impossible (Mak. i. 7a)." J/E p.558.

Readers can recognize this as Hindu reasoning.

"Capital punishment in rabbinic law,... must not be inflicted, except by the verdict of a regularly constituted court. (Lesser Sanh.)... who must also depose that the culprit had been forewarned as to the criminality and the consequences of his project (Sanh. v. 1, 40b et seq.; see Hatraah). The culprit must be a person of legal age and of sound mind... and if any one wilfully kills him before conviction, a charge of murder will lie against such perpetrator (Tosef., B.K. ix. 15; Sifre, Num 161; compare 'Ar. j. 8, 6b)." J/E p.556

All this has also been court ordered without benefit of legislation. Countries obey the laws of the gods of their rulers. The above proves that America is NOT ruled by followers of the WORD.

UNFILTERED NEWS

CALIFORNIA: California plans to bar its 1600 judges from joining the Boy Scouts in retaliation for the Boy Scouts banning sodomites from becoming members of its organization. This is what happens when a state's majority becomes 50% alien.

BANNED: N.Y. City schools have banned Christian nativity scenes and sanctioned displays of Jewish Menorahs and Islamic Star and Crescent. (National Liberty Journal, Jan 2003, p.13, 1971 Univ. Blvd, Lynchburg, VA 24514, $15/yr.)

HOLOCAUST: More than 42 million unborn babies have been killed since the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that abortion is lawful. Perhaps as many as 95% of those aborted were Saxons - more than enough to populate a Saxon country.

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5; "They sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils." Ps 106:37; "Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb ... My substance was not hid from thee when I was made in secret ... Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written ... when as yet there were none of them." Ps 141:13-16.

The following is from the Ency Judica.

"The Ency Judica ... defines an Embryo as 'a child in the womb of its mother before its head emerges ... 'Philo specifically prescribes the imposition of the death penalty for causing an abortion ... A. Geiger deduces from this the existence of an ancient law according to which the penalty for aborting a foetus of complete shape was death. The talmudic scholars, however, maintained that the word 'harm' refers to the woman and not to the foetus, since the scriptural injunction ... did not apply to the killing of the foetus (E/J 1971, p99)' It continues, 'In Talmudic times ... abortion was not considered a transgression unless the foetus was viable' and '...only a Gentile ... incurred the death penalty for causing the loss of the foetus. (Sanh. 57b) Thus abortion ... does not constitute murder." (Tos., San. 59a) (E/J 1971, p99) It continues, ... "Abortion is permitted ... even if 'only to save her from harassment and great pain which the foetus causes her ... and ... if intended to serve the mother's needs ... even if not vital." (E/J 1971, p. 100) (34)

The God of these people states in their Talmud that the Christian birth rate must be diminished materially. Zohar (II,62b). They obey their God's law. The Supreme Court obeys their God's Law.

ALLEGIANCE: "It is the sacred principles enshrined in the UN charter to which we will henceforth pledge our allegiance." (Bush's address to UN, Feb 1, 1992) (From Aid & Abet Winter 2002 (208-935-7852))

ZIMBABWE - President Mugabe warned Western powers that he would respond to pressure from them with hostility toward whites in the country. New York Times Dec 14, 2002, A6

NAACP MONUMENT: Bowling Green, VA: The NAACP filed suit to force Caroline County to build a monument commemorating marriage of a white woman and black man whose marriage led to a 1967 U.S. Supreme Court ruling that nullified the Biblical Law against interracial marriage. The NAACP also complained that no monument had been built to commemorate a failed slave revolt in which whites were massacred. (Story in News & Advance, C4, Nov 29, 2002).

YWCA: MILWAUKEE - The Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) said in October that it should no longer be identified as a Christian organization since it has been a long time since it focused on promoting the Christian values of its founding. Wendy Wright, of Concerned Women for America, said, 'If they want to reject Christianity, they need to change their name. Because the WYCA continues to use that name, they are misleading people.' (National Liberty Journal) the cotton in terms of domestic production is imported from the former Soviet states." Acres USA, Dec 2002 p. 3.

GM: A 17-year-old Dutch undergraduate, Hinze Hogendoorn, a student at University College in Utrecht, picked up 30 female 6- week-old mice. He bought some rodent mix, some Kellogg's and quaker cereals and some oatmeal that was specified to be 'Genetic Modified' free. He also bought some GM maize and soya. Hogendoorn turned the mice loose in big cages with two piles of food - one GM and one non GM - stacked in four bowls. The mice emptied the bowls containing the non-GM food. The GM food remained untouched. (Acres USA, Dec 2002)

GM: A ban is urged on fast-growing Genetically Modified salmon ... capable of growing up to six times as fast as conventional fish ... waiting in the wings is a range of GM creatures and clones ..." (James Meek, UK News, Sep 12, 2002)New Beginnings, Dec 2002)

ARAB VIEW: "America wants to wage war on all of us ... Arabs see regime change not as a cure for political backwardness but as a new term for old enemy, colonization." (David Hirst, Cairo, Guardian Sept 12, 2002)

HUMANITARIANS: "Delegates from Russia, China and France ... readily approved a Syrian proposal in 2000 to build a flour mill in Iraq after a UN reporter found 25% of children in southern and central Iraq suffered from malnutrition. The delegate from the U.S., however, blocked the project." (Linda McQuig, The Toronto Star, Oct 13, 2002.)

ANGLO-SAXONS: Teutonic fishermen shaped bone into fishhooks and then named them "angul" from the Teuton word "to bend". A valley named Holstein in old Germany was shaped like fishhook. It, too, was called "Angul" and its Saxon people were known as Anguls. When they moved on to England they were known as Anglo-Saxons.

STEINS: Hordes of flies invaded German beer halls in the 15th century. Lawmakers decreed that beer steins have covers to protect the contents. This is why classic German beer steins have a thumb-flippable lid.

TARIFFS: The Bush administration called for WTO talks to wiping out global tariffs in agriculture, services, and industrial goods by 2015.

RKH: When Saxon competes with the Chinese coolie his standard of living will plummet. The Cartel agents plan to suppress Saxon resentment with force. This is the reason for the Homeland laws and the campaign against Saxon militias, and religion.

UZI: The famous Uzi submachine gun used by the Israeli Defense Force and other armies world-wide, from 1955 on, is a slightly changed version of the 9-mm parabellum MP 25 invented by a Sudeten German living in Czechoslovakia before WWII. The famous Russian AK 47, 7.62-mm, 39 round assault rifle, used by Soviet and their allies from 1948 on, and which is attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov, is nothing else but a copy of the WWII assault rifle MP 44 7.9-mm used by German forces between 1942 and 1945 in WWII. (Story in Adelaide Institute, Nov 2002, (<http://www.adelaideinstitute.org>))

CATHOLIC BISHOP'S PLAN: According to Time, Nov 25, 2002, p.25, a priest accused of sexual abuse by a board composed mostly of lay Catholics and at least one priest advises the bishop. If there is "sufficient evidence" the priest is temporarily removed from ministry. A canon church lawyer represents the accused priest in front as as many as 5 priest judges - all canon lawyers. The victim testifies before them. If found guilty the priest is deprived of his collar or the right to give Communion. He can appeal a conviction to the Vatican.

RKH: Time carries a poll stating that 64% of Mass-attending Roman Catholics believe that the bishops have done a bad job of handling the church's sexual misconduct crisis. This continues the on-going separation from the episcopal priesthood that is taking place by both Protestant and Catholic lay people who instinctively know the difference between the WORD and priests who follow other Gods. The WORD still commands: "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13. No other punishment can be supported without fighting the WORD which is God.

SA RAPE

Evidence was given that in every fourth farm attack a woman is raped⁷. The suspicion has been existing for a long time that Afrikaner women are ravaged during farm attacks, but it has taken on terrifying intensity. Mr. Jack Loggerenberg of the Transvaal Agriculture Union said that rape atrocity by another race is so horrible that 90% of raped farmer's wives are too ashamed to admit that they were the victims. This is the reason why in the 8 years since farm attacks began and more than 1200 farmers were murdered, it has now only come to light. Rape gives a completely new dimension to farm attacks. ... It brings to light new evidence that farm attacks, murder of farmers, and rape of women are not drive-by crimes but are encouraged by political motives that characterize racial hatred...

Each rape is indeed a potential death sentence, because a large number of the attackers are infected with AIDS.... Rumors of a right-wing coup, if true, have nothing to do with efforts to overthrow the government, but arise from frustration with conditions in the country. the government acts against right-wingers but allow murderers and rapist to continue their activities. ...

"The elderly Lewis couple were murdered last week. Their son mentions that 10 farm attacks took place in the same vicinity but the only one covered was that of his parents who died in the attack. The rest passed unnoticed. ... Without information the public cannot form a real picture of how serious the situation is in rural areas.... " (Die Afrikaner Sep 27 - Oct 3, 2002)

Chapter 341

THE UNKNOWN ENEMY

"The unknown enemy is the

The Olympics

A half century ago "olympics" were the thing. Every school, military unit or fraternal organization had their "olympics".

The olympics consisted of a sporting event. Sometimes it was a track event, sometimes something else.

At Lynchburg College it was "boxing." They announced their Boxing Olympics with great fanfare. Sign-up lists were posted on bulletin boards for contenders. There were three or four classifications. A lot signed up as lightweights and a whole raft signed up to fight "middle-weight".

On the "heavy-weight" list - one fellow signed up. That's all. Day after day I passed by that bulletin-board on the way to class. I saw the lists of contenders in other weight classes growing longer and longer, but there was just that one name on the heavy-weight list. Nobody wanted to fight him. I know I didn't. He had a reputation for being "tough."

The cut-off day approached for those wanting to sign up. Somebody had to fight that fellow. Whoever heard of someone getting a title because no one would fight him? I resolved that if no one else would sign up to fight him, I would. The cut-off day came and I put my name down. Now, there were two in the heavyweight class to duke it out for heavyweight championship.

I'm not brave by nature, a trait that has kept me alive through the years, but in this case I had to find out if that fellow was as tough as everyone said he was.

So as not to keep you in suspense - he was! He beat the daylights out of me, but I'll get to that.

Training

An older student who had boxed in the navy volunteered to be my trainer and sparring partner. He taught me right much in the two weeks before the matches. But, there was one thing he didn't teach me - probably because he didn't know.

Prior to this the only boxing I had ever done was at military school. There, the "Abbot Twins" insisted that I learn boxing.

They were upper-classmen and I was a "mister", so, we put on gloves and they took turns, and great delight I might add, in beating me up. I learned one very important thing, duck! If they can't hit you, they can't kill you.

The Fight

The fight was to be three, three-minute rounds. Doesn't sound bad until you do it. There is no time to pace yourself. It's an all-out three minutes for three rounds. Try it! You feel like you are going to die.

Fight night arrived. The entire day had been taken up with the lightweight and middleweight fights. It was night when they got to the heavyweight match. There was going to be only the one fight because there were only two fighters.

This was the first time I had ever fought a real fight in a real boxing ring. I remember sitting down in the locker room listening to the crowd upstairs and the bell sounding the rounds. I wished that I was any place on earth rather than where I was.

The call came. I walked up the steps into the gym, walked to the ring, climbed through the ropes and stood in my corner. The ref called us, said something to us. We touched gloves. The bell rang and we came out fighting.

HE WAS A LEFTY!

A left-handed fighter! I had never fought a left handed fighter in my life. How do you fight a left handed fighter? A heck of a time to learn, and I had to learn fast - or get killed. The first two rounds were a blur. One thing I remember - he hit me, spun me, and then hit me in the back of the head. I didn't go down but I don't know why not. That hurt!

When the third round arrived I had begun to get the hang of fighting a left-handed fighter. Then, before you knew it - the fight was over.

The bell rang - the ref announced the judges' decision. My opponent had won. He won two rounds - the first two; I won the last one.

The Lesson

That was my first and last fight in the ring.

When my grandson asked me if I ever fought in the ring, I told him, "Sure", and I went on to tell him that I came in 2nd in the heavyweight championships at Lynchburg college.

I didn't tell him that there were only two of us fighting and that I lost.

That fight taught me something. If you don't want to be a punching bag you had better learn about your opponent - his way of fighting. I didn't learn that mine was a lefty until I was in the ring. Because of my ignorance, I was virtually defenseless and could have gotten badly hurt. The lesson that has stayed with me is this:

The Unknown enemy is the unopposed enemy.

You can't effectively oppose an opponent if you don't know him. We are going to have to really know our opponent if we expect to fight him in the days ahead - and win.

Serpent

Earlier, we traced the Serpent to his lair in India. The clue that started the process was the scripture studied by first century Christians:

"When the accursed serpent saw Adam and Eve it ... made straight for Eve ... Then the WORD of God came to the serpent, and ... a wind came to blow from heaven by command of God that carried away the serpent from Adam and Eve, threw it on the sea shore, and it landed in India." I Adam & Eve 18:1-9

Serpent/Deception

Everything involving India revolves about the "Serpent." Rare is the Indian God that does not have a serpent about his person. The Serpent is a deceiver. His ultimate deception is to make disobedience appear as obedience, wrong appear as right, sin as obedience, and dark as light. "Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light." 2 Cor 11:14

Eve meant well, but was deceived. The result was that both Adam and Eve were banished from the Garden. To succeed, the Serpent needs an accomplice. It is immaterial whether the accomplice is honest but deceived, or evil, the result is the same.

Shiva

The Serpent is manifested as Shiva. After Kali destroys the world it is rebuilt by Shiva the sex-god.

The Scriptures gives other clues:

"God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?' II Adam & Eve 4:1-4

Kali - Goddess of Destruction

Kali destroys people, cities, nations, things - so that they may be rebuilt by Shiva in the image of the Serpent.

We see that the devil is spoken of as black - and as being a woman. Is there a place where the devil is black and a woman?

Yes!

Southern India! The people living there are black; their chief god Shiva or Siva, is a dancing black sex-god. One of the female manifestations of the sex-god Siva is the black death-goddess Kali. "Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" Yes.

With few exceptions the peoples of India are either black or mulattos. They worship the God of sex - which is what they think about and act out far beyond what Western society considers normal. Statues showing couples copulating abound in their countless temples, in pictures in their holy books, in their movies - everywhere. To them, pornography is holy. At the same time they worship procreation the also worship Kali, the goddess of death and destruction.

Our kinsmen, the Aryans, invaded northern India millenia ago. The early Greeks knew them. The E/B, 14th ed, India, p 186, says:

"Megasthenes observes with admiration the absence of slavery in India, the chastity of the women, and the courage of the men. In valour they excelled all other Asiatics; they required no locks to their doors; above all, no Indian was ever known to tell a lie. Sober and industrious, good farmers and skilful artisans, they scarcely ever had recourse to a lawsuit, and lived peaceably under their native chiefs".

What happened? Where did these wonderful people go? The answer is that they mixed their blood with the lawless Blacks of the south and now the entire country is mixed-breed in varying degrees. Blacks and mulattos commit more murders than all the other races of the world put together. This country of India has reverted to its old Gods. They are made in the image of the violent black sex-god Shiva and his murderous black female manifestation - Kali. Both of whom are manifestations of the Serpent.

Just so you won't forget, the History of the World, World Pub., N. Dighton, MA c2002, p. 71, says :

"Deeply embedded in the heart of Hinduism is the figure of the most awe-inspiring and ambivalent of all the gods - Shiva, personification of terror, death and annihilation, of unbridled sexuality and of the creative forces of nature, the eternal destroyer of the cosmos whose act of destruction precedes his act of recreation."

We'll return to Shiva and Kali later.

Religion Of The Serpent

The Serpent strikes! It bites! It rules! The Serpent converts every religion into a manifestation of itself. The peoples of the world think that they worship their old Gods but actually follow Shiva and Kali disguised as their old God.

Serpent's Secret

The Serpent-System is powerful. It becomes almost invincible when it dons religion. It can don a religion, any religion, to disguise Shiva and Kali whenever it chooses because of its two monopolies that give it its deadly power - MONEY and MEDIA!

The Usury Machine's "Bite"

The Serpent-System owns the world's usury monopoly that provides the Serpent with wealth - instant, limitless wealth.

The Hebrew word for usury in Strong's is nâshak, "to strike with a sting as a serpent; to oppress with interest on a loan: - bite, lend upon usury." Usury is synonymous with "serpent." All evil things spring from the bite - the bite of usury - the strike of the serpent. This is why God the WORD commands:

"Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

For new readers, I will briefly discuss usury since it is central to understanding the Serpent-System. There is absolutely no excuse for a follower of the WORD not to know about the capital crime of usury. It is a crime as serious as murder and the penalty is the same. Once again - the WORD says;

"Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

Usury is fraudulent from the start. It is a contract in which $10 dollars is lent when only $10 dollars are in existence - and requiring $11 dollars to be repaid.

Repaying $11 dollars when only $10 dollars exists creates an oxymoron. An "oxymoron" is an impossibility. $11 dollars cannot be repaid when only $10 dollars are in existence. Gold, cotton, or slaves will not be accepted as a substitute for the 11th dollar. Only $11 is acceptable and $11 does not exist.

The usury loan is crooked from the instant the contract is signed. If one does not have $11 - he forfeits his collateral - his house, farm or business. The WORD says, "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7. Usury is a capital crime - a most profitable crime. It is Babylon's cornerstone.

Media

To protect usury, the source of the Serpent's unlimited wealth, in face of God's threat - the Serpent's usury monopoly uses its unlimited wealth to buy the world's "media."

It is said of Esau:

"Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Esau stole their minds using the "media" of the time.

Usury provides the money, money buys the media. The Media monopoly shapes the opinions of people which protects the usury- system from the ever-present threat of the WORD, and the consequence that always hangs poised like a great sword over its practice.

People can only act on what they know. I didn't know my opponent was a "lefty" and it almost got me killed. The Serpent controls people by having his agents control information. By controlling information the serpent-system controls people's minds. People don't know because they are not told. They are not told because the Serpent owns the media that speaks to them.

Caste System

The Caste System was created by the Serpent to operate and protect his world - the world resulting from his usury system.

This caste system consists of three ruling castes. Every country that the Serpent controls has these same three ruling castes. They are organized as an episcopacy - rule from the top down - so that the Serpent need appoint, or replace, only one person to control the rest.

The three castes are, Priesthood - to control minds; King and army - to suppress revolt; and the Trader or Great Merchant - to manage the wealth produced. All others serve these three ruling castes.

118 Kingdoms

The following scenario is one that has been repeated again and again. Note the similarities to recent historical examples and expect it to occur again tomorrow.

Kings have armies to keep them on thrones, trumpeters to announce their arrivals, tribute money to build palaces, servants to clothe them and draw their bath, and people constantly groveling at their feet begging crumbs from their tables and telling them how wonderful they are. If kings believe what people tell them - and forget the one who lent them the money and provided media exposure that put them on their thrones - as did Napoleon - bad things happen. This scenario has a long, long history.

There were 118 independent kingdoms in the north of India. Most spoke different dialects scarcely understandable by their neighbors. They had rebelled against the ruling caste of India - the Brahmins, and refused to share their wealth. Their military power was such that they could not be overcome by any local military force.

Alexander - Serpent Surrogate

To the west was a Greek king named Alexander the Great. The Serpent-system had lent his father, Philip II of Macedonia, money to hire and train a powerful army, and the Greek oracles said that Philip was a child of the Gods. With his army and the blessing of the gods, Philip brought all Greece under his rule. This pleased the Serpent because it is easier to deal with one great king than with 100 smaller ones, or with 1,000,000 citizens each of whom believes himself to be as good as any king.

Then, Philip died. It was sudden; an occupational hazard that goes with being a king who, for one reason or other, displeases the Serpent.

Alexander, Philip's son, inherited his throne, army, debts, and blessing of the gods. He used this army to conquer the Persian Empire - the mightiest empire in the world. As an afterthought he also conquered Egypt - the next greatest world power.

Alexander was now "emperor" - emperor of a vast empire. But, he was still on a leash. According to the WORD,

"The borrower is servant to the lender." Prov. 22:7.

Whatever it was that Alexander had borrowed - it was borrowed on usury terms - 11 for 10 when only 10 existed. This means that Alexander, the greatest and wealthiest emperor in the world, could never pay his debt and he always remained the servant of the lender. This is key to understanding what follows.

India

The mighty Greek army rested on the borders of northern India, a land once ruled by Persia and now ruled by 118 rebel kings. There was enormous wealth resting in the coffers of these 118 rebel kings. Among other things, their countries had kept the tribute due to India's Brahmins, and they had taken tribute from the lucrative trade-routes that criss-crossed that region.

We can surmise that it took little persuasion from the Brahmins to convince Alexander to bring his incomparable army into northern India and dispose of the 118 troublesome kings one at a time. His payment would be their wealth. Then, he would unite their states into one great state ruled by himself for a time. This he did. His conquest stopped at the Beas River in 326 B.C.

Having done what he had contracted to do - Alexander left and went back to Egypt where the story is that he died of heartbreak since there were no other lands to conquer. The other story, and the more likely, is that he was poisoned. Powerful rulers who deal with the Serpent seldom die natural deaths. However, before Alexander left India, he left one of his lieutenants, Seleucus (312-280 B.C.), as occupation governor - insurance against revolt.¹

In time the conquered kingdoms were peaceful, the rebels were dead. Selucus' job was done. He then turned over this enormous land area comprising the former 118 kingdoms to Chandragupta, an Indian king who had been selected to rule by India's Brahmins. Please note that rulers, all rulers, Greek or Indian, are only cartel surrogates. The Serpent rewards his servants - but shares its power-base of "money creation" and "media" with none.

Guaranteeing Treaties

In the Serpent's caste system - lasting treaties are sealed by blood. Seleucus gave Chandragupta his daughter as his wife and exchanged ambassadors. Chandragupta gave Selucus 500 elephants. Elephants were the tanks of the age. With these, the Grecian phalanx plus elephants was invincible. The racial adultery agreed to by Chandragupta and Selucus remains the hallmark of the "Serpent treaty" - the guarantee of agreements in his caste system - a lasting agreement with the devil.²

¹ As a Southerner, I can relate to this. Saxon readers of Scottish, Irish, French, German, South African or Russian descent should be able to, also. It is no accident that most American military bases are located in the heart of the formerly rebellious Confederacy, and that the U.S. maintains garrisons in each conquered country that she intends to retain as an empire province - 137, I believe at last count. About the same number as the Persian Empire once had.

² Bush's brother is married to a Mexican mestizo; Gore's daughter - Karenna married a Jewish doctor; Sen Phil Gramm, R-Tx - married an oriental; England's Princess Ann - married a Turkish-Jew; President Reagan's first wife was a Jew. etc.

How Chandragupta Became King

During Greek occupation, the Indus River was the boundary between the Greeks to the north and the rest of India. The land south of the Indus was ruled by a king named Dhana Nanda.

Indian stories say that Dhana Nanda insulted a prominent Brahmin priest named Kautalya - an unforgivable sin. This resulted in Dhana Nanda's replacement.

Replacing kings is a common event in the Serpent's caste-system. According to Indian sages, this is how Dhana Nanda was removed to make room for Chandragupta.

Hindu priests found a boy of royal blood living in poverty named Chandragupta Maurya. The priests brought him up and trained him. While the Greeks were keeping order in northern India, they led a successful revolt that removed Dhana Nanda. They simply claimed that Chandragupta was the true ruler and that Dhana Nanda had seized the throne by fraud, that the throne was rightfully Chandragupta's.

People will believe anything if they have only one information source. To make sure that the revolt would succeed, an appeal was made to tax resisters and they joined the plot when promised lower taxes. The revolt was successful. This was about 321 B.C. Using the priesthood as the media, the rumor mill and the usual disinformation - all combined to make a palace revolt that easily replaced a powerful king. The same people have done the same thing to a thousand other kings since that time.

The Dynasty

* King Chandragupta later became an ascetic and starved himself to death in 297 B.C. Most kings are not selected for their high intelligence.

* Bindusare, his son, (297-272B.C.) expanded the Indian empire greatly, especially to the south.

* Asoka the Great (272-232B.C.) came to the throne - and all sorts of things began happening.

Hinduism

Long before Alexander invaded India, long before the 118 kings revolted, and even before history was recorded, Brahmins ruled India. They scared everyone to death with gods like Kali. Kali, and Gods like her, would do anything. Some drank blood, others committed wholesale murder, others burned wives alive at their husband's funerals, some demanded that whores be made of daughters and wives to win the favor of sex-gods, others collected heads. Since the Karma principle punished people - the Brahmins cared nothing about people's suffering. Suffering people were getting what they deserved. The Brahmin's owned everything and taxed everyone unmercifully. They were rotten to the core. And, in spite of all their denials and eyewash, they still are.

Naturally, reform movements became a nuisance. "Reform" was fought by the Hindu priests requiring obedience to two Hindu rituals. You obeyed them or died. The first was;

TOLERANCE was required on pain of death that everyone be tolerant of the gods that did these awful things. One must be tolerant of both them and their followers. One must be tolerant in word, speech, and deed - or die. The name for this kind of tolerance is "Dharma."

THE CASTE SYSTEM was the second restraint placed on the people. The caste system comprised the priest, king and asset- manager with the workers serving the other three.

Forced "tolerance" criminalized dissent. It allowed the Brahmins to rule everyone - "universal" rule. Only they decreed what was acceptable and what was not acceptable.

The caste system organized those ruled.

Quick Summary

Westerners have been driven from their self-sufficient farms where their fathers were once kings and priests. They now pay tribute to the agent of their master.

The WORD that has saved us many times in the past - points to India as the Serpent lair. The Serpent's name is "deception". Its poison is "usury". Usury produces wealth. Wealth buys the "media". The Serpent's bite provides "money" and "fame" to those bitten. It buys kings, priests, and merchants to operate its empire. The Serpent reorganizes religion to teach "tolerance." Tolerance neutralizes resistance.

India's huge software and information technology industry, which emerged over the the last decade, has made India the back-room and research hub of many of the world's largest corporations. These English-speaking, low-wage, tech-savvy people live in India, but they design and run the software and systems that now support the world's largest companies and earn India a whopping $60 billion in foreign reserves - which doubled in just the last 3 years. This has made the world more dependent on India, and India on the world.

Chapter 342

BUDDHISM Becomes HINDU-BUDDHISM

Alexander's Indian Conquest

Alexander conquered northern India c320 B.C. The Indian ruler, Chandra Gupta, received these conquests from the Greeks one year later for a gift of 5,000 elephants (c321 B.C.). Asoka, the grandson of Chandra Gupta, was born in c291 B.C. and began his rule c260 B.C. This is where the story gets interesting.

Gupta Agents

India's Hindu priests put the Gupta Dynasty on the throne of India as their agent. The Gupta arms (right) are the symbol of India even today.

The brahman priests used the Gupta Dynasty to manage the conquered 118 Aryan nations to the north that had been captured and sold by their Greek kinsmen.

Aryans and Their God

The Aryans of the 118 conquered nations had arrived much earlier in India as conquerors and were now under the heel of those they had conquered.

History tells us that the 118 nations were different from the rest of the mixed-breed Indians - they were followers of the teachings of Buddha. This is how they are described in the E/B, 14th Ed, India, p. 186;

India's Arms

The Gupta arms are India's arms. Buddha's "prayer wheel", or Cosmic Circle is on the base. The three-headed lion represents Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva. Brahma the eternal. Vishnu the preserver and Shiva the destroyer.

"Megasthenes observes with admiration the absence of slavery in India, the chastity of the women, and the courage of the men. In valour they excelled all other Asiatics; they required no locks to their doors; above all, no Indian was ever known to tell a lie. Sober and industrious, good farmers and skillful artisans, they scarcely ever had recourse to a lawsuit, and lived peaceably under their native chiefs".

This describes our people who are made in the image of the WORD which is our God. "God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam." Gen 5:1-2. We know that in spite of being man, Alexander had become the Serpent's agent because the WORD says:

"Ye shall not ... fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24 "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18. "Blessed is the man who does not direct his heart with malice against any man." Enoch 44:3.¹

There is only one time when man is instructed to fight man:

"When any persons would compel us to break our laws, then it is that we choose to go to war." Josephus, Against Apion 2:38

This knowledge is instinctive with our people. This is why the Serpent's media accuses its enemies of breaking God's Laws - it is the only way to make man break God's Law and willingly fight "man" for them.

People who today live in the lands of the 118 nations are the exact opposite of those who used to live there. They lie, cheat, steal, murder, and break every Law of God. They are a mixed-breed race. For centuries their Laws kept them separate. This is what happened to their Laws and to them.

Guatma -The Buddha

About 500 B.C., a holy man named Gautama, or Gotama Buddha (the enlightened one), held the minds of those who lived in the north of India. Today's historians speak of him as "a sudden light". History, on the other hand, indicates that he was only the latest in a line of memorable teachers of an age old tradition.

This enlightened Buddha died in 483 B.C. While living, he taught a system of laws which has now been twisted out of recognition, but still retains the name "Buddhism". In its original form, it was considered the most moral code of conduct after the the Laws of genuine Christianity of the WORD. Because it had no gods comparable to those like other Indian religions, historians say that it was not a religion. They ignore the fact that a god's "laws" are the only way a god can be obeyed - just as the WORD is the Law of today's Christian Saxon-Aryans. Buddha's law consisted of 10 basic rules:

1. Do not destroy life (no murder)
2. Do not steal
3. Abstain from impurity
4. Do not lie
5. Abstain from intoxicating drinks
6. Do not eat at forbidden times (fasting times)
7. Abstain from dancing, singing, music, and stage-plays.
(Hindu sex stimulants)
8. Do not use garlands, scents, unguents or ornaments
(Hindu sex stimulants)
9. Do not use a high or broad bed (Hindu status symbol)
10. Do not receive gold or silver.... (Hindu usury money system)

This compares with the WORD's basic 10 Laws:

- 1 - No other Gods than the WORD
- 2 - No substitutes
- 3 - Taking name vainly (asking for things forbidden).
- 4 - Rest 7th day
- 5 - Honor parents Lawful opinions
- 6 - No murder
- 7 - No adultery - commercial, written, verbal, religious, racial
- 8 - No theft
- 9 - No false witness
- 10 - No coveting another's possessions²

Buddhist Caste System

In addition to their 10 commandments, the Indian Aryans established a caste system (segregation) excluding non-Aryans - primarily the lawless blacks of south India whose sex-god Siva stood for the exact opposite of Buddha's teachings. Aryans always set up a segregated society when they come in contact with aliens. It never works. The reason it doesn't work is that segregation violates the WORD - the Law says that aliens are not to live in your land "lest ye learn their ways". If aliens are prevented from living in your land there is no need to segregate them.

"Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

² "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." Matt 22:37- 40

A segregated caste system is never a permanent solution to the alien problem and is always doomed to failure. But man never ceases to try to take the easy way - segregation - and it always fails. When the segregation system finally springs leaks, man dies - all of them. It is a question of time - which our enemies well know.

Hindus

Hindus are merchants. They are traders. Logically, Hindu merchants can only do business with separatists after first changing them into integrationists. They must first destroy the potential customer's "separatist-system" by changing the god in whose name the system exists. This is how they changed Buddhism in India. This is how they have done through the centuries, this is how they always do it wherever the Hindu merchant goes.

Asoka Embraces Buddhism

Asoka, the agent of the Hindu priests, destroyed Buddhism simply by embracing its arch-enemy - Buddha. Asoka became more Buddhist than the Buddhists were. Asoka said that Gautma Buddha was a saint, a near-God on earth - the answer to all of India's problems.

Asoka said that Buddha's teachings should be made mandatory - everyone should learn them and learn to live by them and make them the roadmap of their lives. Asoka said that he would help to make the world a paradise by making Buddhism the state religion of India. That way, everyone would know the correct way to believe in their gods, and Asoka, Buddha's devoted disciple, would use all the powers of the state to see that people did what they were supposed to do.

Brahma

Hindus tell us that this is Brahma. It looks like Brahma, but it isn't Brahma.

Asoka's New Buddhism

Asoka, as the new head of the Buddhists, accepted all Buddhist teachings. It accepted "Yoga" - the combination of Buddhist teachings with physical exercise and discipline. It accepted the Buddhist "natural food" health system. He also

This Is The True Brahma

These are the faces of Brahma - the deceiver. He has the face of all the gods that there have ever been. There is the genuine and there is the Hindu counterfeit. Asoka changed Buddha into one of Brahma's counterfeit faces. The counterfeit looked like Buddha, talked like Buddha - but spoke the words of Brahma the Serpent - the deceiver. Among these counterfeits are look-alike counterfeit copies of Allah, Confucious, the Shinto gods, the Voodoo gods - all counterfeits. A counterfeit Jesus stands there. It looks like Jesus, talks like Jesus, but his words are the words of Brahma. Brahma is the implacable enemy of separatists - those who would separate from Brahma's Tower of Babel causing it to crash to the ground. Brahma uses his followers and his captives to war against and destroy separatists - cleanse them with fire and death - and remake the survivors in the image of what you see.

accepted the Buddhist racial caste system. Asoka was more Buddhist than Buddha.

Asoka improved Buddhism. The upper Buddhist caste was no longer exclusively white - it now included many of Asoka's Hindu priests.. There was another twist. Buddhist mantras (religious chants) now included "Om". "Om" is the name of the Hindu World Force, or "One World, or Brahma. Brahma is the Hindu God of all Gods - but the name of Brahma had been changed to Buddha.

The natural-food business was now open to everyone, so, Aryan merchants were quickly replaced with merchants from other parts of India as the borders of the 118 nations became "open borders." These were some of Asoka's "improvements."³

The Guru

Something else emerges about this time. The old Buddhist two-step racial caste system was converted into the Hindu "three-step" caste system - priests, kings, and great merchants - the same one we have today. Some historians say that each of these castes was divided into 24 separate levels; Others say 48 levels, still others say hundreds. Regardless, the Buddhist caste system had been converted into one complicated thing containing countless levels.

Causing more confusion - in addition to the Hindu brahman who had been appointed instant Buddhist priests, anyone who had a large following became eligible to enter the lower levels of the brahman caste. Black, white, whatever - it made no difference. The determining factor was the number of followers a guru claimed.

Asoka's Buddhism looked increasingly like Asoka's old Hinduism - the one that Buddhism was supposed to replace - the one that accepted all Gods and all religions - and all their evils.

Unlike the old Buddhism, Asoka's new Buddhism had lots of gods. Each of these gods had lots of rules. There were countless rules and countless regulations - and rituals without number. To reach "nirvana" - the Indian heaven of nothingness - the individual had to pick the right combination - out of hundreds of thousands of choices.

The average Indian had no clue. Like Westerners who must go to a lawyer to find his way around the morass called "law", Indians had to acquire a religious lawyer - a "guru" - a teacher - to show them the way around rogues gallery pictured above.

Guru's are self-proclaimed men of god - or gods - whichever. They are specialists who make a lifetime career of selecting the right gods and developing the right religious philosophy for their followers. Some guru beliefs are weird. Some are relatively sensible. If an Indian finds one he likes, he settles in with his guru to teach him. He pays his guru handsomely for this information. He buys likenesses of the gods that his guru recommends, and sets up his own little home chapel, complete with candles, and incense for the god that is being worshiped to eat.

In the confusion of Hinduism, the guru is the Indian's only beam of light showing him the road to The Force - "Brahma-Buddha" - "god". Without his guru-preacher showing him the way - he is absolutely, irretrievably lost. The guru is the Indian's "god on earth" - a literal god on earth - the only one to tell him what is right and what is wrong and what to do. He is the only god the Buddhist-Hindu will ever know - and as such the guru's with the greatest followings takes their place along-side the other gods - as gods.

He interprets the god's wishes. It is the guru's commandments that must be obeyed - because he speaks for the gods. Without his guru to point out the laws needed to reach "Nirvana", the door closes and he is damned.

The bigger the guru's following the greater the guru's power. Some gurus have the power to tell their followers to commit suicide - and they have done so - all of them - by the thousands. Others can tell their followers to kill all who do not acknowledge their guru as god's representative on earth - and they will - and have - many times - by the tens of millions. Still others can tell their followers to send them money to fight tyranny and then spend this money on Caribbean vacations and in gambling casinos. Gurus: different castes - different gods - same results.

Identifying a Guru

In the West, the absence of acknowledgment that the Commandments contained in the WORD are supreme is the tip-off that the speaker is a "guru".

The guru may be a priest, king, or merchant. The fact that he will not the acknowledge the WORD as supreme when dealing with a racial, economic, or political situation indicates that he is a guru who is following the commandments of another god - commandments that are different from the WORD which is God.

Successful Gurus

Successful Gurus are noticed. They receive Serpent money and media exposure - making the guru greater than before, sometimes greater than his wildest imaginations. He rises in the caste in which he operates. Money and media are addictive. The guru becomes addicted. He must do the Serpent's will or be punished by having the money and media withdrawn - causing the addicted guru extreme pain and suffering - even ruin.

The "WORD made flesh" told a parable dealing with this point:

"And Jesus (WORD made flesh) ... was... tempted of the devil (Serpent, deception). ... And the devil ... showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world ... And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them (crowd pleasing reputation): for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will give it. If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine. And Jesus (WORD made flesh) answered ... Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, 'Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God (the WORD) and only him shalt thou serve.'" Luke 4:1-8

God the WORD meant it. Man is made in the image of the WORD which is the Law. He follows the Law or he dies.

Asoka's Edicts

Asoka posted his edicts where people could see them. He had them carved on monuments which he placed at cross-roads. These are called "pillar" or "monument" edicts. He had them carved in stone grottoes where statues of the gods were kept. This way the faithful would be constantly reminded when they came to worship. These are called "stone edicts". With minor changes they are the same today as they were 2,000 years ago. They are still being enforced - and enforced by the the same forces as they were 2,000 years ago.

It is not by accident that the WORD is being suppressed. Christians follow the WORD, Christian-Hindus follow the Edicts of Asoka. It's easy to tell the difference:

Rock Edicts

Most edicts had explanatory comments with them. These comments have been shortened for brevity's sake:

* Religious Intolerance: Asoka is against religious intolerance and discrimination within the community.⁴ (Rock Edict 7 & Rock Edict 12).

* Open Housing: King Asoka desires that members of all religions live anywhere they choose. (Rock Edict VII, p 61)

* Concord: Concord alone is commendable. Through concord men may learn the conception of Dharma acceptable to others. (Rock Edict 12, p.52)

* Non-violence: The nature of Dharma is meditation and non-violence. (Pillar Edict VII (cont. from IV.1) p40) (This includes non-execution of most criminals guilty of capital crimes.)

* Charity and the Kinship of Mankind: (Rock Edict XI p.44) (All living beings are part of the universal Cosmic Force. As such they cannot be separated.)

* Against Individual Irreligion: Maski Rock Edict (cont. from VI.B.4, p. 49)

* Against Religious Intolerance and Discrimination: (Rock Edict VII, Rock Edict XII, p51)

⁴ The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959

* Conquest by Dharma: King Asoka considers moral conquest (that is conquest by Dharma) the most important conquest." (Rock Edict XIII, p.27)

* "King Asoka has faith in and reverence for the Buddha, the Dharma, and the Buddhist religious orders." p.66

These are a few of the Edicts that Asoka added to Buddhism that changed it into Buddhist-Hinduism. These and the others are enforced today exactly as they were more than 2000 years ago, by the same Trade Cartel (New World Order) which uses its "money/media" monopoly to enforce them.

Separation Or Integration

No people can be obedient to his own God and at the same time obey other gods. It is either "separation" or "integration" - one or the other. A separatist follower of the WORD closes the door to the international trader. The Hindu-integrationist forces open the door.

In Christianity - the faithful obey the WORD. The counterfeit reveals himself by rejecting the WORD and accepting Asoka's Edicts. These edicts may be summed up by one edict. This edict was encountered by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ - and is found today everywhere the Serpent rules - just as it was 2,000 years ago.

"One shall not condemn another religion or race by word or deed." King Asoka Asoka's Buddhism was converted into Hindu-Buddhism.

Summery

Hinduism is a trade religion. It is not like any other religion on earth. It devours other religions. It eats them whole. It accepts whatever its customer believes, re-invents his religious beliefs to serve the international merchant, and then uses the merchant's unlimited money and media to re-educate the customer about his own re-invented religion.

This re-invented religion is a fraud and a counterfeit. But, the international merchant must replace hostile local gods with counterfeit friendly ones to maximize profit in the Hindus' chosen market.

In brief - Hinduism redefines separatist religions so that they continue to look like separatist religions but are really changed into mirror images of itself. A redefined religion may look like, sound like, smell like the genuine - but it is a copy. Every market that follows Asoka's edicts opens to international trade and has two gods - the genuine that follows the old God and the counterfeit that follows Asoka.

One determines the true from the counterfeit by careful inspection. If the laws of a God say one thing and a speaker uses Asoka's edicts to justify the opposite - the speaker is a secret Hindu. Deception is what Hindus do.

If you think that what has been done to Buddhism is something - wait until you hear the story of what the Hindus have done to Islam, Shintoism, Confusianism, Taoism, AND - you guessed it:

CHRISTIANITY!

Christianity, too, has the WORD and it has a fraudulent copy - a copy straight from hell.

Report From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Enclosed is a receipt from the orphanage for the money you sent.

We went to the Loerie Youth Centre at Bronkhorstspuit. It is a nice homely house with a friendly atmosphere. Not big but they fitted everyone in. There is still lots to do. They recently got some needed fencing. We found Mrs. Betsy Jacobs a lovely person and very able. After we gave her the envelope she sat for a while and could not comprehend that such a big gift was sent by fellow Christians. (Ed: Believe me, that gift was big only to those who have little!)

Then, she phoned the two trustees, Willie and Rina. She felt that since the former director had hurt so many people she wanted the trustees present where money is concerned. When they arrived she wrote out a receipt immediately and said that she wanted to write and thank you and send some photos of the children.

Now to Aida Parker. One of the trustees went to see her at the home and found her frail and sick. But, we know what they do at these types of homes, they drug people till they are vegetables and she has no near family to object and remove her. Most of her money was in a trust which her mother left her. Someone arrived and took over her affairs. He fired both Estelle and Ann who kept the books. Some people say that this manager is a policeman. Others say he is from intelligence. Aida was a thorn in the government's side for many years. I don't know who he is.

The Mine Workers Union give R2,500 ($302) a month for groceries. Willie asked if they could not make it R3,000 ($362.75), a month but as yet they have received no answer. They did buy a bus to take children to school and the doctor. The bus loan is 24%. There is nothing owed on the house since someone gave R50,000 ($6,046) for it. Because the house and inside look so neat because of their hard work, people might think they do not need anything, but that look of amazement on Betsy's face when she received the money sent by your subscribers told us another story.

In the future, I would like to suggest that you send any donations for the home to us and we will take it to them. Estelle is no longer at Aida Parker's and we know nothing about the new person handling Aida's affairs.

Incidentally, the Mine Workers Union/SOLIDARITY co-operates with the ANC communists.

It rained here at last (ED: It's summer there.) and how welcome it is to see green grass again. Big trees were dying, branches simply broke off to conserve the moisture the tree could still find and so few had very many leaves. Some cornfields seemed to have sufficient rain but many areas suffer.

I hope to write soon about the Dutch Reformed Church. Except for a few exceptions, they aren't Christian.

ZUNDEL: ANTI-WAR CRITIC DEPORTED

Ernst Zundel, outspoken anti-war critic and free-speech advocate, was arrested, handcuffed, and deported to Canada.

It is expected that a Canadian anti-free speech tribunal will turn him over to German authorities who will imprison him for five years for exercising his free-speech rights in that country.

Zundel had used his extensive internet and newsletter outreach to carry his articles and commentaries to hundreds of thousands worldwide. His jailing in Canada effectively removes a major Bush war critic.

The government's excuse is that Zundel failed to appear at an immigration hearing. In fact, Zundel's lawyer, unable to appear, asked for a rescheduling. The request was unanswered. It was repeated several times over two years, to no avail.

Using his "failure to appear" as an excuse, government agents arrived at his home in Tennessee where he lives with his wife, an American citizen, refused to allow him to call his attorney, handcuffed him, and transported him to Canada - a clear case of government "entrapment" that rids the administration of a vocal anti-war voice.

NEWS FROM ASIA

SAXON WHORES IN ASIA: SBSTV Sunday June 30, 202, 12:25AM "Tokyo Girls" (2000) Documentary. (55 minutes). National Film Board of Canada. Follows four white Canadian bar "hostesses" as they "service" clients in Tokyo, Japan.

Hillary, a blonde 24 year old from Vancouver works at One-Eyed Jacks. "I (hostessed) for 6 months to pay off a student loan. Lots of girls forget why they came. They spend all their money on parties and drugs. Jamie hostessed 1991-94. "It's a prestige thing. If a Japanese is seen with a tall blonde Western (white) woman, he's seen as possessing something others couldn't". She boasts: "I was making US$1,000 a night. I was there to make money." She became mistress to a Yakuza (Japanese mafia). "He showered me with gifts. US$10,000 cash and a US$60,000 Rolex watch." He bought her a luxury Tokyo apartment. She robbed his bank accounts and escaped to Thailand.

Dhana hostessed 1989-93. Married "Niko", a rich customer who pursued her for years. Ironically they married just as Japanese economy collapsed in 1997. He's now penniless. Dhana works to support him. Nancy Caroline Perrault is a 27 year old French-Canadian (and the only one to give her full name). Came to Japan as a waitress. After a month was offered more money if she'd hostess. Now has Japanese "boyfriend". Wants to take him home with her to Montreal.

Eventually customers demand sex. Maria, a Filipino hostess club manager says, "Years ago a lot of Asians worked in Japanese hostess clubs. Now its lots of Europeans, Canadians and Russians. Mostly blonde girls". Tomoko is a graduate student in Gender Studies. Claims there are "1,000 hostess clubs in Tokyo alone".

Should be re-titled "Tips to Prospective White Whores to Asia.." Ironically, the film is made by an all-girl, government-funded production team. It appears that the world's most multiculturalist government seeks to include unemployed white women among Canada's exports. Chapter 343

IRAQATTACK

I have children and grandchildren. Their children and grandchildren will be fighting the war that the Cartel has casually started in its search for loot and victims.

The War Against Iraq

Iraq, Kosovo, Iraq again - put the survivors in the docket and try them for war crimes. Invade and stomp Panama, take its president, charge him with a crime, jail and forget him. Kill 2 million Vietnamese, have their government trade the abandoned and confiscated property of former owners for war-material. Same with China - but there the toll was tens of millions. Kill the Russian Tzar and millions of land owners. Nationalize their land - then privatize it when the time is right.

Rape South Africa a century ago, pay surrogates to do it again now; destroy, rape; kill the leaders, take their land; garrison the conquered lands. Hello, Rome!

Ho Hum! What's the excitement? Something new? Something we've missed? I don't think so.

Being a Southerner I know the drill. The Cartel put us through the same - just like today's "Iraqattack". But, somehow, it gets old.

When camel drivers charge down the street waving swords crying "Allah Akbar" - defend yourself. Until then, you fight someone else's war.

Martial Law

You learn in 1st grade that the playground bully makes the rules. It carries over when you grow up.

War introduces martial law. Martial law cancels existing laws. Canceling existing laws cancels business contracts made under those laws. When contracts are nullified, everything having value is up for grabs - trade agreements, real and private property, tax tribute, extortion, bribes, slave-labor, reparations, individual freedom - freedom of speech - everything - everything is canceled and must be renegotiated - for a price.

The technique: select someone weaker who has something of value. Accuse him of wrongdoing. Force him to defend himself against something that you do to him. Then, use his self-defense as an excuse to beat the hell out of him. Savage him! Beat him into the ground without mercy; burn his land, burn his cities, rape his women, kill his children, keep burning, killing and raping until he gives up; Then, keep on doing it - twist his arm 'till the pain is so great that he will agree to anything. Then:

Negotiate peace.

The US is the International Trade Cartel's "hammer". A surrogate that has been ordered to execute Iraqattack. This is the same hammer used against us in the Southland. The techniques they used on us then are almost the exact same they use today.

Rebelattack

The South sent representatives to Washington to discuss DC demands. Today's propagandists talk about the war being over slavery and secession, but then, the big demand was that tariff-tribute be levied for the use of our own seaports.

Our representatives went to Washington to talk to them. At the very time we were talking with them, they had a Pearl Harbor type operation under way. An invading fleet was already at sea - loaded with soldiers whose plan was to storm Charleston Harbor by surprise. The negotiations were a deception, a cover-up - a fraud from the beginning.

The Northern newspapers broke the story. Treachery! Lying! How do you deal with people like that? Charlestonians fired in their own defense. The Cartel media screamed for war saying that we fired the first shot. There was nothing said about the treacherous negotiations - nothing about the invading fleet.

The Cartel media told the world that the war was about slavery. On that point they were right! When the war was over - everyone was a slave; black and white, the soldiers on both sides - the states that participated and those that didn't.

"Andersonville"

What is a looting expedition without atrocity stories to justify it?

When I was a youngster, "Andersonville" stopped conversations. Southerners talked about what had been done to them - burning, rape, robbery, confiscations - . Our opponents answered with one word, "Andersonville".¹ That did it. The conversation ended. Everything that was done to us was justified because we committed atrocities. They hanged the camp commandant after a kangaroo war crimes trial.

They didn't mention that Lincoln was the cause of Andersonville. That it was he who discontinued prisoner exchange and the parole system that allowed captured soldiers to go home until exchanged - the system that prevented the horrors of prisons. The media didn't mention that Northern POWs in Southern camps got the same rations as Southern soldiers. They didn't mention that in Northern camps Southern POWs were denied the same rations as Northern soldiers and the result was that while the Northern prisons held fewer Southern POWs - more of them died than Northerners died in Southern prisons.

Lincoln also cursed his own soldiers in Andersonville by forbidding medicines being sent to them. Naturally, when Sherman cut off the food supply to the camp - chaos resulted. Chaos resulted again when US planes destroyed trains carrying food to German prison camps.

The same story is being told today. It hasn't changed. The media still says that everything that has happened to us was our own fault. We got what we deserved. They speak of "The Fort Pillow Massacre" without a word of truthful explanation! Media truth? Hah!

Nothing has changed. Cartel truth are the words spoken by FBI Agent Ricks, the FBI Waco spokesman. Truth is the media filming the FBI agents dancing around shouting "Texas Barbecue" as the women and children burned! Truth at Ruby Ridge is shooting a dog, shooting a son in the back, shooting the mother in the face while she was holding her baby in her arms. Then, naming the FBI camp at the foot of the mountain after the mother they had just murdered. "It was their own fault."

Those who controlled the media then control it now.

Reconstruction

Iraq, let me tell you what you have to look forward to - after tearing you apart they say that they are going to help you rebuild. They are already talking about "Reconstruction".

Yes indeed. "Reconstruction". That's where the Cartel gets its pay for tearing you apart.

After tearing up Panama, they said they were going to rebuild it. They said the same about Yugoslavia, and Afghanistan. For that matter, they said the same about Germany and Japan after WWII. Don't hold your breath. Take it from all of us - they aren't going to "reconstruct" a thing until the cartel gets their pint of blood.

In America, the cartel media told the North about the humanitarian help they were giving to help Southern reconstruction. Thanks! The only aid I am aware of was partial payment to repair the Goldvein Baptist Church near Kelly's Ford. The invading hordes had used it to stable horses. Nothing was done to repair the graveyard used as a corral, whose headstones were carted away to make room for horses and used to fill road potholes. Little or nothing was done to rebuild the thousands of burned homes throughout the countryside, the tens of thousands of barns and countless businesses wantonly burned, or to care for the tens of thousands of widows and orphans who were near starving. But, they paid for the partial rebuilding of the Goldvein Baptist Church. A fact reported again and again by their media.

Consolidating Conquest

To consolidate the "Reconstruction" job that the Cartel is going to do on you if they can, there is one more item that must be in place. Like the Romans before them, our conquerors built forts throughout the Southland to contain any revolt by its robbed victims to reclaim their stolen property. As a seeming gesture of good will - these these forts were named after Southern war heroes - Fort Picket, Hill, Lee, etc. - but, who's kidding who - we understand. The forts still guard the loot they confiscated 130 odd years ago - and similar forts are doing the same today in 135 other countries around the world.

Details

"Reconstruction". Our case included passing laws so we couldn't vote and establishing newspapers to control our choice of whom we voted for when at last we were allowed to vote. "Reconstruction" included tolerating an on going black crime wave across the rural Southern countryside and protected it with Federal soldiers. Removing this crime wave had to be negotiated - the price was a stiff one.

Trade was "reconstructed". The lion's share of the Southern cotton trade was given to cartel interests in Egypt and India. Land taxes were introduced to a people who had no way to pay them. Cartel usury banks sprouted like mushrooms over the conquered land lending money to destitute farmers needing tax- money. "The borrower is slave ..."

Cartel land companies seized our land at the on going tax-sales. Dispossessed farmers moved to rapidly growing shanty towns on the way to becoming cities to work for starvation wages in Cartel plants - plants moved from the relatively high wage North to the cheap-labor South - earning for Southerners the hatred of unemployed Northern workmen. Preview to NAFTA?

Differential freight rates were imposed which charged more to ship goods from Richmond to NY than from NY to Richmond.

President Jefferson Davis was jailed to await a war crimes and treason trial. General Robert E. Lee was indicted. Our land was gone, our wealth was gone. Yeah, "Reconstruction". This is "Reconstruction". Hold your breath, Iraq - your turn is next.

Heart To Heart

Iraqi Sons-of-Esau, it's time we had a "heart to heart". We two are quite different. You are sons of Esau - we are sons of Jacob. It appears to us that under normal conditions you can't even get along with your own people, so, there is no way we are going to get along in the future. However, there is no reason we can't see eye to eye on certain things. After all, doesn't Islam teach, "The enemy of my enemy is my friend".

The Way We See Things

I have a question - do the things I have just related describe the teachings of our God, the WORD made flesh, and whom you look on as the prophet you call "Jesus"? Is it just possible that you have the same problem in your land that we have?

Just the other day I took this story off of one of your sites on the internet. A Muslim woman is telling a story:

"One day, my eldest daughter asked her father, 'Why don't you bring us cassettes of the great clerics... the Sheikh of Al-Azhar, the Egyptian mufti, or Al-Azhar University professors, whom I heard my cousin praise?' My husband's answer was most peculiar: 'They are agents of the unbelieving government; they rule as [it] orders and speak its words... There is no place in my house for cassettes of these people'..." (The Islam Review (<http://www.IslamReview.com>) The Egyptian Wife)

So! Your government, your preachers, your professors - they do the same to your people that our government, preachers and professors do in our lands to our people.

In our lands, Saxons follow the teachings of the WORD or they follow the edicts of the Government. One or the other.

Our so-called "Christian" churches, with few exceptions, are like yours - they are State Churches whose preachers get tax-exemption to censor God's Commandments. They teach state proclamations in place of the WORD. If the WORD conflicts - they eliminate the WORD and proclaim the kings' latest!

In essence, our vaunted "Christian" religion is nothing but a state religion. This is the same religion that allowed the devastation of the Southland, of South Africa, Germany, Panama, Bosnia and others. It obviously is not the teachings of the WORD.

Whose teaching is it then?

The WORD tells us;

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

We have seen their acts. Now, let us trace their acts to the god who allows such things. Then, we will see the face of our oppressor.

America's State Religion

Scripture says that God threw the Serpent out of the garden and it landed in India. We searched India. Our search found Brahma. Brahma has two sons, Vishnu and Siva. Siva is the more popular by far. Like Brahma, Siva has many faces - many manifestations. The most widely known, the most popular, and the most widely worshiped is the manifestation called Kali. Kali destroys so that what is destroyed may be rebuilt.

Kali

"Kali", Goddess of Destruction, the most terrible and malignant of the gods. She is the malignant aspect of her consort
Siva. She is seen as the spirit of evil. She is described as having:

* Long ragged locks.

This is why the WORD commands;

AMERICA - BEHOLD YOUR GOD

"Neither shall they shave their heads nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll (moderately cut) their heads." EZ 44:22

Worshippers of Buddha shave their heads. Worshipers of Kali have long locks. The two extremes. The American army used to give skin-head type haircuts; hippies had long greasy hair. Followers of the WORD are permitted only moderate hair cuts which advertise their obedience to neither of the others and obedience to the WORD.

Again, note the long hair and the universalist "world-force" circle about Kali's head.²

* Fang-like teeth. Vampire movies reveal more than mere horror movies.

* Lips dripping blood. Kali drinks blood. "Ye shall not eat anything with the blood." Lev 19:26; "It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations that you eat neither fat nor blood." Lev 3:17 (Deut 14:1-21, Lev 11:12-30)

* Long finger nails.

* 10 - 18 arms - although often portrayed with four.

* Fire in one hand. Symbol of destruction.

* Sword with skull impaled.

* Drum in hand - representing the rhythm of sexual intercourse.

* Necklace of skulls or severed heads.

* Belt of severed arms.

* Earrings of children's corpses. An imperative for abortion and starvation of children.

* Snakes as bracelets.

* Half naked - black skin: Many Kali cults are whore-houses (today's Hollywood might be considered an example). To followers of Kali devils are white while black is holy. Black is worshiped solely because it is black. Blacks are worshiped, not because of their intelligence, goodness, or excellence, but because they are black. Kali worshipers worldwide worship both black and Blacks - because they are black. Black is the color followers of the WORD traditionally accord the devil.

"God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ...
And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black? Would God take the form of a woman?" II Adam & Eve 4:1-4

Conclusion

If man will not worship God, he must worship man. Man-worship is represented by government edicts that violate the WORD. Government edicts are obeyed and worshiped in preference to the Commandments of God the WORD.

It is plain for everyone to see; Kali-like government edicts are created by those who follow Kali. Kali destroys so that what is destroyed may be rebuilt. But, since Kali has been elevated above all others - destruction and death have become an end in itself. They are perpetual.

The Serpents' money and media have given the rulers of the world their exalted positions. They worship their benefactor - Kali - manifestation of death and destruction.

Kali leads the 4-horsemen of the Apocalypse.

"And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that [were] on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." Jos 24:15

Each nation has its god. Islam has its god - ours is the WORD. Our common enemy is Kali who rules us both with her cold hand of death. And the kings, the priests and the great merchants like it so.

"There is nothing new under the sun." Ecclesiastes 1:9

UNDERSTANDING RACE

Understanding race can be difficult or simple. Simple is easier.

Risking oversimplification - I see the world divided into the world of Esau and the world of Jacob.³

Jacob is descended from Noah who is descended from Adam-man. Jesus, "the WORD made flesh" called himself "Son-of-man" and said "I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel". Many of the books of the Bible are addressed to Son-Of-Man.⁴

The WORD commands; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." Deut 23:2 The parable of the "Good Samaritan" and the "Ethiopian" show that strangers can be blessed in-so-far as they are obedient to the WORD. If these same strangers disobey the WORD - they will be cursed according to the WORD.⁵

Esau is the lawless son. He married a Canaanite. His descendants married Arabs and Turks. Today his descendants are thoroughly mixed with practically every people in the world - except Adam-man.⁶ Adam-man who mixes with Esau becomes Esau. Esau is Esau-Edom - the Edomites.

⁴ Heb: "adam" - those who blush rosy. Strong's Concordance

Edomites are the ancient merchant wanderers of the great African, Mid and Far-East deserts. Most have different tribal names given to them by the Chinese who named them according to their invasions of China. Some Edomite tribes actually conquered China and mixed their blood with the Chinese. Some conquered India and mixed their blood with them. Making all Edomites.

Religion:

Some converted to Islam; some converted to Judaism; some converted to Christianity, others became Hindu. Esau is not identified by religion. Esau has adopted all religions.

Conquests:

Esau's Muslim converts conquered Arabia, India, the Mid-East, North Africa, and much of Southern Europe - leaving these lands mixed with the blood of Esau. The Southern Spanish, Southern Italians and Sicilians spread the blood of Esau to America - especially S. America, Mexico and the cities of N. America. Arab traders spread their blood throughout Black Africa. The result is that today the world is basically either Esau or Jacob. The possible exceptions are almost not worth mentioning.

We see the yellow skinned Chinaman, the black skinned African, the tan mixed-breed Mexican Mestezo - but they are all equally "Esau". Esau's blood flows in their veins. Your eyes tell you that they are not Adam-man. Passing their acts through the filter of the WORD tells you what they are when your eyes cannot.

Jews:

Jews are Esau. Talmudic Jews basically belong to one of two Hindu castes - brahmin priests - and cartel managers. They have bred freely with everything in sight including Esau - which makes them Esau. Their defining mark is first their caste and then their belief-system. There are Yellow and Black Jews. There are Jews who appear white - but aren't. The ones Westerners are most familiar with are both dark and light racial types. Some call them Sephardic and Ashkenazic but that mostly describes their history rather than looks. .

Ashkenazic Jews:

"White" Edomite Jew are often blond, round skulls at the line of the hat brim - and "Jewish" in religion, and are called "Ashkenazic". These are mostly descended from the survivors of the extinct Khazarian Empire now reconstituted under the name "Zionist".

These Turks, former wanderers of the Russian steppes, furnish loud-mouth rabble rousers such Irv Rubin and revolutionaries such as Karl Marx, Trotsky and Lenin.

So-called "Black Ashkenazic" Edomite Turkic Jews, are considered by some to simply be dark-skinned mixed-breeds of the Indian merchant caste who attached themselves to the white Khazarian Turks of southern Russia.

Sephardic Jews

Sephardic Jews are the same dark-skinned Indian mixed-breeds that moved west in the company of other Turkic migrations. This is the merchant caste who, in the employ of the Catholic Church, managed church banks, operated their commercial ventures, and collected taxes for church appointed kings. They owe their black hair and dark skin to north India, and claim between 5% and 10% negroid blood.⁷

Both black and white "Jews" are subservient to the rules of their Hindu caste system and "religious" beliefs concealed under Sadducee/Babylonian religious customs and beliefs. They are a deceptive people. Ideal cartel banking, media and commerce managers.

Summary

The above is to provide background. It is based on study of Jewish history and Jewish opinions - opinions which often disagree. The following may be useful when attempting to answer those whose understanding is still in its formative stage:

 Jacob is Lawful - Esau is unlawful. The WORD ordered Jacob to enforce God's Law. Enforcing God's Law condemns a disproportionate number of the children of Esau. Therefore Esau opposes the enforcement of Jacob's Law - especially capital punishment.

However, the fact remains, the WORD demands that Jacob enforce the WORD. It's not an option. The penalty for not enforcing the WORD is annihilation:

⁷ "Nearly all Jewish communities show a substantial proportion of African Negroid marker genes, such as to imply a total Negro admixture of the order of 5% to 10%." The Genetics Of The Jews, (Clarendon Press, Oxford, 1978, A.E.Mourant (Gothic Ripples, March 1996, Thorgarth, Greenhow Hill, Harrogate, HG3 5JQ, England £4.50/yr.)

"For the people did not turn to Him ... neither did they seek the Lord of Armies. Therefore God will cut off from Israel head and tail, tail and head, in one day." Isaiah 9:13-17; "Thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people." I Ki 21:42

 When someone wishes to discuss "Jews" - first, make him tell you what kind of "Jew" it is that he wants to discuss; Does he wish to discuss Egyptian-Jews, Arab-Jews, Syrian Jews, Greek Jews, Khazarian Jews or Israelite Jews? Most of these different peoples lived in Palestine at the time of Jesus. They ALL were called "Jews" by the Romans because the Roman province was called Judea. Most people who want to talk about Jews don't know what they are talking about. Don't allow yourself to be sidetracked - keep to history and the WORD. Repeat God's Commandments. Discuss Jacob-Israel vs Esau. Discuss the problem today which is the WORD of our God vs the unlawful demands of Esau's gods. Remember; "No bastard.." Read your history. Keep it simple. One person at a time - one at a time.

S. AFRICA RAPE: Dear Sir; "If you come across a rapist on top of your wife and you shoot at him, you will go to jail. (Albert Ruthenberg, letter to the Citizen, S. Africa, Oct 1, 2003)

HOT SHOTS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Your "Black Sniper" HR rings a bell here. In spite of the occasional exceptional black marksman you mention, most are poor shots. The Citizen of Jan 30, 2003 reports that here in South Africa only 16 black soldiers were able to get one out of 2800 shots fired to hit the target they were aiming at. Considering that S. UNFILTERED NEWS

BANTUS: The U.S. State Department is importing Bantus to America and plans to resettle them in 43 cities. At least one city has opposed plans to accept Bantus, the City Council in Holyoke, Mass, voted in October to reject nearly $1 million in federal money. Bantus are primitive black subsistence farmers in Africa. Most have never seen a stove, bathtub, or bar of soap. Many cannot enter a room because they can't RKH: The Lawless effort by America's cartel rulers to force Saxons to live with strangers complies with Asoka's "Rock Edict #VII" on "open housing" - the Hindu law which mandates that members of all religions may live where they please. It also violates the WORD which commands; "Thou shalt drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31-33.

WITCH DOCTORS: Michael Jackson, allegedly paid a witch doctor $150,000 to place a curse on David Geffen and Steven Spielberg for not giving him the lead in Peter Pan, according to a story in the News & Advance, p.2, March 5, 2003.

RKH: We have our God - blacks have theirs. Most black gods manifest themselves as copies of black Shiva-Kali - sex, violence, voodoo-magic, kill, rape and destroy. They often call their god "Jesus" or "Allah", but their Jesus and Allah are names they have given Shiva-Kali - the god of destruction and sex. "By their acts ..."

IRV RUBIN: Died in a Los Angeles Hospital." (Investors Business Daily, p. 2, Nov 15, 2002)

RKH: I ran into Irv Rubin in Nebraska at a farm rally several years ago. He and a burly bodyguard were standing 200 yards away watching the building in which a meeting of farmers was taking place. I didn't recognize him and invited him to join the group. He declined, having a better understanding of farmers' temper at having their farms stolen by the usury-banks than I did.

In my opinion, Rubin was a nasty but brave sort. He went after anyone he thought opposed Jewish interests. His police rap sheet was as long as your arm and consisted of assaults, bombings and mayhem. He is believed to have been responsible for the deaths of more than one of his opponents. He was a disciple of Rabbi Kahani whose followers are responsible for numerous atrocities in Palestine.

ANTI-MUSLIM: Tampa, Fla. - Dr. Robert J. Goldstein, a foot specialist, was arrested and charged with possessing a non- registered destructive device and attempting to use an explosive to damage and destroy Islamic centers. Goldstein is suspected of a plot to blow up dozens of mosques and an Islamic education center. He had expertise and firepower to carry it out, police said. Police discovered his cache of up to 40 weapons, including .50-caliber machine guns and sniper rifles. They also uncovered more than 30 explosive devices, including hand grenades and a 5- gallon gasoline bomb with a timer attached. (Story in Oakland Press, Aug 25, 2002, A-18)

NEWS FROM MIDEAST

SOMETHING TO CONSIDER: In November, a Predator drone targeted and destroyed a vehicle in Yemen carrying six suspected al-Qaida operatives.

Let's run that by again. There's a law on the books in Virginia forbidding people from rigging booby-traps in their homes that might hurt intruders. This Predator drone was not rigged in the US but in someone else's home. It is an unthinkable piece of machinery like a shotgun rigged to a trip-cord. It was flying over a sovereign state and it killed people only "suspected" of wrongdoing.

Chapter 344

GINNY GEDDES

Knew

St. Giles

It happened in St. Giles Cathedral.

The preacher started to read from the Anglican prayer book. Enraged, little Ginny Geddes reached down, picked up a prayer stool, and threw it at the preacher's head - and everyone stood and walked out. That's what happened.

It was all because the preacher read from the prayer book!

What's wrong with reading from a prayer book?

Nothing. Nothing was wrong with the Episcopal prayer book. Nothing except that the king had ordered the preacher to read the Prayer Book in order to censor those parts of the Bible that the king found objectionable.

The Bible had to be censored. Unless the Bible is censored - kings can't rule. Why? Because the Bible says that we are not to have kings.

Unless the Bible is censored, there can be no monopoly ownership of land because the Bible says that the land is to be divided and never sold, and we are not to have monopolies.

Unless the Bible is censored, we learn that we are not to be taxed; we learn that usurers are to be put to death; we learn that we are not to have strangers in the land and we are to obey God rather than man.

That's why we have the censorship. The fact is - if the un-censored WORD is taught and obeyed - the king, his priests and the great merchant managers of cartel wealth would be out of business. It would bring about the day when "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

To prevent his subjects from learning the prohibitions that would put him out of business - the king ordered the prayer book read rather than the Bible. Ginny Geddes and everyone else there knew that was what the preacher was doing. He was preaching the "milk" from the prayer book - milk having the royal stamp of approval. The part of the WORD that curtails episcopacies - every episcopacy except the WORD itself - that is the "meat". The meat had been censored out so the king might live. That is why Ginny Geddes threw the stool at the preachers' head, and that's why everyone walked out. They knew what the preacher was doing.

The Classical World

King Asoka, whose dynasty had been put on the throne by India's Hindu priesthood, conquered separatist Buddhism by first accepting it, then changing it into Buddhist/Hinduism, and then making it a state religion.

Asoka bragged that he had conquered the Greeks. With Greek and Roman names, the Greek and Roman gods became mirror images of the Indian gods. The Greeks and Romans brought these gods to Judea where they well nigh corrupted the whole land. It was then Jesus Christ returned the WORD to captive Israel.

To stamp out the WORD the establishment reacted in its usual manner. First, it killed Jesus and persecuted his followers. This didn't work. The WORD continued to spread - impacting the trade of the Roman Empire.

Persecution failed, so the "Asoka Pre-empt Plan" went into action. Rome's ruling cartel changed the organized Roman religion into the organized Christian religion. It was an overnight thing - just as Buddhism had been organized into Buddhist/Hinduism in India.

Constantine

Constantine, the Roman emperor, changed Christianity by embracing it, organizing it, and making it the official religion of the Roman Empire. Roman Provinces were renamed "Dioceses" and Roman priests became Christian state-priests. In India, Asoka pretended to be a Buddhist - Constantine didn't even pretend to be Christian. It is said that he converted to Christianity on his death bed. At least that's what we are told. It wouldn't do to have the founder of the re-engineered Roman state-religion refuse to accept the very religion he had created.

Hindu Rituals Move West

The WORD that caused the trouble had no symbol by which it could be identified and no rituals except two - "baptism" and the "Lord's Supper". Christians could be identified only by their obedience to the WORD.

The newly created state-religion replacement advertised itself as "Christian". It kept the interesting stories and parables of the WORD, but it censored the "meat" of the WORD - those teachings that were destroying Roman trade.

To replace the "meat" extracted from the WORD - Constantine's replacement religion added rituals copied straight from the merchant's Hindu mother religion:

|----------------------------|--------------------------|
| * processions | * candles |
| * parading relics | * racial integration |
| * body parts for relics | * tax exemption |
| * incense to feed the gods | * monasteries & convents |
| * shaven heads | * missionaries |
| * celibate priests | * holy water |
| * pointed hats | * male & female priests |
| * works for merit | * saints |
| * robes | * auricular confession |
| * idols | * pilgrimages |
| * rosaries | |

And sandwiched inside - usury banking.

If anything else is needed to indicate the religion's place of origin - it would be the temples. Hindus build their temples with domes or steeples. The dome, (or steeple) is itself an object of worship. It represents Siva's "linga" - his sex organ. Siva is a sex god. The WORD requires no such ritual.

The WORD

Rome's new state-religion selected a number of religious manuscripts, copied them into a Bible, and banned the unused ones. It declared itself the custodian of this Bible it had created and its truths. It then banned the reading of this book. It declared that the state-church itself would determine the portions to be taught. This prevented the teaching of the "meat" of the WORD that had caused the international merchant so much trouble.

Reformation

Over the ages there have been many priests of the Roman state- church who tried to teach the "meat" along with the "milk" of the WORD. Most were killed. But, always there remained priests who tried - and the revolts continued.

In the 1500s, a major revolt occurred that we call the Reformation. Millions died in the wars that followed.

Counter-Reformation

The Reformation Wars ended from exhaustion after 30 years. By the end of 100 years, the Reformation itself had with a few exceptions come to an end. In matters of trade and money, things were basically where they had been before.

The major exception was that others had gotten themselves a cut of the cartel's operation. The Protestant kings took over as collectors of tribute and managers of cartel land and in time England found a way to get a cut of the usury banking.

Superficially, it appeared that Constantine's universalist religion had fragmented. Certain rituals were discarded and some of the more glaring ecclesiastical abuses were stopped. The major benefit to the people was that the Bible could now be read by anyone who wanted to. Religion was blamed for the wars - but religion was only part of the reason.

It's interesting to note that the Catholic Counter-Reformation was brought about under the guidance of a carbon copy of the Hindu "Dharmamatras" - called "Jesuits" in the West. Like the Hindu Dharmamatras, Jesuits convert others by becoming part of the group they wish to convert.

As a result of their work, the protestant return to the merchant's universalism was relatively painless and bloodless. They only know that whereas they were once intolerant of things condemned by the WORD - they now are tolerant of them.

America's King & High Priest

Here, the High Priest of America's state religion swears on a Bible that he will enforce the laws of the gods of the countless races that he helped bring into the country. To do this, he demands that everyone "tolerate" everyone else's gods. When the laws of different gods conflict, the judges he appointed to represent the more important gods will referee.

America's Constantine priests watched the king appoint aliens to judge us¹ and said nothing.² Now they wring their hands weeping crocodile tears because these followers of alien gods have banned our God the WORD.

The king's government awards tax-exemption, loans, and large donations to religious leaders who agree NOT to teach the meat of the WORD - the Commandments of the WORD forbidding "taxes", "monopolies", "undivided land", "strangers in the land" and "miscegenation". In fact, it's amusing to watch priests who suppress the WORD fall over themselves to lick his shoes.

Prince Charles: Next "Defender of the Faith", "Supreme Governor of the Church of England", Leader of the Episcopal Church worldwide. "A man cannot serve two masters". This one is trying to serve several.

His Royal Highness

The heir apparent to the throne and head of the British Empire's state-religion, makes no attempt to hide his gods. He sports a third eye painted on his forehead and prays in Hindu temples.

His "outing" is creating something of a stir among those who disapprove of such things.

The upcoming Coronation Ceremony is commented on by the TKC magazine in the following manner:

1 "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15

2 "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and [is] a witness, whether he hath seen or known [of it]; if he do not utter [it], then he shall bear his iniquity." Le 5:16

God's Representative by TKC

"The current movement in Britain to re-write the Coronation Ceremony for Prince Charles could perpetrate a crisis of epic proportion.

"The former Bishop of Durham, Right Rev. David Jenkins has been spearheading such a move for about three years. Dr. David Hope, Archbishop of York, number two in the Church of England hierarchy, has thrown his support towards changes that will result in a secular multifaith "installation ceremony."

"The group of reformers wants a role for the Roman Catholic and Methodist Churches, the Chief Rabbi and a representative of Islam instead of the exclusive leadership of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

"It is proposed that the eucharist be removed from the ceremony.

"Such reforms would throw into question the establishment of the Church of England and the monarch's role as Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England. The monarch is Supreme Governor by virtue of being sovereign. ..." (From "TKC", Vol 13, No 3)

This is Diana, the late spouse of Charles. It is a matter of some debate who in the Household Guard she didn't sleep with. Whoredom is permitted by several of the gods whose "third-eye" she wears.

Here we have a Protestant Archbishop of the Anglican Church and a pope of the Roman church in a tight conversation. Can you guess what they might have in common?

Anglican Archbishop & Pope Paul VI

Patriarch of Constantinople & Roman Pope

Even more interesting - the Catholic Church split into Eastern Orthodox and Roman Catholic divisions which have been at each other's throats ever since. They appear to be getting along here.

This is an interesting group. A group of Lutherans and a group of Catholics meeting to iron out differences. Forgotten are the wars between their ancestors that destroyed 90% of the population of Germany.

Forgotten also is the reason for the dramatic post WWII drop-off of German Lutheran Church membership. I have read that when the Soviet Union occupied East Germany practically every other Lutheran preacher became an agent of the Soviet secret police. There must be a very good reason for them to meet.

Kaiser Wilhelm II

(Left) If this one doesn't blow your mind - I don't know what will:

"Pope Leo XIII gave evidences of friendliness toward me whenever he could ... It was of interest to me that the pope said to me on this occasion that Germany must become the sword of the Catholic Church. I remarked that the old Roman Empire of the German nation no longer existed and that conditions had changed. But he stuck to his words." (Kaiser Wilhelm II, Protestant Emperor of the German Empire³)

Now really! A Catholic Pope offering the job of Holy Roman Emperor to a Protestant? A job of being the sword of the Catholic Church?

Remember, Wilhelm was not only Kaiser of Germany, he was also head of the Lutheran Church. He confirmed the ecclesiastical hierarchy appointment of priests. If there were really a Catholic religion and really a Protestant religion whose business was primarily religion, such a thing could not happen. When a Protestant "pope" can become the sword of a Catholic "pope" - something else more important than religion is involved.

High Priest & His Far Eastern Counterpart

What can Buddhism and Catholicism have in common that would justify such a meeting? Could it be that Pope is considering becoming a Buddhist - or perhaps the Buddhist is considering becoming a Catholic? Or, perhaps the subject of their conversation has nothing to do with religion at all? It may have something to do with something that all organized religions agree on.

Observation

We are no longer children. The WORD that our Lord and savior brought to save us is our key to understanding:

"The Love of money is the root of all evil." I Ti

It's true!

What is the thing that all these different religious leaders have in common? What do they love more than God and how do they show it?

Simple, they violate God's Commandment to get the money. They do it in spite of "If you love me obey my commandments".

The WORD says that USURY is a capital crime. (Ezek 18:13; Deu 23:20) In spite of this the Catholic and the Anglican Churches are major usury banking factors. The Methodists, Baptists, etc. are up to their necks working the usury system and they too conceal their transgressions with silence.

In India, children inherit their father's debts and generation after generation are perpetually enslaved to the lenders. The Rev. Moon comes to our country and lends to our "Christian" priests in spite of the Law:

"The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7

The borrowers become his slaves.

What else do we see:

The Southland, the land of mostly debt-free self-sufficient farms was pulverized by invaders, taxed with no way to pay, and lent money by the invaders' usury banks to pay the taxes, and her people passed into slavery where they have languished ever since.

And what did the organized "Christian" religion say. Did its priests organize protests and warn against war with a kinsman? "Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel." I Kings 12:24. No! They concealed the meat of the WORD and said nothing!

Let's read again the words of a Boer farmer written in 1902 while his country was undergoing the same:

"The world looks on - the civilized Christian world of churches, and of preachers of the Gospel ... at this barbarous spectacle in South Africa, with about as much real indignation as if Lord Kitchener and his 220,000 troops were inflicting all the horrors of British warfare upon a commonwealth of criminals or brigands, and not upon two little Republics made up of one of the bravest races in Europe, and of the most intensely and sincerely ... Christian people on earth ...

"England has killed 14,000 Christian children, has imprisoned 45,000 Christian women in barbed wire enclosures, has devastated two Christian countries where there was less poverty and less vice than in any other Christian community in the world, and had armed savages to help her ... And yet Cardinal Vaughan,⁴ in the name of the Catholic Church of England, the Archbishop of Canterbury in behalf of the Protestants, and ... the Nonconformists of the same enlightened Christian nation, piously call down God's blessing upon the arms which are killing and exterminating a little Christian nation in South Africa. And the United States, Austria, and other countries, equally Christian, enlightened, and humane, sell ... supplies to the power which wages such a war." The Boer Fight For Freedom, Michael Davitt, Funk & Wagnalls, NY, 1902.

4 "It is now a question of something more than of what is lawful... we realize with grateful confidence the most honorable mission with which God seems to have entrusted us ... For these purposes, you will please to recite on Sundays, ... the prayers to be found in the 'Manual' ... and headed 'In Times of Calamity.'" Davitt., footnote p. 587

Conclusion

How are we to look upon these organized religions of the world whose roots are in India? - especially that of Constantine's substitute religion which includes myriad so-called "protestant" offspring? What is our relationship to them?

Is it not "slave" to "master"?

These people, who call themselves our religious leaders, are in the business of making usury loans, loans to us, usury-loans that enslave us, usury-loans made in violation of the WORD; Then;

They conceal the WORD that forbids usury - as well as the WORD forbidding monopolies, taxes, and strangers in the land, AND it is THEIR banks that own the media who elect our kings:

We now understand why they use silence to censor the meat from the WORD - the meat that forbids the horrible things they do to us. They know that if the meat of the WORD is taught - the king, his priests and the great managers of cartel wealth will be out of business. It will bring the dreaded day when they will be held accountable - "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

It is to prevent this day that they conceal the prohibitions of the WORD.

The job of Constantine's counterfeit priest is to keep us dumbed down so that we won't discover that we are being treated like animals to be harnessed and worked for their pleasure. How do we tell the true prophets of the WORD from these evil ones?

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

Those who teach the meat of the WORD - that we are not to have usury, kings, monopolies, or strangers in the land - that priest teaches the meat of the WORD.

If he dispenses "milk" instead of "meat" - pick up your prayer stool and throw it at him.

Ginny Geddes did.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

"It is a real pleasure to go to the Children's Home and see how they make do.

"Something interesting. 1,500 farmers have been murdered plus a great many whites in town. Their dogs are poisoned. Ten dogs in two days in Benaai last week and 12 in Verwoerdburg. Only four survived eating meat laced with agriculture pesticide. The homes these dogs protected are later robbed.

"The HNP holds regular day camps to prepare people to defend themselves and their property in the expected chaos predicted to come. The commando militias were abolished. There is hope that former commandos will now join the HNP security sections so that with God's help we can escape becoming a second Haiti.

"Christianity is being removed from schools and history is being changed. Things like 'Piet Retief raped Dingaan's daughter and that was why he and his men were massacred.'

"An English lady in the HNP (Boer political party) knew Aida Parker, who recently died. She said that Aida had a wealthy mother. She studied journalism at Wits University. While there she married a Jewish fellow and they had a son. It was then she discovered that to return to her people she had

FBI Lies

On February 26, 2003, I received a telephone call from a friend in Norfolk. He said that a public school had just held an assembly on "Foreign and Domestic Terrorism". The speaker was a retired FBI agent named Irvin Wells, a member of the "Society of Former FBI Special Agents". An entire section of his presentation was dedicated to Richard Kelly Hoskins. He told the students that Mr. Hoskins had been indicted and although the case did not reach court, Richard Kelly Hoskins was sentenced to life in prison.

Since I am Richard Kelly Hoskins, and I am not in prison, have not been indicted, and have not been accused of terrorism by any credible authority, I called the principal to learn more. The principal's secretary took the call and asked who I was and the subject to be discussed. I told her. She said that the principal was out of the office but would return my call shortly.

Not having my call returned, I called again the next day, and the next and the next. At last, I told the secretary that if I did not hear from the principal shortly that he would have to deal with my lawyer.

Within 20 minutes the phone rang. It was the former FBI agent Irvin Wells. I questioned the truthfulness of his accusations. He said that he must have gotten faulty information. He was vague about his sources.

I found this Irvin Wells a personable sort. He was a Virginian and had gone to VMI where he was brother-rat with my first cousin whom he knew.

We got off on Ruby Ridge and Waco massacres where he stated that the victims of the FBI were the actual aggressors and got what they deserved. He appeared to believe that it was unimportant that at Ruby Ridge a boy had been shot in the back, a mother holding her baby was shot in the face. What was important was that "they had broken the law". He didn't believe for one minute that Ruby Ridge was the result of a federal "frame-up". He firmly believed that the Waco Branch Davidians got what they deserved. "They shot federal agents". He was insistent that they shot first and later committed mass suicide. He instantly discounted the heat sensitive film taken from a helicopter showing FBI shooting down Davidians as they fled the flames.

On that note, we said good-by and hung-up.

Later inquiry revealed that this Wells had been head of the FBI's Norfolk Station - a responsible position. He had also held an important position in New York. I mention this to say that while several say that he is arrogant, he is no dummy. He was in position to get correct information about Ruby Ridge, Waco, and me, even after he retired. If what he told the school children came from FBI sources - the FBI sources are in dire need of updating. If his purpose in talking to school children was to shape their opinions - he was right on the button.

It is my opinion that many people associated with the federal government use the Machiavellian principle of saying whatever will advance their agenda - truth or lie. To those people, truth and lies are just tools to be used and discarded.

The result: anything they say must be received with reservations.

"Thank you for your support.

The Lorie Youth Centre is situated in Bronkhorstspuit and currently accommodates 26 underprivileged children. The socio-economic situation in our country has led to the necessity for such a centre. The parents of these children can, for various reasons, no longer provide a healthy and safe environment for them.

"The children at the Centre are brought up within a strong Christian framework. The basis of their upbringing being obedience and love for our Heavenly Father, as well as discipline and gratefulness. As young as they are, the children have a happy and positive outlook on life.

"Scholastic achievement is of utmost importance to the Trustees and staff at the centre. The children are given all the support and attention necessary to assist them in their studies.

"The Lorie Youth Centre Trust was established in April 2000 by 6 business men and women who saw the desperate need to provide a stable and secure haven for the children. This is a non-profit organization and is solely the concern of

NATIONAL SOCIALISM

In my opinion, the difference to the ITC as to who won WWI was only a matter of degree. As it was, the Central Powers, consisting of Germany, Austria, and Turkey, lost and were dismembered to facilitate their looting. The lies, treachery, misery and outrage facilitated an effort by Germany to not only restore to Germany what had been stolen from her, but to nationalize the assets involved into the hands of individual Germans. It was this German economic Nationalism, called "National Socialism" that upset the Cartel. If allowed to succeed, it would spell the beginning of the end of the rule of the international merchant.

Richmond 1957

My wife and I had an apartment in Richmond in 1957. At that time I was an idealistic, underpaid organizer and lobbyist for The Defenders Of State Sovereignty & Individual Liberties. This group existed to resist the Federal takeover of the Virginia Public Schools. Both Virginia senators, most of her congressmen, state senators and state delegates were among its 10,000 dues-paying members.

One night a fellow came by our 3rd floor walk-up apartment in the Fan District. We talked politics and he gave me a booklet entitled "The Program of the National Socialist German Workers' Party", by Gottfried Feder. It was issued February 1920 - only six months after the NSGWP was organized.

I read it and put it aside to read again later. Fifty years passed and the other day I found it in my library, dusted it off and read it again. It contains a wealth of information about the German program to convert Germany from multi-national into a national state; transfer government-owned assets to a farm-oriented society - and do it in such a manner that Germany would not be destroyed in the process.

The NS Plan outlined in the booklet contained 25 points - which I condensed to fit in this newsletter.

THE 25 POINTS of the National Socialist Workers Party

Announced on Feb 25, 1920¹

1. Union of all Germans.
2. Equal rights with other nations. Abolition of Treaty of Versailles.
3. Return of land and colonies on which to settle surplus population. (The land seized by the allies in WWI)
4. Only those of German blood may be citizens. (Perhaps half the countries of the world have a similar requirement.)
5. Non-citizens are guests only.
6. Voting is limited to citizens. Appointment to government positions by merit - not political party.
7. The State must promote industry and employment. Foreigners excluded from the state.
8. Non-German immigration forbidden. Non-Germans required to leave.
9. Citizens equal in rights and duties.
10. Citizens must contribute mental or physical labor for the good of the nation. This was necessary to dismantle the 1000 year old German caste system where one caste lived from another's efforts.

¹ NOTE: Germans are Saxons. "German" is a name given Saxons living beyond Gaul by the Romans. It means the "germanic", "genuine", or "true" people. When the NS Party speaks of "German" the term is interpreted by Saxons worldwide as pertaining to them since Germans are overwhelmingly the greater part of the Saxon race.

11. Therefore: income not earned by work is forbidden.
12. War profiteers will be confiscated.
13. Nationalization of great multi-national corporations with ownership to rest with the workers.
14. Profits from wholesale monopolies shared.
15. Provision for old age.
16. Regulate wholesale business monopoly. Preference shown to small businesses.
17. Confiscation of trust and corporate lands without compensation; abolish interest on land loans; prohibition of land speculation.
18. Ruthless prosecution of sordid criminals - usurers punished with death.
19. Roman Law serving the materialistic world order replaced by a legal system for all Germany.
20. Availability of higher education to all regardless of caste. Development of gifted children of poor parents.
21. National health program to protect mothers and infants; prohibit child labour; encourage sports for youth.
22. Abolition of a paid army and formation of a national army.
23. To create a national Press:
 - (a) Editors and assistants of newspapers must be members of the nation.
 - (b) Non-German media shall require special permission of the state.
 - (c) Non-Germans shall be prohibited from financing or influencing German media. Pornography will be prosecuted.
24. Liberty for all religious denominations that aren't a danger to the morals of the German race.
25. That the government be given the power to carry out these 25 points.

The leaders of the Party swear to sacrifice their lives if necessary in securing fulfillment of the foregoing Points.

Munich Feb 24, 1920.

Comments

Certain of the "25 Points" are worth examining more closely.

#6 Voting is limited to citizens. This is standard in most alien countries of the world. Only their racial or religious kind are allowed to vote. This is especially true in Black Africa.

The Commandment of the Saxon WORD requires the same: "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee." De 17:15. To allow strangers to vote implies that strangers also have the right to rule Saxons - a violation of God's Commandment.

7. Foreigners must be excluded from the state. The right of self determination requires that a nation rule itself. Today, this rule applies to all nations except the Saxon nation - in spite of the Commandment: "Ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you ... And ye shall dispossess the land and dwell therein." Numbers 33:52-53

8. Non-German immigration forbidden. Non-Germans required to leave. This policy would banish the rule of the multi-national Hindu state.

13. Nationalization of great corporations: German companies had been absorbed into great German corporations which were almost entirely multi-national. These multi-national corporations funded anti-Saxonite left-wing activity, just as they do today. The NS plan was to nationalize the corporations and turn them over to the workers, making German industry national instead of multi-national.

14. Profits from wholesale monopolies shared. In Central Europe giant wholesale operators bought cheaply from manufacturers, raised their prices several times, and then re-sold to the German public. They did this while Germany was starving, and it was largely an alien monopoly doing it. It was much like what happens after Walmart comes to town and drives the small store owners out of business, and is then able to do virtually anything it wishes. The NS plan was to nationalize the great wholesale monopolies, break them up into small businesses once again, and give employment to many people.

17.1 Confiscation of trust and corporate lands without compensation. German land was held by princes, church and corporations in trust for the people for centuries. However, the people had never received any benefit except that of being forced to work on this land.

17.2 Abolish interest on land loans. Bank policy in the past was to load loans with interest, manipulate the business cycle and take the land back when the owners bankrupted. "No-interest loans" by the NS government were substituted.

17.3 Prohibition of land speculation. Land was for the people - especially the farmer. Land speculation was prohibited. This was straight from the WORD. "The land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit." Nu 26:55 "The land shall not be sold forever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

18. Usurers punished with death. "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

19. Roman Law serving the materialistic world order replaced by a legal system for all Germany. #18 and #19 contain a story within a story. Remember your history. The NS leader was Adolph Hitler. He was Catholic. Those he appointed to head departments of his organization were Catholics. The Catholic population of Germany and Austria were his devoted followers. This large public approval forced the Vatican to endorse Hitler's party. Vatican endorsement locked-in the Catholic vote. This vote plus the support of Germany's Protestant Prussian Church gave the National Socialist Party an overwhelming lock on elections.

But, Catholics and Protestant religious organizations owned the banks. The Jews were hired to do the actual operation to avoid being condemned by those who believed the WORD.

#18. Usurers punished with death - hit bank operation hard. It would be difficult to run usury banks if enforcement of punishment for usury was the death penalty. This, combined with #7. (Foreigners must be excluded from the state) deprived the banks of their operators. With the Jews gone who would run the usury banks? The only option was to re-commence low-profit no-interest banking of the "Bank of Amsterdam" kind (see WC/PC), or go out of business.

The religious leaders seethed over this loss of income. "A national law" instead of "Roman Law" was a direct attack on

Canon Law that said that usury	10
consisted of "interest in excess of	23.58
6%."	61.16

As can be seen from the table, it makes no difference what "rate" of interest is charged. The fact that interest is charged at all makes the usury contract a fraud from its conception which is why it is outlawed.

411.45
1067.19
2768.01
7179.52
18621.82
48300.21
$125,278.29

Proving the point - $10 borrowed at 10% requires the repayment of $125,278.29 in 100 years.

Make the loan for $1 for 100 years. If there were only $1 in existence, and that's all, it would require repayment of $12,527 with only $1 in existence - an impossibility.

. No wonder organized religions were upset with the NS.

22. Abolition of a paid army and formation of a national army. This required that Germany have a national militia which deprived possible tyrants the use of a paid standing army which could be used as a private police force. This explains today's campaign against militias.

For years banks have controlled the press by loans they have made to press. "The borrower is slave to the lender." Pr:22:7 A NS nationalization of the banks resulted in "press nationalization". Nationalization was further enhanced with point #23 which follows

23. To create a national Press: (a) Editors and assistants of newspapers must be members of the nation. (b) Non-German media shall require special permission of the state. (c) Non-Germans shall be prohibited from financing or influencing German media. Pornography will be prosecuted.

With churches no longer teaching the WORD, the media becomes the manager of populations. A national media will teach subjects that benefit and preserve the nation. A multi-national Hindu media will teach subjects designed to destroy the nation and replace it with a multi-nation population.

24. Liberty for all religious denominations that aren't a danger to the morals of the German race. Point #24 stepped right into the perpetual backbiting and squabbling between the Protestant Prussian Church and the Catholic Church. It supported the 3rd way called "German Christian's Faith Movement". This was a universal movement of Germans supporting the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of the WORD and denouncing the lawlessness of the organized religions. The NS Party called it - "Positive Christianity".² The party motto: "Neither Catholic nor Protestant, but 'Positive Christianity'!"

The thing that raises the NS 25 Points above crowd pleasing rhetoric is this last part.

The leaders of the Party swear to sacrifice their lives if necessary in securing fulfillment of the foregoing Points.

"By their acts ye shall know them." The leaders of the NS movement continued their fight to return State, religious, and corporate assets to the nation until they died at their posts as they said they would.

Transfer Agreements Of 1939

An article in Sep-Oct 2002 National Vanguard entitled "German Transfer Agreement of 1939, A Peaceful Approach To the Problem Of Ethnic Mixing", listed many such population transfers undertaken to avoid conflict. This was part of the implementation of the "25 Points."

The article starts by relating the agreement between Greece and Turkey in 1923 that compelled the repatriation of Muslims living in Greece to Turkey and Anatolian Greeks living in Turkey to Greece. This eliminated a considerable source of friction between the two warring nations.

The specific issue that caused the German government to negotiate its 1939 lightning-fast treaties with Estonia, Latvia, ² Hans Rudel, son of a Lutheran pastor and the most decorated German soldier of World War II, said that the leader of the NSP was the most Christian man he ever knew.

and the Soviet Union was the effort of the British to start race wars by exacerbating the natural differences that always exist between different races with different Gods living in the same area.

After the Polish defeat in 1939, the Germans were able to persuade the Soviets to an exchange of populations allowing ethnic Germans in eastern Poland to come to Germany. The offer of return was voluntary to avoid compelling Slavic groups in Western Poland to move to the Soviet zone.

The German-Estonian transfer agreement involved lands conquered by the Teutonic Knights which had been home to Germans for some 700 years. Nevertheless, the Estonians struggling to define themselves as a nationality had been putting pressure on the Germans. The total number of Estonian Germans transferred amounted to approximately 13,000.

Polish German Mother & Child

The ethnic Germans arriving from Estonia, being predominately landowners, began moving into Warthegau and Danzig-West Prussia strengthening the demographic situation in the eastern provinces and restoring them to their former status as the "breadbasket of Germany."

German-Latvian Agreement

On Oct 30, 1939, Dr. Erhard Kroeger made the following appeal:

"German racial comrades!

"We now embark upon the completion of the task given us by History: the recalling of the last German racial comrades to the great fatherland of all Germans.

"The transport to the Greater German Reich will begin in a few days. ..."

German-Soviet Transfer Agreement

Dr. Hans Frank issued the following proclamation:

"The Reich Government and the Government of the Soviet Union have concluded in the spirit of friendship a treaty which give to the ethnic Germans who live in the Soviet zone of the former Polish state the possibility of immigrating to Germany, and reciprocally securing for the Ukrainians, White Russians, Russians and Ruthenians on this side of the German demarcation line the right to reunite themselves with their kinsmen in the Soviet Union. ... this gives the Germans, who previously lived scattered throughout the world, once again a common homeland. ... I harbor the firm hope that the action undertaken by the powers concerned will contribute to the elimination once and for all of a trouble spot ... and will bring Eastern Europe into a happy future."

The fate of the Volga and Crimea Germans at the hands of the Bolsheviks during the 1930s had caused the National Socialists considerable anguish, but they were powerless to intervene or intercede on the behalf of their racial kinsmen. The movement of the Bolsheviks into Poland as a result of the Russian conquest of western Poland brought still more ethnic Germans into the power of Bolshevism.

The Bolsheviks were willing to agree to the transfer of Germans in exchange for non-Polish Slavs living in the German occupied zone. The transport of ethnic Germans from the Soviet zone into German controlled territory required 93 special trains in addition to those marching out on foot and in 11 truck columns and 71 enormous wagon trains comprising some 15,000 vehicles.

In total, some 129,000 ethnic Germans were resettled in the Reich as a result of the transfer agreement. When one considers the fate of the Baltic republics at the hands of Bolshevik NKVD less than one year after the transfer agreements, one must admire the vision and wisdom of the NP in saving these Germans from the ethnic massacres and deportations which were the fate of the Crimea and Volga Germans.

6 Million Jews - 9 million Germans

The attempt by National Socialism to escape the looting of her assets was countered by a world wide crusade. Every empire created by the Cartel, the English, Soviet, American and French wanted their share.

In spite of the effort by Germany to separate the races to avoid conflict - propaganda during the war exacerbated age old animosities to inflame races against each other. In the east - Slavs were hammered with anti-German propaganda and the atrocities committed against the civilian population of their ancient German enemies were horrifying. In the West, where kinsmen fought kinsmen, it was almost as bad.³

The book Crimes and Mercies: The Fate of German Civilians Under Allied Occupation, 1944-1950 by James Bacque (London, England, Little Brown 1997) relates the following:

"At least 9.3 million Germans died needlessly soon after the war ... This is many more than died in battle, air raids and concentration camps during the war ... they (the Allies) did not end the killing at the end of the war but increased it ... far more civilian Germans died in 5 years of 'peace' than soldiers in six years of war." (see HR #288)

This massive atrocity was the result of careful planning and execution. The millions of Germans who were driven out of East Germany left land and assets which were quickly confiscated and then "privatized". The atrocities committed against the Germans in Germany proper left assets without owners and assets that had depreciated to pennies on the dollar.

In addition, German trade routes were pre-empted, German trade went to competitors, German banking became cartel branch-banking. All in all, it was a very profitable war.

The "Six Million Jews"? There weren't 6 million Jews living in German Occupied Europe at the time. The "Six Million" was just another "Andersonville story" told over and over by the Cartel media to prevent discussion of "9 million Germans", the looting of Germany, and especially - to prevent the discussion of the NS 25 Points.

In this last, the Cartel must be disappointed. Guess the favorite topic of conversation among right wing patriots in the former Soviet Union? You got it! It's National Socialism. Guess what is the favorite topic of discussion among right wing Muslims? How about right-wing Japs? Right again.

Right wing Americans look on National Socialism and see it - not as an objective where they want to be - but as a way-station on the road to the self-sufficient farm where every man is a king and a priest. But first, before this can happen the multi-national merchant's cartel must be dismantled. This will occur in time:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

ERIC ROBERT RUDOLPH ARRESTED

A college boy identified Eric Rudolph's truck at the scene of an Alabama abortion-mill bombing. That's it!

Based on this incontrovertible evidence, the FBI issued an "all points" for his arrest.

Rudolph comes from that part of Western N. Carolina where generations of moonshiners have taken to the hills when trouble looms, and this was the FBI after him crying "murder" and offering $1,000,000. The reward notices didn't say "alive". Knowing how the FBI operates⁴ - running was definitely an option. Rudolph ran.

The FBI employed hundreds of men using bloodhounds, hunters, helicopters and heat-seeking military equipment in a 5 year fruitless search. During this 5 year manhunt - no other bombings were blamed on him - something one would expect from one already condemned with nothing more to lose.

At last, Eric Rudolph was arrested by Jeffrey Postell in Murphy, NC where the hunt started 5 years ago and identified by another member of the same Murphy Police Department. Some say Postell arrested Rudolph by accident. If it wasn't an accident - "A man's foes shall be they of his own household." Matt 10:36.

The NY Times of June 1, 2003 described the long chase. "The FBI held meetings with hunters reminding them of the $1,000,000 reward. But townsfolk remained chilly. There were those who supported Mr. Rudolph's stance against abortion."

A guard was killed at the Alabama clinic which Rudolph had supposedly bombed - a clinic accused of having killed many tens of thousands of babies. Whether Rudolph actually did it or not remains to be seen, but the Law governing abortion is clear, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came forth from the womb, I sanctified you, and I ordained you." Jer. 1:5; "Whosoever he be of the children of Israel that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:2.

On shaky ground, the FBI beefed up their case by adding an unsolved bombing of a sodomite bar to Rudolph's tab. The Law dealing with sodomy says that it too is unlawful; "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13

Neither of the above charges were popular with the public. To win help in their manhunt, the FBI shuffled the evidence further. Searching the files, they took every unsolved crime they could and blamed them all on Rudolph hoping that one of them might stick. One of these was the 1996 Atlanta Olympics bombing that killed a woman. The Atlanta Olympics bombing wasn't about punishing baby killers or sodomites - it was murder. If people could be persuaded that he did this they might turn him in.

This is why the cartel media now uses the headline; "Suspect in '96 Olympic Bombing caught." It associates Rudolph with cold-blooded murder.

If the trial were held in Murphy, North Carolina, the FBI would have a hard job convicting him. Saxons are almost the only race in Murphy. The jury pool there is almost entirely "man", and man is made in the image of God the WORD.

The NY Times said this about the people of Murphy:

"Mr. Rudolph became a local folk hero, a cheered-on phantom, as he eluded hundreds of FBI agents Today even after his capture, many people here still identify with him."

"Rudolph's a Christian and I'm a Christian and he dedicated his life to fighting abortion," said Chrystal Davis, 25, a mother of 4. "Those are our values. These are our woods. I don't see what he did as a terrorist act."

You are not going to get a hanging jury from people like that!

For five years many people around Murphy had a chance to betray Rudolph and take the million dollar reward but refused. They called it - "the 30 pieces of silver".

People are also watching to see if the FBI is really going to try to use the old Olympic bombing charge. Chances are, if they do, it will blow up in their face - AGAIN. It's old stuff.

The FBI has already accused Richard A. Jewell, a part-time security guard, of the bombing. After six months he was found innocent - after being driven into bankruptcy and a nervous breakdown.

Now, the Feds are going to have to prove that they have enough evidence to convict Rudolph of actually bombing that Alabama abortion mill. Is "walking away from the scene" enough evidence? The FBI says it is, the media says it is, and doubtless they will round up a jury who will agree. The media says he is guilty and is calling him a "white-supremist" to influence the blacks who will be named to Rudolph's jury.

If all this fails - who knows? The FBI labs may come up with some more evidence. They are full of surprises.

Jefferson To Madison On Land - 1785

Fontainebleau, France, Oct 28, 1785: "Dear Sir: ... The property of this country is absolutely concentrated in a very few hands. ... I asked myself what could be the reason so many should be permitted to beg who are willing to work, in a country where there is a very considerable proportion of uncultivated lands?

" ... Whenever there are in any country uncultivated lands and unemployed poor, it is clear that the laws of property have been so far extended as to violate natural right. The earth is given as a common stock for man to labor and live on. If for the encouragement of industry we allow it to be appropriated, we must take care that other employment be provided to those excluded from the appropriation. If we do not, the fundamental right to labor the earth returns to the unemployed.

"It is too soon yet in our country to say that every man who cannot find employment, but who can find uncultivated land, shall be at liberty to cultivate it, paying a moderate rent. But it is not too soon to provide by every possible means that as few as possible shall be without a little portion of land. The small landholders are the most precious part of a state."⁵

ED: Breaking wage-slavery in America must be our goal. Our people are entitled to a piece of land where he can return to sink a plow and produce his groceries. Anything less is to remain a slave to the one who writes the paycheck.

⁵ GOD'S LAW: "The land shall be divided for an inheritance ... To many thou shalt give the more ... to few thou shalt give the less ... the land shall be divided by lot: according to ... their fathers they shall inherit." Num 26:53-55: "Ye shall not offer unto the Lord ... an offering thereof in your land." Lev 22:24 (GB); "Give me thy vineyard ... and I will give ... thee money. And Naboth said ... the Lord forbid ... that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee." 1 Ki 21 2-3

RKH: This ruling will seemingly be allowed to stand: Great Britain is now a dharma tolerance enforcing Christian-Hindu state and the multi-laws of its multi-nation population will be equally enforced at the discretion of the ruler.

EATING: Many orientals seal business and social arrangements over a meal. This is why strangers are eager to meet to discuss business and social matters over a meal and why the WORD forbids eating with strangers.

The WORD says, "Thou shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10. This applies both to the WORD and to food that has been blessed and is now holy. The simple act of eating is loaded with consequences.

Chapter 346

MACHIAVELLI

The attack on Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City, The Towers, Panama, Grenada, Kosovo, Iraq, the attack on true Christianity; there's a reason for these things. They are part of a plan devised by Niccolo Machiavelli 500 years ago. He told kings how to obtain a cartel throne and keep it - and applicants for the job follow it religiously - step by step - almost to the letter. As a result their actions are as predictable as the sun rising in the morning and setting in the evening and is one of the reasons the Scriptures say that the hottest places in hell are reserved for kings.

Rule Book For Princes

God the WORD appointed each man a king to rule the earth and gave him His Law by which he is to rule. This law system is called the WORD.

The International Merchant appointed its own kings to manage designated market areas. A Cartel appointed king rules using the merchant's law system that favors trade called Admiralty Law.

This causes us to have two law systems competing for supremacy in the same area at the same time.

ADMIRALTY LAW

Other law systems complicate matters further. Each race is made in the image of his god. Each god has his own law system. If there are many races there are as many law systems as there are races - plus the merchants' universal Admiralty Law.

The WORD - to the exclusion of all others - is man's God - his Law, his government. The clash between the WORD and other law systems is the cause of conflict and is the reason that Machiavelli wrote The Prince.

The Prince

In the midst of the political and religious turmoil of the 1500s, a small book called The Prince by Machiavelli appeared. It was a handbook telling princes the techniques they must use to seize and hold a throne.

From the time of its appearance until today, there has been nothing superior written. Consequently, this little book is required reading for princes, wanna-bes, and their supporters - in all countries. As a result - "things" just don't happen - they are planned that way.

Machiavelli on Education:

"The best of all preservatives (of the throne) is the education of the citizens in the spirit of the polity (state policy): 'Without this education the wisest laws are futile.'" p 16

Today's citizens have been educated to become "state citizens". They are taught to abandon Biblical Law and accept the king's "Admiralty Law". This education process is led by the Cartel's media monopoly. Aiding the media are the king's regulated public schools and universities which are financed by grants from the cartel corporations. The result has been an Orwellian "unthinking audience": a "reduced state of consciousness" or a public attitude "favorable to political conformity."

State Religion: (foreward)

"The powers of hereditary princes during the Wars of Religion after Machiavelli's time were still so strongly established that the prince's right to determine the religion his subjects were to follow was widely recognized." p.17

This has not changed. All religion is tolerated except those religions which teach things that would proscribe the power of the king.

To unanimously support the prince, all modern-day Christian sects have "voluntarily" ceased to teach Biblical prohibitions against "usury", "taxation", "monopolies", "kings", "strangers", "mixed-marriage", etc. - teachings which comprise 2/3 of the Bible. The 1/3 of the Bible that the king allows is the standard religious "self-improvement" part contained in ALL religions to varying degrees. Christianity makes no sense without the omitted 2/3 that specifies the kind of government, legal and economic system that we are to have - and our relationships with aliens.

Lying: - (foreward)

"He (Macheovelli) recommends to the prince that he use hypocrisy, whenever expedient, to gain power. ... Hypocrisy is the tribute which vice pays to virtue.' By this he means that hypocrisy works only because the majority of men are not hypocrites and are therefore not suspicious." p.22

Note that when America's princes speak - a half-truth or outright lie follows one another in rapid succession. Telling the truth only prepares the listener for the next lie. Wilson's "I promise to keep your sons out of war", followed by his election and entry into WWI a few months later is a perfect example. Witness today's search for "Weapons of Mass Destruction".

Conquest:

"When those states which have been acquired are accustomed to live at liberty under their own laws, there are three ways of holding them.

" The first is to despoil them;

" the second is to go and live there in person;

" the third is to allow them to live under their own laws, taking tribute of them, and creating within the county a government composed of a few who will keep it friendly to you." p.46

"In republics there is greater life, greater hatred, and more desire for vengeance; they do not and cannot cast aside the memory of their ancient liberty, so that the surest way is either to lay them waste or reside in them." p.47

Princes tend to follow the above rule by using all three ways of holding a captive state. The complete wasting of the American SOUTHLAND was Lincoln's planned policy. The Southland was given the entire Machiavellian treatment. The land was laid waste. Blacks were empowered to rule the White population causing a reign of terror forcing hundreds of thousands to refugee to the west. Military forts were established to suppress revolt - forts still garrisoned after more than 130 years. The puppet governments installed by the Cartel's media rule the South to this day. Occupation taxes forced farmers into cities where low-pay employment in cartel corporations guaranteed their peaceful co- operation.

The same applies to SOUTH AFRICA and GERMANY. Both of which were laid waste, occupied by foreign armies, and both to this day suffer under puppet governments installed by their conquerors.

Treachery:

"Hamilcar the Carthaginian, who was fighting with his armies in Sicily, called together one morning the people and senate of Syracuse, as if he had to deliberate on matters of importance to the republic, and at a given signal had all the senators and the richest men of the people killed by his soldiers. After their death he occupied and held rule over the city without any civil strife." p.59

The closest thing we have to this is the Communist takeover of Russia. Not only were the old rulers killed but anyone who owned property. There was no revolt because no one was left alive to lead one.

The pacification of S. Africa has been on-going for more than 100 years. This will not end until the last Afrikaaner is dead, driven out, or succeeds in driving his enemy away.

The same can be said for Germany. After its conquest in WWII, its leaders were judicially murdered and others associated with the government were either killed, imprisoned, or deprived of jobs in the new occupied state.

War: Means To an End

"A prince should therefore have no other aim or thought, nor take up any other thing for his study, but war and its organization and discipline, for that is the only art that is necessary to one who commands ..." p. 81

Princes once held the throne for forty years or more - then, a Caesar-type reputation had merit. Today, when a four-or eight-year prince invades Panama or Grenada to win laurels - it is comical. But, the cartel can trust a 4-year prince more than a 40-year prince who has learned to think that his throne is his because he sits on it.

Learn to be both good and bad:

"It is necessary for a prince, who wishes to maintain himself, to learn how not to be good, and to use this knowledge and not use it, according to the necessity of the case." p.84

This is one requirement mastered by all princes.

Appearance And Reality:

"A prince ... to see and hear him , he should seem to be all mercy, faith, integrity, humanity, and religion. And nothing is more necessary than to seem to have this last quality, ... Everybody sees what you appear to be, few feel what you are, and those few will not dare to oppose themselves to the many, who have the majesty of the state to defend them; and in the actions of men, and especially of princes, from which there is no appeal, the end justifies the means. Let a prince therefore aim at conquering and maintaining the state, and the means will always be judged honourable and praised by every one, for the vulgar is always taken by appearances and the issue of the event ... A certain prince of the present time ... never does anything but preach peace and good faith, but he is really a great enemy to both, and either of them, had he observed them, would have lost him state or reputation on many occasions." p.94

Whither Gun Control?

"Some princes, in order to hold their possessions securely, have disarmed their citizens, some others have kept their subject lands divided into parts (The many states of Germany before Bismark), others have fomented enmities against themselves (party politics, KKK and Communist-front violence) others have endeavored to win over those whom they suspected at the commencement of their rule (blacks, Hispanics): some have constructed fortresses, others have cast them down and destroyed them. ...

"A new prince ... give the privilege of arms to some ... can deal more safely with the others; ... But when you disarm them, you commence to offend them and show that you distrust them either through cowardice or lack of confidence, and both of these opinions generate hatred against you. ...are obliged to resort to a mercenary militia (a national guard or regular army)... Therefore, as I have said, a new prince in a new dominion always has his subjects armed... p. 105

"But when a prince acquires a new state as an addition to his old one, then it is necessary to disarm that state, except those who in acquiring it have sided with you; and even those one must, when time and opportunity serve, render weak and effeminate, and arrange things so that all the arms of the new state are in the hands of your soldiers who live near you in your old state." p. 106

The above reveals our present status: America has been acquired as a new state and added to the old one - which is why it is being disarmed. The inner-city denizens plus the Black, Hispanic and Jewish militias are present day cartel allies. Their existence is ignored by the media until the state needs them. Regardless, the day after the need for them passes - they will be disarmed by the same prince who dotes on them today. Ruling states do not disarm - ruled states do. Ruling states require their citizens to be armed - ruled states disarm their citizens.

"The Venetians ... fomented ... factions in the cities subject to them (Democrats vs Republicans), and although they never allowed them to come to bloodshed, they yet encouraged these differences among them, so that the citizens, being occupied in their own quarrels, might not act against them." p. 106

It is not an accident that the Blacks are constantly being incited against Whites, that Blacks and Hispanics are at each other's throats, and that Blacks and Jews squabble about everything except their need to unite against Whites.

Value Of Reputation:

"Without doubt princes become great when they overcome difficulties and opposition, and therefore fortune, especially when it wants to render a new prince great ... raises up enemies and compels him to undertake wars against them. ... p. 107

"There are many who think therefore that a wise prince ought, when he has the chance, to foment astutely some enmity, so that by suppressing it he will augment his greatness." p. 107

This is the reason for America's wars against countries whose leaders at one time were on the CIA payroll: Ho Chi Minh, Saddam Hussein, and the rest. There is hardly a country that the U.S. has aided in recent years that has not been used as a strawman enemy.

This same reason is why the Cartel media demonizes those who wish to live under God's Laws as being "terrorists". As soon as its foreign "strawmen" are vanquished to the glory of the prince, the prince will have homegrown "rebels" to vanquish - rebels that he created out of thin air - but no less useful.

Few seriously believe that a book by Dr. William Pierce was really found found in McVeigh's car - they believe it was planted there. The media tells us that the book incited McVeigh to blow up the Oklahoma City federal building. It appeared to be an effort to turn Dr. Pierce into an enemy of the state. Even fewer believe that my book War Cycles/Peace Cycles, a book on Christian economics, was found in the car of someone engaged in violence in California. It could that people are beginning to realize that instead of being an accidental discovery by media reporters it was to create an enemy for the state - an implimentation of Machiavelli's plan.

The cartoon below came from the News & Advance in 1993. Even then the Cartel was drumming up enemies for its prince to suppress.

Fortresses:

"It has been the custom of princes in order to be able to hold their state securely, to erect fortresses, as a bridle and bit to those who have designs against them... Therefore, fortresses may or may not be useful according to the times... "

The FBI set up a base in Andrews, NC - "Rudolph country" and manned it with several hundred operatives. The reason - the county is 99.9% Saxon. Such a gathering of Saxons unleavened with aliens is certain to produce a center of resistance to Admiralty Law in time. The existence of the FBI base actually did produce discontent and distrust of the government. So, after several years and after a number of government agents merged into the local population, the base has been greatly downsized - seemingly.

This is an example of a mobile modern day fortress. Its downsizing and placing covert agents in the local population is the governments' public relations answer to the problem of fortresses.

"The best fortress is to be found in the love of the people, for although you may have fortresses they will not save you if you are hated by the people." p.108

Exercise of Power

"Nothing causes a prince to be so much esteemed as great enterprises and giving proof of prowess. We have in our day Ferdinand, King of Aragon, the present King of Spain. ... He was able with the money of the Church and the people to maintain his armies, and ... undertake greater enterprises, and always under the pretext of religion, he had recourse to a pious cruelty, driving out the Moors from his kingdom and despoiling them.¹ ... He also attacked Africa under the same pretext, undertook his Italian enterprise, and has lately attacked France ... which have kept his subjects' minds uncertain and astonished, and occupied in watching their results. And these actions have arisen one out of the other, so that they have left no time for men to settle down and act against him." p 110

There is something Machiavelli was wise to leave unmentioned - the usefulness of war's destructiveness. When a prince destroys an opposing county's source of water, transportation, or food - that country must have these things or its people will die. The conquered are therefore made agreeable to let the conqueror contract with his personal friends to rebuild these things with the conquered paying the cost. After all, the purpose of episcopacies is to control those ruled - including the transfer of the fruit of their labor into the pocket of those who rule.

Following the War Between The States, the South's occupation puppet government undertook numerous railroad, water, and bridge improvements paid for with municipal and state bonds. Between a quarter and a half of the money went to the projects with the rest going into the pockets of the contractors. Virginia's occupation debt was not paid until after WWII and cost more than the War itself had cost.

Germany's "puppet government", installed after WWI, was overthrown in an National Socialist revolt. They repudiated foreign debts which necessitated WWII to again install another puppet government - this time guarded by a permanent occupation army to guarantee that Germany would not refuse to pay its foreign and reconstruction debts. War is a wonderfully profitable thing.²

Friend or Foe

"A prince is further esteemed when he is a true friend or a true enemy.... This policy is always more useful than remaining neutral. ... And it will always happen that the one who is not your friend will want you to remain neutral ..." p 111

"Moreover, victories are never so prosperous that the victor does not need to have some scruples, especially as to justice." p. 112

This last has been violated time and again by cartel conquerors. The result is an accumulating reservoir of resentment. In the South, S. Africa, and Germany alone - people remember. Add to this the resentment being created in violated alien lands today. The cartel is truly justified in their siege mentality.

Men About The Prince

"The first impression that one gets of a ruler and of his brains is from seeing the men that he has about him."
p. 114

² See who the reconstruction contractors are in Kosovo and Iraq - it tells the whole story..

From Lincoln, Wilson, and Roosevelt - to Johnson, Clinton, Bush I and Bush II - we see the mentality of Esau.³ There is no honor, mercy, or truth. All is deception, lies and mendaciousness.

Machiavelli's The Prince is truly the rule book of princes, and as slavish devotees - princes become predictable, and once predictable - vulnerable.

Letter from S. Africa by K.H.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Winter came in days and we are in winter clothes.

There is a group here called "Israel Vision". It is similar to your American "Identity". The reason I mention this is because they are beaten up regularly in the media - the same as "Identity" is beaten up in your country - because they prefer God's Laws to Government's edicts. It seems as if anyone who truly loyal to God is fair game.

In Natal, there is a bitter fight between Inkatha (the Zulu Party) and the ANC who wants to take over the province. The English in Natal seem to get on much better with Inkatha and most of them are fluent in Zulu.

Recently, on a Lufthansa flight from Cape Town, the minister of health Blonto Msimong (female), behaved badly. A German, Mr. Jentz von Wichtingen, refused to sit next to her because of her refusal to help AIDS sufferers and asked the cabin crew if he could sit elsewhere; Msimong overheard them and jumped up to confront the man. Swearing in the worst way, pushing her finger in his face.

The Cabinet was informed of her conduct but did nothing about it. They said that black ministers should be treated with respect.

The black government has created large scale unemployment through their endless new labor laws that make production impossible. Many firms have had enough and are pulling out, adding to the huge unemployment problem.

Those who are unemployed often turn to crime to survive. The crime is directed against whites. The houses to be robbed now have small color signs placed in front to guide the robbers. White signs mean "easy target"; red - it must be an armed robbery since the inhabitants are armed; blue - stands for "help inside". The signs are disguised as sticks and so-forth, but are quickly discovered by interested parties. If you shoot a robber in self defense you will find yourself locked up for assault or murder. It does not matter that the robbers were armed and your life was threatened.

The Black South African regime is keeping Zimbabwe's Mugabe in office by sending him corn, foot and mouth medicine for cattle, and free electricity. Still thousands of Zimbabwe and Mozambique blacks come over the border into S. Africa.

Enclosed are receipts for the money sent for the orphans. Thank your readers again for all they are doing.

Yours faithfully, K.J.

RKH: PHONE CALL: This weekend I received a phone call from Mr. Willie Hoffman in S. Africa, director of the orphan's home. He asked me to please thank you all for what you are doing for the children. I told him that my subscribers are America's elite. He agreed.

Another Report From S. Africa

Richard: My son and I just returned from two weeks in South Africa. It is one of the most spectacularly beautiful countries in the world.

In 1994 a one-man one-vote "black" government was put in power. Satan could have run it and I don't believe that there would have been much difference.

The Boer-farmers of South Africa are being murdered at the rate of 313 per 100,000. Interpol warns that they are the highest-at-risk-group in the entire world! With more than half of South Africa's commercial farmers gone since 1994 - starvation will be the order of the day soon; first in Zimbabwe and then in South Africa.

This beautiful country is filled with gates, barbed and concertina wire. Theft is the thought of the day, every day. The newspapers are filled with advertisements for emigration to New Zealand, Australia, Canada and the UK.

Eugene Terre'Blanche of the AWB militia has been jailed and the AWB has been largely broken up. Its website is <http://www.awb.co.za/>. About 20 people are scheduled to go on trial this week for high treason for allegedly conspiring to blow up dams, etc.

I remember when the S.A. Rand was worth about $1.25. Currently it is worth about $0.13 making S. Africa a cheap place to visit - or buy. Many are leaving and there are few white persons to be seen on the streets between the ages of 25 to 45.

AIDS is making it difficult to hire workers for the mines. One woman told me that her maid attends two funerals a month. One sees teen-age church groups from the US going to SA to counsel blacks about using condoms to prevent the further spread of AIDS. Current projections state that by 2010 SA will be a white majority nation thanks to AIDS.

Zimbabwe has 270% inflation a year. They have a law preventing white farmers from farming. Don't ask me why.

We visited the "women's museum" in Blomfontein that commemorates the tens of thousands of women and children who died in the Anglo-Boer war of 1899-1902. Lord Kitchner, the British commander, burned the Boer's farms and put the women and children in concentration camps where they died like flies. They also sent POWs far away to Bermuda, St. Helena Island and Ceylon. This was brutal. Afrikaaners remember.

LETTERS

H.P. - Pennsylvania

RKH: I read a newspaper article that said that only 10% of Northerners have an ancestor who fought in that war, while the vast majority of native born Southern whites have many ancestors who fought. Today, the South is under siege by anti-Christ forces, but the North has been vanquished.

We are told that no one wins a fratricidal war, but if there was a winner, it was not the North.

MULTI-NATIONALISM: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: In 1900 there were 2 million blacks in S. Africa. By 2000 there were 32 million. Most were imported by multi-national corporations as laborers. The multi-national merchant wants maximum profit at minimum costs. Low cost blacks produced maximum profit. If we nationalists are to have a land of our own - multi-nationalists - corporate and individual - must be permanently excluded." A.V. - S. Africa

Dr. Diesel

Dr. Rudolph Diesel's contribution to the independence of the "self-sufficient-farm" was an engine designed to run on vegetable oil. This is not surprising considering that this brilliant inventor spent his childhood in the agricultural provinces of France and Germany and knew farmers and their needs.

In 1913, Dr. Rudolph Diesel disappeared on a trip across the English Channel. His body was found floating a few days later. Newspapers suggested that he was assassinated by foreign agents. After his death his idea of fueling diesels with vegetable oil was quietly un-mentioned by the Cartel media.

BAGHDAD: The city which had never seen heroin until March 2003, is now flooded with narcotics including heroin. Where the Americans go the narcotics flourish. Taliban had successfully eliminated the drugs from Afghanistan but since the US forces took over the control, Afghanistan has become the largest producer of heroin. Some reports suggest that the drug and arms trafficking is patronized by the CIA to finance its covert operations worldwide. (Taking Aim, p. 12, Vol 8, #4., from The Independent.)

BRITONS BANNED: A white woman told National Action of difficulty getting her brother into Australia since the Australian Immigration Department is now staffed almost entirely by Asians. American companies are using Indian labor that is often working around the clock - to do research and development, prepare tax returns, evaluate health insurance claims, transcribe doctor's medical notes, analyze financial data, sue for overdue bills, read CAT scans, create presentations for Manhattan investment banks and much more.

It is expected that by 2015, 3.3 million American jobs may be sent to India with its large pool of English-speakers and more than two million college graduates coming on stream every year.

Chapter 347

THE BUSINESS Of WAR

War provides a rush of money that is borrowed into existence to fight the war. In the peace that follows, the usury system eats up the war-generated money. This necessitates another war in 20 years, or small wars every 5 years, to generate more money.

War is a business; casualties are collateral damage; the peace between the wars is an illusion - a victor's peace. The war continues on and on for the vanquished. Because "usury", the cause of modern war, is never mentioned from the pulpit - the misery continues.

War is a business - the biggest!

WAR: The Looting Expedition

Modern war consists of five steps:

1. Demonizing & Provocation
2. Destruction
3. Puppet Government
4. Reconstruction
5. Suppressing Revolt

1. Demonizing & Provocation

The "law of nations" says that a state which is attacked may defend itself.

Aggressor states must observe this law, otherwise neighboring states may think that the aggressor will turn on them. This might cause the aggressor's neighbors to combine into a defensive alliance that may be dangerous to the aggressor.

This "law of nations" forces aggressors to provoke their victims to attack them. The aggressor can then claim that he is defending himself against the victims' violence.

Making the victims' planned attack on the aggressor believable, the aggressor starts up the time honored practice of demonization. Nothing good can be expected of someone who is "bad".

The laboratory case we are all familiar with is our own War Between the States - variations of which are used worldwide today.

Fort Sumpter

Hands down - the South was the richest part of the country. In 1860, most of the federal revenue came from tariffs. Almost three quarters of the tariffs were paid by the South. One can either take the eggs or kill the chicken and have a chicken dinner. The latter course was decided upon. In preparation for the feast the urban cartel media worked "John Brown" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to demonize the South.

Lincoln, cartel spokesman, started by demanding that the tariffs be increased. Some Southern states felt abused and withdrew from the union.

The South assumed that Lincoln would honor the contract of states and turn over the federal garrisoned Fort Sumpter to the sovereign state of S. Carolina. Fort Sumpter was situated in the middle of Charleston Harbor. South Carolina believed that as long as Fort Sumpter was garrisoned, it was a foreign beachhead in the heart of the state.

Emissaries were sent to DC to discuss the details of turning over the fort. The newspapers reported that the discussions were congenial and progressing nicely. It was assumed that it was only a question of time before the fort would be relinquished.

Unknown to the Carolinians, while negotiations were in progress, Lincoln had secretly launched an invasion fleet to S. Carolina loaded with storm troops. This fleet, when combined with Fort Sumpter's garrison, could quickly bring about South Carolina's overthrow.

The fleet arrived off Charleston harbor, but a sudden storm prevented it from entering the harbor. Outraged at this perfidy, the S. Carolinians opened fire on Fort Sumpter before the storm abated and the fleet's guns could combine with those of the fort.

The Northern cartel newspapers ignored the deceit and reported that an "unprovoked attack" had taken place on Fort Sumpter - "Rebels had fired on the United States flag."

The South had been demonized and Ft. Sumpter was the provocation. Now - to the next step.

2. Destruction

With overwhelming military superiority the North destroyed the South. It was a methodical, complete, systematic destruction. Mills, dams, canals, railroads, homes, towns, and cities. Scores of towns and cities vanished - never to be rebuilt - among them "Kellyville" at Kelly's Ford, the home of my ancestor, John P. Kelly.

After 4 years, the South was forced to surrender. It was a total unconditional surrender - 20,000 starving, surrounded men at Appomattox surrendered to 200,000. The survivors went home to - nothing.

3. Puppet Government

All those who fought against the invaders were disfranchised. Women couldn't vote. Blacks were made citizens, given the vote, and placed in government to rule the South - creating a reign of terror. Federal troops were stationed to see that Black rule wasn't removed.

4. Reconstruction

Northern ITC corporate managers posted their representatives in every Southern state and city government to instruct the Blacks how to vote and what to vote for.

After voting themselves royal salaries, the Blacks began the glorious fun of "reconstruction". In a land that had known nominal or no taxes - taxes were passed. Businesses and land were taxed. Since there was no way to pay the taxes, the land, houses and businesses came on the market for almost nothing and were snapped up at tax sales by "carpetbaggers" - the cartel's corporation agents. Great land companies came into existence owning millions upon millions of prime acreage.

Three hundred year old forests on the Blue Ridge right above Lynchburg were bought for almost nothing and stripped. Gigantic logs were loaded on trains and shipped away.

Dams, mills, churches, railroads, and canals were rebuilt. Freed slaves were promised 40 acres and a mule. No money was available to pay for these things so the Blacks issued state and city bonds. For each million earmarked for a railroad - $100,000 went to the railroad and $900,000 went into the pockets of the contractors - all cartel operatives. In other words, the contractors who financed the election of the Lincoln government got their money back plus interest - many times over.

The "reconstruction" cost much more than the war itself had cost and Virginia's debt was finally paid off in 1947 - more than 80 years after the war. A railroad man was telling me the other day that it still costs more to ship from Richmond to NY than from NY to Richmond.

5. Suppressing Revolt

To keep the natives from becoming restless and demanding the return of their property, military garrisons were posted in the Southland. They are still here after more than 130 years.

The freedom to select one's own political representation was abolished by use of the media monopoly which gives publicity only to cartel agents - the publicity essential for election.

A defeated, occupied land is a province belonging to the conqueror. As long as it remains that way its inhabitants exist only to provide for the needs of the conqueror.

Chart

The chart on the next page shows the horrible 1850s depression in the North culminated in the bankruptcy of the Life Insurance Company of Pennsylvania. The self-sufficient-farm-system of the South was hardly aware of the event.

STOCKS

Stock Market 1861-1865 & 1860-1910

The start of the War in 1861 brought in "happy days". The stock market doubled as money was borrowed into existence to fight the war - and as loot from the South was monetized.

First thing, the invading armies emptied the tobacco warehouses. A 750 lb. hogshead of tobacco was worth a fortune. Drivers in blue would line wagons before a house and empty it of silver, furniture, wall hangings and floor coverings. Lines of these wagon trains clogged the roads to Washington where three auction warehouses remained open day and night auctioning the wagonloads sight unseen because of the glut of contraband - with wagonloads backed up for half a mile - and more wagons arriving by the hour.

Ships tied up to private wharfs on the Virginia rivers. Raiding parties were sent far inland to return loaded with loot. The ships remained tied up until fully loaded at which time they cast off and sailed for Washington.

Washington DC became a boom town spending lavishly the wealth Virginia had taken 250 years to accumulate. The government frolicked during a four year long party using Randolph silver from Turkey Island, furniture from Stratford, the Lee home, and portraits of ancestors from Kelly's Ford calling them their own. Government clerks rode blooded horses bought for a few dollars on their lunch hour.

War, wonderful war!

The stock market rise from 1860 to 1900 was marked by drastic corrections when usury siphoned off the floating supply of money dried up - only to be replenished when money spilled-over from European wars and our own manufactured "Spanish-American War" and Britain's own S. African "Boer War" - but the continued extortion of wealth from the South was the thing that kept the U.S. stock markets in its remarkable ascendancy.

SIDE EFFECTS

The side effect for the victim was long term Southern impoverishment. Plantation land at Kelly's Ford worth $800 an acre in 1858 was traded for 50¢ an acre in 1903. Compare that with the stock chart to the right. Self-sufficient farmers unable to pay the taxes and forced to sell their land and move to town worked in cotton mills for 10¢ a day. In 1914 things had improved - they were getting 30¢ at the slate quarries down in Buckingham County. I went to grade-school in the 1930s with barefooted children who had walked through the snow to get to school. Others had cardboard in their shoes.

But hey! The bright side was that the independent self-sufficient farmer, now reduced to being a cheap factory laborer in a cotton mill and living in a company house - made possible the bounty enjoyed by the rest of the nation.

Rewriting Contracts

The Law states that we are not to have kings to rule over us. To circumvent that Law most Western nations have "elective representation". The fact is that the elections are manipulated so that the voters have no idea for whom they are voting. They vote for a caricature of a perfect man to represent them - a picture drawn by a third party. The third party that draws the picture is Esau's media - and the "perfect man" is in fact Esau's agent - a scoundrel.¹

America has not had an honest election since the earliest days of the "Republic". The "president-king-prince" that has been elected has issued executive orders and made private trade and business agreements the contents of which are completely unknown to the people of the nation. The longer the prince holds his office - the more contracts he is responsible for making.

War is business. A conqueror is confronted with trade contracts benefiting others instead of himself. War itself nullifies many trade agreements and further nullification take place by the use of martial law. Also, the puppet government appointed by the conqueror rubber-stamps new trade agreements replacing old ones. The final touch to finish the transfer of trade profits is to kill the leader of the vanquished country. This erases all loose ends and no one is left to contest the new system.

SOUTH: President Jefferson Davis was arrested and imprisoned in a damp cell at Fortress Monroe in Virginia. He could not be brought to trial because his knowledge of trade agreements and Constitutional Law would be an embarrassment if made public. Almost dead from maltreatment by his Negro guards and from exposure, he was allowed to go home to die, thereby sparing the government the onus of another atrocity - a "peacetime" atrocity. Davis surprised everyone by surviving and he wrote scathing denunciations of the treatment of the South - all studiously ignored by the victor's historians.

SOUTH AFRICA: Britain conquered little S. Africa. President Kruger fled abroad and died there. Had the British been able to capture him he most probably would have been executed. The British did not want to explain their appropriations of S. Africa's raw materials - including her gold mines. Then too, Kruger had a close advisor who was a cartel member. At the same time he was advising Kruger he was also advising the invading British.

GERMANY: Kaiser Wilhelm had many cartel advisors. When Germany collapsed he abdicated and removed to Holland. At that time there were no extradition treaties.

RUSSIA: Tzar Nicholas and his family were executed - canceling contracts dating back centuries. This is the preferred method. A puppet government composed mostly of cartel civil service employees was installed which ruled until the country's wealth was drained. The pretense was then made that the cartel had left the country. However, Russia's continued attempt to suppress Chechnya separatists exposed this to be a deception. Bankrupt Russia remains part of the cartel empire.

GERMANY: Hitler died by his own hand rather than be put in a cage and shown around before being hanged. A puppet government directed by a cartel civil service was installed. All Germany's trade contracts worldwide were voided. Rudolf Hess, Hitler's second in command, was incarcerated almost entirely incommunicado for half a century. Released because of a dispute between the victors, he was garroted by his British captors before divulging what he knew.

ITALY: Mussolini was shot.

VIETNAM: President Diem was disposed of by Filipino assassins in American employ while the war was in progress. This canceled all trade agreements made by him.

PANAMA: Panama was given the Panama Canal by the U.S. allowing them to finance certain private trade agreements. President Noriega of Panama voiced concerns; the U.S. invaded Panama, installed a puppet government, imprisoned Noriega for "drug smuggling", and we hear no more "concerns" about trade from Panama.

YUGOSLAVIA: The Serb province of Kosovo was 3/4s taken over by Muslims. The U.S. took exception to Serb defense and destroyed Yugoslavia's mills, power plants, railroads, bridges, and communications. The U.S. then installed a puppet government who issued contracts to rebuild the destruction. The president was arrested and is being tried for crimes against humanity.

Iraq's Turn

While all countries victimized by the cartel go through the same process - Iraq is the latest.

1. Demonizing & Provocation:

Iraq - the third largest oil producing country in the world is a natural money-tree. A plum waiting to be picked.

Little Kuwait next door was persuaded to slant drill Iraq's oil fields. Iraq asked the US if it had any interest in the matter. The US assured them it didn't. Based on this assurance, Iraq invaded Kuwait. The US used this "act of aggression" as the excuse to go to war after first demonizing Iraq's religion, leadership, mass murder, etc., the usual.

2. Destruction:

In the first Iraqi war the US destroyed the Iraqi army's expensive tanks. It destroyed bridges, power plants, airfields, radio stations, and everything of value - everything except the oil wells that would be needed to pay to replenish all these things some day in the future.

The US then declared a 12 year embargo of the country. No spare parts, no medicines, precious little food. The result was that 500,000 children died from starvation and disease, and the remainder of the economy was worn down to the point that now everything needs replacing.

Using the "WMD" excuse, the U.S. again made war on Iraq - occupied the country - and is now ready to move to step #3.

3. Puppet Government:

The US needs an Iraqi puppet government to give a pseudo legitimacy to issuing orders to rebuild the country.

A list of American companies as long as your arm is waiting right now, waiting for the contracts to be handed out so they can start to work.

The puppet government chosen by the U.S. consists of 9 men who will alternate serving one-month stints as Iraq's figurehead president. This "council" of U.S. appointed puppets are supposed to rubber-stamp the U.S. directed spending of Iraqi money.

This group has already met with World Bank President James Wolfensohn to set up a massive loan to Iraq to pay the American companies who are waiting to repair Iraq. The loan is to be repaid with proceeds from the sale of Iraq's oil.

4. Reconstruction:

Unfortunately, America's leaders, themselves cartel puppets, have led us into a war against the heartland of the lands of the Sons-of-Esau. From ancient days - Esau has always fought Esau - and Esau knows how to fight Esau - including our own our puppet government which is also run by Esau.

It is these Iraqi Sons-of-Esau who have mounted a low grade guerrilla warfare in which one or two American occupation troops are killed each day. This only amounts to 600-700 soldiers a year, a negligible number as wars go, but enough to prevent U.S. appointed Iraqi collaborators from feeling comfortable under U.S. protection. If well-armed American soldiers can be whacked seemingly at will, what chance does a traitor have in his own country surrounded by kinsmen thirsting for his blood?

Thus far one of those selected by the U.S. has resigned and the others seem to speak out of both sides of their mouths. In other words, the usual puppet government has been slow to materialize, and the contract awards have been slow to come. In the meantime, the American companies who financed the Bush political campaigns are still waiting.

This Iraqi thing could be a bit more sticky than initially believed.

5. Suppressing Revolt

How large a garrison will be required to occupy a country waging a low grade guerrilla war? It's too early to tell. Everything must be guarded. More guards are needed to guard scattered things of value than soldiers needed for the initial conquest.

The usual way to handle guerrillas is to shoot hostages. But, the U.S. already has WMD egg on it face and is charged by world public opinion of killing more than 5,000 Iraqi and Afghanistan civilians for no reason.

At this time it seems imprudent to round up 500 hostages and shoot them in retaliation for the death of each American soldier. Perhaps 50 or 10? But, would that suffice to make the Sons-of-Esau stop being the Sons-Of-Esau? I wouldn't count on it.

The U.S. occupation government may have to step in and hand out Iraqi reconstruction contracts directly instead of using a puppet government. That really wouldn't look good.

It could be that the U.S. has stepped into the same mid-east shoes recently vacated by the USSR.

If this is true, and the present writer believes that it is true - we see what happened to the Soviet Union as something that can happen to America. If that happens there is a very real possibility that America, already wracked by serious religious and political dissensions, could dissolve into distinctive parts.

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

Our job will be to see that when our nation is rebuilt that it will not repeat the same mistakes.

Letter from S. Africa by K.J.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins:

We heard on the 6 o'clock news that a petrol tanker overturned and burnt out on the road we have to take and the road was closed. The latest news item was that the petrol tanker had been hijacked and was on the way to Zimbabwe where hardly any petrol is to be had and the price is high.

I found your HR on National Socialism most interesting. It makes one feel so much closer to one's kinsmen who suffer under aliens. My grandmother was German and a wonderful woman.

The weather here turned overnight from a very hot summer into an icy cold winter.

The black ANC has plunged the country into mess. Their only defense is to blame whites. They blame whites for wanting to remain white and use smear words such as "racist" and "hater". They push through radical laws overnight without parliamentary approval. One of these laws allows them to confiscate white property in towns and country without compensation. Their continued failures causes the coming year not to look good for Mbeki and his government.

We have discovered that the Africaner right wingers accused of high treason are not guilty at all. The whole thing was a government National Security frame-up. Our police are the most corrupt in the world.

We met 5 of the high school children at the children's home and one cannot wish for more pleasant children with better manners. They are busy with exams. Willie will take more photos of the home.

Enclosed are receipts for the money from your subscribers for the children. Rina, who manages the home, was most grateful. She was also excited about response from others after Willie's letter to you was published in HR. An American lady speaking Afrikaans from Missouri phoned to say that she and 16 Afrikaners who live near her would like to help. A young man wrote from a state prison. He wants to place an article on the home in newspapers. Willie will be writing to him.

Willie and Rina came over when the money from your subscribers arrived. After Willie spoke to you on the telephone he said he wished he could come to America to thank the people who are helping, but honestly the middle class here cannot afford such things. Anyway, words cannot tell you how thankful they are.

It was suggested that the children make a plaque to honor your subscribers, but thought it best to get your input first.

Our best wishes to you and your subscribers, K.J.

RKH: I talked with several HR readers. We appreciate the thought of a commemorative plaque, but believe that obedience to the WORD is sufficient.

Our hope is that in spite of hard times here in America, those who can and have not yet helped their S. African kinsmen will do so - directly or through HR. A little goes a long way when one has nothing.²

Ernst Zundel

ZUNDEL: Ernst Zundel is still being held in the Toronto West Detention Center in Toronto, ON Canada. His crime - doubting the holocaust. There is no question that the Cartel would like to keep him incarcerated for the rest of his life.

The outstanding lawyer Doug Christie is again defending him, and hopes to take the matter as high as the Canadian Supreme Court. These type legal battles cost an inordinate amount of money. Send your contributions to;

UNFILTERED NEWS

Back To Africa

Ambassador Andrew Young, chairman of "The Summit" issued a call to African Americans to "go back to Africa" as they celebrate the 6th biannual event. This year, The Summit took place in Abuja, Nigeria. It is the largest gathering of African-Americans and Africans who are focused on sustainable development of business, trade, investment, education and efforts to fight HIV/AIDS. (Piedmont Area Journal, July 31, 2003)

RKH: Separatist Blacks, at some stage are going to have to expect the establishment to turn on them just as it turned on Marcus Garvey and as it turned on White separatists. White separatists have more in common with Black separatists than with their own kind who are traitors to both their God and their nation.

WACHOVIA DONATES $1 MILLION: Wachovia bank corp donated $1 million to the NAACP to support civil right initiatives in education. (Piedmont Area Journal, July 31, 2003)

RKH: Organizations like the NAACP, financed by cartel corporations, act as cartel fronts. There is no way separatists can match this flow of money and what this money buys. On the other hand, there is no way they can match the Law of God whose servants we are.

Justice In S. Africa

"Thus far", writes Koos Venter in Die Afrikaner May 16, 2003, "not a single newspaper or other medium has published any concrete evidence that can link the 'right-wing extremists' to any crime. All that they have to go on are police allegations. Neither has any allegation or charge been tested in court. ...

"The most interesting part of the article lies in revelations regarding the involvement of the Institute for Security Studies (ISS) and certain Security policemen and 'state witnesses'. For instance, the media has throughout used the 'expert opinion' of the ISS... the ISS receives donations from the British and American governments, the Ford Foundation and the Rockerfeller Brothers Fund. With leftist funders like this, 'objectivity' from the ISS can hardly be expected. ...

"Venter quotes from two books concerning agents provocateurs. The first is Lamprecht's "Government by Deception:

"'The provocateur is someone who goes to the enemy side pretending to be one of them. His aim is to encourage them to stir up trouble. The point of the exercise is to set the enemy for a fall. ...The provocateurs can encourage the right winger to do things which are skillfully planned to go wrong so that it backfires on the right-wingers.'"

"Riaan Labuschagne writes in his just published "On South Africa's Secret Service - An Undercover Agent's Story" about the pre-1994 election bombs planted by the AWB:

"The right-wing organizations responsible had been deeply penetrated by the Security Police and probably National Intelligence as well. Their top leadership was riddled with paid informers - and inform they did. They planned bombing missions and ordered their subordinates to carry them out, then passed details of the operation to their handlers. Afterwards, they collected rewards of up to R250,000 per bomber they had fingered for arrest. Many of those right wing bombers are still languishing in gaol and are likely to remain there for some time to come. ...(RKH: This is when the Rand was R1.25 to the dollar. Traitors got a quarter of a million dollars for each betrayal)

"At least two state witnesses are regarded by other arrestees as being planted agents. If evidence proves this, then according to SA criminal law it is still a criminal offense to instigate others to commit a crime." Impact (S. Afr.), p 3, June/July 2003

Patriots Of N. Carolina

In the mid 1980s there was a political militia group called "The Patriots Of North Carolina" led by an ex-green beret named Glen Miller. The group met on a regular basis and membership grew by leaps and bounds. Perhaps 500 or more would parade through rural towns of NC each carrying a large Confederate battle flag. They created quite a presence. The group also issued an impressive newspaper which seemed to be read everywhere.

With increased membership the Patriots began to be looked on as a viable political group. It was then the leadership was accused of buying stolen guns. It appeared to be just the usual government "sting" operation - there was no way to know that the guns were stolen. If memory serves, it was also said that the leadership was involved in robberies to raise money for "the movement", and that they neglected to appear at a hearing. This seemed strange, because there was no need for any of it.

Warrants were issued for their arrest. Glen Miller issued a bulletin to members to attack "the enemy" and fled. No one heeded this nonsense. Other members who had been accused fled at the same time, but all were quickly picked up. It seemed the government knew exactly where their hideouts were.

Glen Miller then shocked everyone by being the star witness. He was a cartel asset. His testimony caused Patriot Party members to be locked up for various periods. The government gave Miller a new identity and a new life far away from N. Carolina. He's still out there and surfaces briefly from time to time to make an announcement or two before sliding back again into the federal underworld.

Glen Miller was an American counterpart of what is going on in S. Africa today. He took the disgruntled political spirit of North Carolina, organized it into a coherent political force with potential to break into the mainstream. This done, he destroyed his creation - and wiped out political dissent in N. Carolina for a generation. That's what government agents provocateur do. That's what the government pays them to do. The government believes that it is money well spent.

There is much to learn here. I noted this: Glen Miller drank. That told me all I really needed to know. Followers of the WORD don't drink. They don't drink because they have been appointed kings: "Jesus Christ ... hath made us kings and priests." Rev 1:5-6; Drinking advertises a person's rejection of the appointment. King's can't drink because; "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgment." Pr 31:4-5.

Glen Miller had a chaplain, a good man who talked to the assembled membership. The membership assumed that since Miller had a good man for chaplain that he held the same values as did his chaplain. Instead, Miller already had a god - the God of the Empire who had hired him to betray his fellows - a modern Judas. "No man can serve two masters." Matt 6:24.

Talk is cheap. "By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20. Watch your leaders. Watch what they do. All leaders follow leaders. Make sure you have correctly identified the leader of your leader - or you will find yourself in the nest of the Eagle God like the Boermag in S. Africa and the Patriots of N.C. have found themselves - ready to be eaten alive.

Chapter 348

CHRISTENDOM CONVERTS TO HINDUISM

*"Our Father which art in heaven
Hallowed be Thy name
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
On Earth ..."*

For two thousand years, man has prayed for God's kingdom to come and rule the earth - and that kingdom remains as far away as ever.

Why?

Because, if man, who is made in the image of the WORD were permitted to obey the WORD, Esau's world - the corporate world of the great merchant - would collapse in ruins. The great profits Esau receives because of his usury and trade would vanish and we would have that Kingdom we pray for.

Note 6 in the Reformer's Geneva Bible referring to James 2:11 states: "The Lawmaker is always one and the self same, and the body of the Law cannot be divided."

This means that God and his WORD are one.

The WORD of God

God the WORD can be likened to a splendid pocket watch. Every part fits with every other part. It is precise. It has a stem to calibrate, a mainspring to provide power, gears that transmit power. Each gear fits exactly with the next gear.

There are big gears and little gears. All gears are synchronized and work together resulting in the time recorded being the correct time.

God made the world like this timepiece - the gears represent the Laws by which the world is to be run. There are the lesser Laws - like the law of gravity and the law of motion. They allow wonderful machines like aeroplanes to be built. Then there are the still greater Laws that determine whether the aeroplanes will carry passengers or bombs. This choice determines who will be blessed or cursed.

Regardless, the Watchmaker created the gears to work together and produce the marvel of the Law.

When Esau and his agents find the Law an obstacle - and throw dirt into the works, or damages a gear, or remove a gear and substitute a foreign one, or displace a bearing - the timepiece will malfunction. It will not perform as it was designed to perform.

Today

Today the timepiece is malfunctioning. The operating manual that came with the watch is not only ignored, but banned. The priests who claim to be the "experts" spend their time talking about alien time-pieces. Some of these priests boast that they are flaming fagots. The top leader of one group warns against sodomy - while protecting his own sodomite and pedofile priests.

Most of the other priests who parade themselves as representing "True Christian Values" have yet to stand up and damn the heretics or call down damnation on their heads and pray that "God's will be done on earth!"

The rare exception to the general stench is so remarkable as to cause public comment.

The Hindu

The International merchant operates world-wide. He says that his gods are the same as his customer's gods - just a different manifestation.

If the customer's god is hostile to the international merchant - dharmamatra missionaries are dispatched bearing the merchant's money and media to change the minds of the hostile priests of the local god and line their pockets.

Esau's corporations and their agents richly endow colleges and seminaries in coveted markets. In exchange, the colleges and seminaries put Esau's corporate agents on their boards. The result is that these institutions of learning are converted into Hindu brainwashing factories. Their graduates accept and add *dharma*¹ to their beliefs and as a result receive special preference when they go to work in the corporate business world of Esau.

Tables

Note the two tables to the right. The first contains the general beliefs of followers of Hindu gods.

The second contains the requirements of the WORD - which are the opposite of the Hindu beliefs in the first column.

Esau's agents have been working for a long time replacing the smoothly working gears of the Master with their own. All it takes is one bad gear and the entire list will be affected to some degree, and Jacob will continue being a slave to Esau for another thousand years.

Like the watch - the violation of a single Law in God's Kingdom affects the operation of the whole. All Laws must operate to achieve maximum efficiency.

Basic Religion

Most religions require that their followers NOT lie, cheat, steal, or murder and to be nice - at least while dealing with their own kind.

Even the mafia finds it necessary to enforce these rules to ensure smooth internal operations. These rules are basic to any society and are common to ALL religions.

The "leaders" of heathen religions can and do violate these basic rules at will - but that perk is just for leaders - leaders will not tolerate their followers doing the same. A mafia Don, a religious leader, or politician can lie, cheat, and steal as much as he likes - but the underling who lies, cheats, and steals from the "family" is fish-bait.

The Christian religion requires more than the requirement NOT to lie, cheat, steal, or murder and to be nice. It requires that the rest of the rules of the WORD be obeyed - and that is what makes the WORD different from the laws of other gods.

Man was ejected from the Garden of Eden - it took just one little apple to do it - but the apple was the gear that jammed up the rest of the watch.

It only takes one.

The Hindu

On page 167 were two tables - one listed Hindu beliefs and the other listed Christian beliefs.

Over the years the "Dharmamatras" - the Hindu merchant's missionaries - using their usury and media monopoly - have caused the labels to be reversed. Look at the table on the next page. The list that once was "Hindu" now proclaims itself to be "Christian". What was formerly "Christian" no longer exists - it has been banished.

"Christian" preachers stand in pulpits nationwide teaching Hindu beliefs while calling them Christian.

The Remnant

Where does this leave us?

It leaves us exactly where we are supposed to be. It is the day when Gideon's followers await their leader.

Some of Gideon's followers lay down beside the stream and drank their fill of everything that flowed past. Others watched the water and after the dirty patches of water flowed past - and pure water appeared - they reached down and scooped up a handful of clean water to drink.²

Jesus Christ - the WORD made flesh - chose you and appointed you "Kings and priests". You didn't choose him - he chose you. And, except for a miniscule group of called-out teachers and priests - there is no one else.

Why you?

Because you know dirty water when you see it! When you see someone who calls himself "Christian" teaching the way of the anti-christ - you'll know!

If it looks like a duck

If it walks like a duck

If it quacks like a duck

Chances are - it's a duck!

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

We went to see the Lorrie Youth Centre and in spite of being very busy, Betzy made time to chat with us. There were a few tonsil cases and one girl broke a leg. The provincial hospital was a nightmare so Betzy remained with them and took the children home as soon as possible. She was going to write to you, but we told her that until things are more settled we will thank your subscribers for her and for all they are doing. It means so much for these children to be in a home full of love and care.

We went to the HNP office and they are satisfied with the petitions coming in. They seem certain that deKlerk will be required to appear in court and many want to attend the hearing. The feeling against deKlerk is running high.

I feel that in spite of high hopes it will not be easy to get deKlerk into court. He is as slippery as an eel. We would love to see him explain the thousands of deaths of Whites he caused by giving power to black communists. Petitions are everywhere protesting deKlerk's treason.

Transvaal Agriculture Union SA declared that they will resist any farm confiscation and regard it as a declaration of war. Turbulent times are ahead of us but better that than sitting back and doing nothing.

I fully agree with the letter in the HR viewing our country. It used to be beautiful but with black Africa moving in - everything is disappearing. No trees, no grass, no animals, and no birds - all the things we love.

A year ago black farmers were given some of the most fertile farms in Letsitele outside Tzaneen where tropical fruit grew for export. Now, there is nothing left. Nothing.

A close friend's uncle 59 and aunt 57 were murdered by blacks. He had just retired from the police. One does not want to complain all the time, but life has become difficult with 2% paying the way for the rest.

A white liberal who manned a table in a shopping center approached us for money for disadvantaged black children. A heated argument followed. She was asking for donations for black children who already get government allowances - allowances which are disallowed to white children.

Liberals are programmed and conditioned so that the media can tell them anything and they will believe it. They never think for themselves or believe that they are working against their own people.

Old Mandela, the black saint, had his birthday and what a fuss the media made over him. They call him the greatest statesman ever. He hardly does anything but pose for photographs.

The Mine Workers Union are holding talks with the SA Communist Party. No wonder they left the Loerie Youth Centre in the lurch. Think of the disaster if your subscribers had not appeared to help when they did.

With our best wishes, K.J.

HNP Blames U.S.

"Mr. Louis van der Schyff, chief secretary of the HNP (The White S.A. political party) made a media statement to refresh people's memory:

"Henry Kissinger said after he returned from one of his visits to SA to force John Vorster to betray S. African whites, 'I want a Black government in SA'. Margaret Thatcher said while the British applied full pressure on the SA, 'I demand the release of Mandela!'

"Was it not the meddling from outside which overthrew the White regimes of Mozambique, Rhodesia, South West Africa and South Africa? Through American and British pressure Mr. John Vorster betrayed the Whites in Mozambique between April 1974 and Aug. 1976 to communist takeover. By enforcing sanctions against Mr. Ian Smith, Rhodesia was made to accept black government.

"Through the shameful resolution 435 of the UN Security Council, S.W. Africa was forced to surrender to Swapo and a black communist government. The forbidden SA Communist Party did not have their office in Moscow, but in London.

"Through foreign pressure the S. African Constitution was changed where the Three Chamber Parliament of Coloureds, Indians, and Whites became part of the government. Then, under final pressure from America, S. Africa was forced to accept a Communist Constitution during the Kempton Park negotiations and political power was given to the Black communist ANC-regime.

"On the other hand, Mr. Bush must also realize that what you sow you will reap. He has now a lawless S. Africa created by America. America's meddling has created a monster."

Ireland

"July 10, 2003 Ulster, Ireland - Immigrant families in Northern Ireland are being systematically driven out by 'Blood and Thunder' units associated with British Loyalty groups, according the 'Equality Commission' - a government entity established in the territory. In the latest incident, a group of ten men attacked the home of a 'mixed race' family with iron bars and baseball bats and beat down the door and ordered the couple and their six children to leave the country. The couple complied and are no longer residing in Ireland. They are not the first family to be driven out, though news reports would not estimate how many immigrants have left." Nordwave, POB 5901, Lake Worth, FL 33466, (a_hassin-ger@yahoo.com)

BLACKOUT

Remember, following the Oklahoma City bombing, the newspapers and TV went into great detail on how to make a fertilizer bomb - they were teaching people to make bombs for use against the government. Well, they are doing it again. Catch this from the N.Y. Times, August 17, 2003:

"Taking down the system (the nation's electric grid) through a deliberate act - terrorism - would be ridiculously easy.

"If you want to do a good job, you go to a Texas gun show and buy a grenade launcher." said Charles Perrow, an emeritus professor of sociology at Yale who is the author of 'Normal Accidents: Living with High-Risk Technologies.' "You drive by an electric power station and you point in the right direction and bang."

"While the caretakers of the grid might be able to compensate for a single such attack, he added, "a coordinated attack on two stations" would be a catastrophic double whammy that the grid's control system is not designed to handle."

RKH: The king is having trouble creating a believable "terrorist" threat. Only the naive could believe that the above "how to" article was accidental. Show a potential malcontent how he can commit an act of terror - and presto; "terror" - and a police state is needed to combat the terror!

AFGHANISTAN³: The Investors Business Daily of August 14, 2003 reports that Afghanistan is awash in violence. Dozens are killed in battles between Taliban and puppet government troops. This reminds of an interview conducted by the Franfurter Allgemeine Zeitung back on Oct 6, 2001:

"Deposed Afghan President Burhanuddin Rabbani hit out at United States policy in Afghanistan, accusing it of having created the ruling Taliban. 'After the defeat of Soviet troops, the US completely forgot our country,' he said. 'Washington afterwards created the Taliban, at the side of Pakistan, supported and armed them to overcome my Islamic government.' Rabbani said."

Just the usual case of a corrupt government starting a fire and trying to justify its existence by putting it out. Exactly what reason did Washington's Commentern give for invading a weak 3rd world country that had done us no harm? There have been so many of these kind of incidents that they seem to run together.

SCHWARZENEGGER: Arnold Schwarzenegger named billionaire investor, Warren Buffet, his top business and economic adviser. When asked about California's economy in Palo Alto between Jan 2001 and Jan 2003, when 223,900 private-sector jobs were lost but govt. jobs rose by 121,700 Schwarzenegger said, "I don't want to get into that right now." He says he wants to spend more on school construction and hire more teachers at a time of severe budget problems. He is a social liberal - married into the Kennedy clan (Boy!) and supports abortion on demand, homosexual adoption and "sensible gun controls." In fact, the whole system is becoming visible.

TEN COMMANDMENTS

Alabama Chief Justice Roy Moore defied a federal order to remove a monument showing the 10 Commandments from the state judicial building. He said he would take his fight to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Once bit - twice shy.

George Wallace was our teacher. His law career was a practice of Esau's law. He was a janissary who posed as a supporter of Jacob's Law. He stood in the schoolhouse door to prevent Esau from taking over the education of Saxon children - and then stepped aside and let Esau take over. Strange defiance!

This act gained Wallace nationwide notoriety. The media gave publicity to his protest party. The protest was meant to cause a split in the majority party's vote - but the Wallace phenomenon unexpectedly grew into a countrywide 3rd party steamroller that threatened to sweep away both of Esau's parties. It was politically necessity to remove Wallace. He was shot. The 3rd party threat disintegrated and Esau's rule remained in place.

The promoters of Chief Justice of Alabama Roy Moore think we have forgotten Mr. Wallace. We haven't. The Supreme Court is appointed by America's puppet king. Its appointed puppet members are sworn to uphold Esau's Laws - the laws of the International merchant. Note that Roy Moore has not come out and said that he wants our Saxon nation to live under the Commandments of the WORD - he merely wants court permission to show 10 of its Commandments to the public - like showing a monkey in a cage.

Polls say that Roy Moore now has a 77% approval rating. If the Cartel media should suddenly back him to be America's next right- wing leader without Roy Moore demanding that we be allowed to live under God's Laws - you'll know we have another George Wallace.

Be patient. God will send us a Gideon in due time. Any contender for the leadership of America's Christian right must be willing to go all the way to Galgotha. We've had our fill of the George Wallace types.

GAY & CRIMINAL: Dr. Timothy Dailey of the Family Research Council in Washington, DC released a report in June citing evidence that, while homosexual men comprise less than 3% of the total population, they commit up to a third of all sex crimes against children. "This is not to say, by any means, that all homosexuals are child molesters," Dailey said. "However, there is a great deal of evidence that connects homosexuality with the molestation of ... boys." Dailey analyzed about 40 previously published studies which show that most pedophiles are males; significant numbers of victims are boys; and pedophile themes abound in homosexual literature. (Citizen, Sept 02)" Homosexual activists Marshall Kirk and Hunter Madsen, in their manifesto for "gay rights, After the Ball, stated that their primary objective is to "cow and silence" those who adhere to a belief structure that condemns homosexuality. At a conference held by the Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Educational Network, their director of communication said: "If we do our jobs right, we will raise a whole generation of children who will reject the claims of the religious right." before that, Karl Marx; then Britain's empire builders; before that, missions to American Indians who were later loosed on us! Business as usual for the Hindu merchant and his agents.

EXECUTING HOSTAGES: Traditionally, conquerors shoot hostages in retaliation for casualties caused by rebels resisting the conquest. Algeria's unelected puppet government found it politically inadvisable to shoot hostages taken from its own people. Instead, government agents set off bombs in crowded market places - and blamed it on the rebels.

U.S. conquerors of Iraq have been taking casualties from Iraqi rebels. Politically, they are unable to retaliate by shooting hostages. A carbomb recently exploded near an Iraqi mosque killing a prominent Muslim cleric and many others. The U.S. said the rebels killed their own people. As long as U.S. forces continue to take casualties, we can expect the U.S. to say that Iraqi rebels are killing more and more of their own people.

Chapter 349

PAUL HILL And "The Rising Of 1715"

Paul Hill was a Presbyterian minister. He had a wife and three children. He had a lot to lose. He shot an abortionist and his bodyguard. The media demonized him. The state put him to death. It's an old story.

The Reason

There are two law systems:

* The WORD - the never-changing Law System of Jacob vs

* Trade Law - the everchanging law-system of Esau and his agents.

First century Christians called those who follow the WORD - "children of light", and those who didn't - "children of darkness".

There is no way that these two opposed law systems and their followers can exist in the same land without conflict.

America's Past

In the recent past there has been a series of law-collisions - one after another. A farmer named Arthur Kirk was shot down in his front door for refusing to give up his farm that his Law said was his forever; Tax protester Gordon Kahl was shot in the back of the head - mafia style - because he believed his God condemned taxes. American war hero, Byron de la Beckwith was framed by false witnesses to provide an example to punish where none was available. Paul Hill was put to death because he tried to protect unborn babies.

The list is endless and the prisons are full. Confrontation survivors go before Esau's Admiralty courts and find themselves facing mixed-race juries thirsting for their blood. Such a thing itself is a violation of the Law and prohibited by the WORD. Predictably, the verdict of Esau's courts is always "guilty!"

The Author Holding His

Scotland

My ancestor George Hume was sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered for taking part in the "Rising of 1715" against the English occupation of Scotland. His son, also named George, age 15, fought beside him in the war and was banished to Virginia. In 1981, I visited kinsmen in Scotland and held his sword.

Mother used to play the piano and my sisters, cousins, aunts, uncles and neighbors would gather round and sing Scottish songs that young George brought over with him. Songs of war. Songs about the way things were then. I've always known these songs. His portrait is on the next page.

Arms

Let me explain. George Hume wasn't really his name. His real name was Dunbar - George Dunbar.

He was a "Hume" because an ancestor was "enfiefed" with "Hume" land by the king. "Enfiefment" meant that the king made him an "overseer" of this Hume land. It was his job to keep the workers busy, collect tribute from them (sharecrop), and fight the English with the Hume militias in his care when they tried to cross the border. The operation wasn't a lot different from the way plantations were managed in Virginia - except in Scotland the workers were Scots.

The name Hume means "helmet". Scotland's "helmet lands" were the lowlands on the border facing England. These lands were the first to meet the never ending English invasions.

There were several divisions of Hume lands

1: SIR GEORGE HUME of Wedderburn 3rd Baronet; (-1720) Royal Scots Fusiliers 1702; Burgess of Edinburgh 1699; fought in the Jacobite Rising of 1715; captured at Preston England; Imprisoned in The Marshalsea; sentenced to be hanged, drawn & quartered with lands forfeited.. m. 1695 Margaret (- 1765) eldest dau of Sir Patrick Hume of Lumsden, Baronet.

2. George Hume (Hume) 2nd son. Wedderburn Castle near Berwick, (1698-1760) Engaged with his father in the Jacobite attempt of 1715 and was later banished to Culpeper Co. VA; Officer colonial wars, Surveyor Spotsylvania, Frederick, Orange & Culpeper Cos, taught G. Washington to survey. m. 1727 Elizabeth Proctor dau of George Proctor, Spotsylvania on the border - "Blackadder", "Hersel", "Wedderburn", etc. George Dunbar was a "Wedderburn" Hume.

3. Charles Hume (1737 - 1821) Culpeper Co. m. Hannah James 1764

As stated before, George did not own the "Wedderburn" Hume lands, they were enfiefed (leased) to him by the king. The coat-of-arms was granted by the king to let people know that he had the king's authority - like stripes on a sergeant's sleeve give him the right to issue orders.

The Scottish king, who "rented" the Wedderburn Hume lands to this branch of the Dunbars, didn't own the Hume lands, either. The lands were initially claimed by the Pope¹ who enfiefed (leased) them to the king in exchange for a share of the tribute taken from the people. The Pope

4. Capt Joseph Hume (1775-1851) Culpeper Co. War Of 1812 m Elizabeth Jones (1785-1862)

5. Dr. Charles E. Hume (Sep 19, 1824-Dec 10, 1906, Madison Co. Va. m. Mary Emma Thompson (Feb 6, 1832-Feb 10, 1903) of Fauquier Co; dau of Joseph Thompson & Lucy Hume.

6. Georgie Hume (1864-1942) m. 1892 Webb City, Mo. Richard Thomas Kelly of Culpeper (1867-1939)

Emperor Constantine pre-empted the rapidly growing revolutionary Christian movement by creating a state episcopal religion using Christian ritual and parables but whose real purpose was to suppress its racist anti-universalist teachings that harmed Rome's international trade.

Later, when Rome fragmented, the empire re-invented itself as a religious-trade organization. It established local warlord kings to protect Vatican far-flung assets. Vatican money and religious sponsorship were given to the new kings in exchange for their protecting trade and providing military aid when needed. Then, there was worked out a sharing arrangement for the tribute collected from the people. Greedy ungrateful kings who wanted the entire tribute were suppressed by coalitions of kings loyal to the Vatican.

When reading the Saxon Chronicles, I stumbled across this notation on p. 107 :

"AD 883. ... king Alfred ... led ... to Rome the alms which king Alfred ordered thither, and also in India to St. Thomas and to St. Bartholomew."

Interesting. The money trail follows trade completely out of Europe and on to the East - the home of usury.

What I'm leading up to is this: In Europe everyone was enfeigned to someone else. When the younger George Hume was banished to America, just a penniless boy, a POW with a seven year indenture hanging over his head - it was the most fortunate thing that could have happened to him. In time, he obtained lands in what was then Culpeper County.

In Virginia

Back in Scotland the Humes were enfeigned with what they had. In Virginia, George Hume owned his own land. He could plow it and keep the increase without sharing with anyone. It was his. He paid no tax-tribute. He owned his own self-sufficient farm! He was master of his own estate. His farm was his own small country and he was its king. The Wedderburn Humes back in Scotland had been enfiefed with thousands of acres and could lead 20,000 men to war - but they didn't own a single acre of land that they could call their own. Not one single, blessed acre. AND, they were servants of another.

Here in America, everyone owned his own land, or was in the process of getting it. HR readers are descended from men who once owned their own farms. They were kings - kings acknowledging only the WORD as their King of Kings.

Here in America we almost had it - we almost had God's kingdom on earth - handed us on a silver tray. We almost pulled it off. We almost did. Almost.

The Book

Dan Raber, who once organized feasts in Tennessee to study the WORD, gave me an old history book about Scotland printed in 1722. It is a great big thing. It related the history of the sufferings of occupied Scotland in the late 1600s. As I read the names, dates, offenses, fines, executions, and punishments, I began to understand what was behind the stories and songs that had been passed down in the family.

The writer of this book had known many of the Scots he wrote about. He talked about the descendants of Covenanters and their persecution. These people knew the WORD. Their "Scottish Declaration Of Independence" written soon after the time of Wallace traced their ancestry from the time they left the Holy Land. They knew who they were and the rights given their ancestors by God - and they knew that these same rights were theirs by right of inheritance.

This was dangerous knowledge for anyone who was supposed to be a loyal subject of a king. How does a king rule "subjects" who don't believe that kings have the right to rule them in the first place.²

Puritans & Covenanters

A religious reform movement took place all over Europe in the 1500s - almost at the same time. Fed up with the corruption present in organized religion, people opted to live under God's WORD. Each country had a different name for their movement, but it was the same basic belief: Germany had Lutheranism, in France- Huguenots, England - Puritans; Scotland - Covenanters.

Scotland's king was a dyed-in-the-wool Presbyterian - James VI. In an attempt to calm Scotland, in 1607 the Cartel tapped this very Scottish Presbyterian king to sit on England's vacant throne and rule both Scotland and England. His new name was James I of England.

In Scotland, James had been a weak king because Scots would not stand for a strong one. Things were different when James moved to England and became her king. He now had a powerful army and strong state church to enforce his physical as well as his spiritual demands. Wielding this power, he changed overnight from pro-Scottish pro-Presbyterian into pro-empire pro-state-religion.

² "And (the elders) said ... make us a king ... And the LORD said unto Samuel ... the people ... have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. ... Now ... shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them. ... He will take your sons ... for his chariots, and [to be] his horsemen ... and to reap his harvest ... and to make his instruments of war ... And he will take your fields ... and give [them] to his servants. And he will ... give to his officers, and to his servants. And he will take ... the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants." 1 Sa 8:5-22

The King James lesson is that when kings (or presidents) become powerful and wealthy - they can't be trusted to be loyal to the WORD or the people the WORD rules.³

Only the foolish forget that kings and presidents are appointed by the International Trade Cartel to serve the Cartel. Their behavior testifies to the truth of this. Time after time, in exchange for money, power, and prestige, rulers honor the merchants' wishes rather than address the needs of his own people.

The only protection against these types is to prevent them from ever having the opportunity to become kings. Having to rise through the Biblical presbyterian hierarchy system of 10s and 100s gives the unworthy little opportunity to hide their faults.

Events Leading To 1715

England's Puritan Revolution - the English equivalent of Scotland's Covenanter revolt - almost succeeded. A Catholic king had been defeated by Oliver Cromwell, the Puritan general. Many of the Catholic king's followers were packed on ships and sent to America.

Then, Cromwell pulled a "Benedict Arnold", or a "DeKlerk" if you prefer, and switched sides. He was acting king - why not be one? He went after the very Puritan and Covenanter followers who selected him to be general of their armies and defeated them. He then marched into Scotland, captured and blew up Hume Castle, and loaded many of his former

³ "Let him not have... abundance of riches... he may grow too proud to submit to the laws." Antiq 4:8:17

Scottish Covenanters along with his English Puritan friends on ships and sent them to Virginia. He then declared himself "Lord Protector" - another name for "king".

The Problem Remains

When Cromwell died, the Cartel selected another king for England and Scotland. This new king knew that the uncensored teachings of the WORD had been the greatest enemy of his predecessors.

Suppressing The 2/3s

The Bible is divided into two basic parts. One third deals with "personal improvement" - no lying, stealing, false witnesses, pay your debts, and be nice to babies and neighbors. This is basic. Without it trade can't take place.

The second part is different. It deals with "government". This is the part that had been causing trouble with kings and would-be kings. This 2/3s instructs Saxons how to conduct government, religion, and trade. It forbids taxes, kings, and monopolies. It demands that land be divided and never sold and it brands usury a capital crime. If people were to obey this 2/3s there would be no corporate monopolies and no kings.

The English king provided a "Prayer Book" to replace the Bible. It is a beautiful thing dealing with the acceptable 1/3 personal improvement part while diverting the reader's attention from the offending 2/3s that deals with Godly approved government. The Scots would have no part of it.

The Catholic Church's solution to the problem of the 2/3s had been to forbid people to read any part of the WORD. The Anglican solution was to provide a Prayer Book that left out the 2/3s.

Neither solution worked. Once the Bible escaped the grasp of kings and fell into the hands of the people - revolution was in the air. Episcopacies mean suppression. The WORD means freedom.

Suppressing Revolt

To suppress rebellion in Scotland, the English king, who was king of both England and Scotland, sent armies into Scotland and occupied key cities. A guerrilla war commenced. The occupation armies lost men, puppet rulers were harassed, tyrannical Episcopal bishops were slain. The King's forces retaliated ten-fold. Hangmen were busy and heads were placed on spikes over the gates of Edinburgh Castle - with the Humes losing their share. Dungeons were full.

Heavy taxes were levied to support these troops. The cities and countryside were heavily fined. Scotland, a poor land to start with, found it difficult to raise the money. Famine soon raised its head.

Preachers Targeted

Presbyterian preachers who had been seen at the scenes of fights between occupation forces and rebellious Scots were blamed for instigating the revolt.

As a result, Presbyterian church meetings were banned. English dragoons with Scot renegades scoured the countryside looking for illegal church services that continued being held in open fields and deep woods. These meetings were called field and wood "venticles".

When discovered, the preacher was immediately shot and the congregation was executed on the spot or dragged on the ends of ropes to prisons.

Bonded Church Services

In time, occupation authorities relented and allowed Presbyterian church services to be held - if the congregations posted bond.

This bond required church members to put up their homes and property as surety for the good conduct of the preacher. Church doors were required to be left unlocked so patrols could look in on the services.

If the preacher delved into the forbidden 2/3s of the WORD and attacked any of the prerogatives of the king - it was considered high treason. The church bond was forfeited and all the congregation lost their homes, their property, and their livelihood.

Self Censorship

It was from this time that both the Presbyterian Church and the Puritan Baptists of England split into two parts. One part taught the whole Scripture and were continuously hunted by the authorities as terrorist rebels. The second part learned to practice self-censorship. It still practices self-censorship.

The fiery Presbyterian ministers in time were rooted out of Scotland. Those who weren't killed escaped to America. In Virginia they organized congregations of Puritans and Covenanters from groups of refugees who had been banished to America. Eager ears heard words sharpened by years of persecution.

Not only did the Presbyterians hear these words, but Virginians who had long been forced by Royal edict to attend Anglican religious services, or fined for being absent, they too sought out these preachers. People like Patrick Henry, George Washington and Thomas Jefferson listened to the very words that had been preached earlier in Scotland. And as night follows day, Revolution in America was the result.

In winning Scotland Britain lost America.

Georgie-Hume

We were expecting a son. I was going to name him George Hume Hoskins. The Lord sent a daughter. The name was too good to waste so I named her Georgie-Hume.

She lives in a land that today in many ways is identical to Scotland before 1715. Its puppet government punishes those who want to live under the WORD. It occupied and closed down the Indianapolis Baptist Temple. It persecuted Bob Jones University. It taxes the Saxon to lavish on aliens. It has increased taxes so that they are almost unbearable. Jobs are being "out-sourced"; strangers are filling the land. Sodomy and abortion are government protected. America's Godless rulers raid peoples all over the world and steals their wealth.

Like 17th century Scotland, many are leaving self-censored establishment churches to study seditious and terrorist writings that are in the the 2/3s of the Bible dealing with government. Many have decided that they prefer to live under the WORD - God's Law.

Others have no idea what is in the WORD but for them what they see around them is becoming intolerable.

Prediction

It seems inevitable that unless the occupation government of the International Merchants does not relent its oppression of Saxon America, the time will come when the Saxon will begin to feel that the merchant's government is its worse enemy.

It is no secret that the Cartel expects that this will be America's future. Their army is training for "urban warfare" and every effort is being made to demonize the Saxon and deprive him of his weapons. This can hardly be the actions of a friend.

When people believe that anything is better than what they have - that will be the condition that existed in Scotland before the Rising of 1715.

Conclusion

At the present time there are two Law systems in the land. Only one will survive.

It was the world of the "sons of darkness" that engulfed Paul Hill. He could stand it no longer. He knew the WORD promised that if America continues doing what it is doing it will be destroyed:

"If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them... I will give you peace..." Lev 26:3-9... "But if ye will not... do all these commandments... I will... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols ... And I will bring the land into desolation..." Lev 26:14-35. "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

He tried to protect the children and make amends for his people as others like him have done.

Paul Hill went cheerfully to his death saying that he expected great rewards in Heaven.

The occupation forces are hoping that their Lawlessness and excesses will be forgotten and that Paul Hill is only an aberration.

The Rising of the '15 teaches that when people have taken all that they can take - they don't forget.

Paul Hill may only be among the first.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Murder and rape are rampant. It now takes two pages of the Citizen to report on them and then they do not list everyone.

Blacks seem to be on a murdering spree. Other Blacks in squatter camps have taken all they are going to take from the crooks among them and have developed their own justice system - car-tyres and fuel. They tie the tyre to the criminals and burn them alive.

It is useless to go to the police. Eight thousand dangerous criminals have been set free because the prisons are overflowing - but not a white among them.'

Our garden worker came along with the story that he was robbed one night at 12 o'clock and robbed a few days later at 5 o'clock. He said he is afraid and wants us to let him move into an outbuilding inside the security fence for safety. But, this cannot be allowed. According to one of the new laws, once you allow a black entry he is entitled to that area and it becomes his property. So, after the second "robbery" he had his stuff outside ready to be moved inside. But we were forced to say "no". He has a wife who stays not far from here and he can easily stay with her or get a house at Diepstoot across the road. Neither idea was to his liking.

My brother's son-in-law has two blacks on his farm, both retired. One washed a car with cold water once a week in wintertime. His hands are swollen and hurt. The other was a tractor driver and has pain in his arms. They now come to him with claims. Both want money for what they call "injuries" in spite of being allowed to stay free on the farm while receiving pensions of the same amount as whites.

There are two words that send us into a fury: That is for these people to whom we owe nothing to stand in front of us with hands on hips and demand: "I want", and "you must".

We went to the Orphanage today and the welcome was warm. Betzy was so thankful for the gift from our American Christian friends.

There was another couple visiting there, a former school principal. As far as I could see they only wanted to find out about the denomination of the orphanage. I tried to make them feel ashamed for not helping - but no way. They were Dutch Reformed and that usually means a dead church. A waste of time talking to such people.

Betzy said that people called and asked if the money they sent in letters had reached them. It hadn't, so there are definitely some people in the postal service who are intercepting the letters and stealing their contents. Others called to see if the money they sent by wire as you instructed arrived safely. It had. Thank goodness!

I placed an ad in an Africans newspaper about the orphanage and some letters came in. It is so exciting what your readers have started. Perhaps things are beginning to get better for us.

We had another break-in last night. The wind was blowing hard and we thought that was what had turned the alarm on. The robbers took a number of things, but it could have been much worse.

The communist noose is drawing tighter. Rules by the dozen for whites. The law for blacks is completely different, be it murder, rape or robbery. A murdered white hardly reaches the newspaper with a tiny article.

It really makes the day for the English papers when they can harm us. Except for a few the rest don't like the Afrikaner and I can't see that it will change. They empower blacks with high position in firms and even give them firms to manage. One received a platinum mine and promptly stole its assets and disappeared. Never in all these years have they ever helped an Afrikaner get on his feet. Now included with the English are the Jews and they are worse. They try to make Afrikaners seem good only for manual labour.

Best Wishes, K.J.

Chapter 350

THE WORD Revealed The Way

Each person has hangups. I have more than most. The attempt to solve them revealed the WORD to me. The WORD revealed THE WAY. The WAY revealed the Enemy.

All knowledge comes from the WORD and without the WORD there is nothing.

Before

My brother died from leukemia when he was four. When I too was four, I was dying from pneumonia in my upstairs bedroom. An oxygen tent covered my upper body. It had glass windows at the top so that a doctor could look down on the patient. There were big green oxygen bottles to the right side of the bed.

Four doctors were in my room waiting - Dad, Dr. Hopkins, Uncle Pres, and another doctor whose name I've forgotten.

My mother was in the garden. She told me that she said, "God, you've taken one of my sons; take the other if it's your will, but if you let him live I'll give him to you."

I was told that at that very moment I began to get well.

Boyhood

Before medical clinics, Dad was always running into medical problems that he couldn't handle. His solution was to go back to medical school to learn new things. He ended up learning four separate specialties and practicing all four at the same time here in Lynchburg - the only doctor I ever heard of who did that.

Mom went to NY with him when he went back to school. It took a year or two each time to learn the new speciality and in the meanwhile my sisters and I stayed with Mom's parents on their farm across Mountain Run near Culpeper.

Revival

The Hoskins children went with their grandmother and their aunts to the First Baptist Church in town. There was a revival going on. The preacher asked for all those who wanted to follow God to come forward. I didn't ask, I just slipped past Grandmother and my aunts and went forward.

The preacher asked me a few questions and then stood me before the congregation and they voted me in as a member of the congregation. I was seven and was serious as only a 7-year old can be.

The preacher told me that as a new Christian I was supposed to come to church on Sunday and get other people to come. That was it. I already knew what Christians did - I wasn't supposed to lie, cheat or steal. Now, in addition, I was supposed to come to church on Sunday - which I was already doing - and bring someone. This last was the only thing new - so I tried

My recruiting efforts were checkered. Granddaddy played billiards with the preacher but absolutely wouldn't come to church. Uncle Roy, who lived with us, came a couple of times. Uncle Thompson, though, was a winner. He was big, strong, and people said that except for his drinking he would be the finest of the Kelly clan.

Uncle Thompson had started drinking when he was a boy. I suppose, because granddaddy - his father, Dick Kelly, drank. Thompson came to church, got saved, stopped drinking, got a good job and married the preacher's daughter. She was a great beauty in Culpeper.

Unfortunately, her father hadn't taught her about drinking. She wanted liquor in the house to entertain company when they dropped by. She also liked to have a drink before supper. She insisted that Thompson join her. He did, and went back to drinking. They got divorced.

In spite of later being a hero during WWII (he was on the Yorktown when it sank), he died an alcoholic in the veterans' hospital in Richmond.

Lynchburg

After moving back to Lynchburg, we had morning Bible reading and prayer. I was sent to Lynchburg's First Baptist summer "Bible School" where kids memorized Scripture verses. When that was through - the 1st Baptist children were sent to the Rivermont Presbyterian Bible School where they did more of the same. To this day I remember verses I learned almost 70 years ago.

Mom made me promise that I wouldn't drink anything until I was 18. I didn't. On my 18th birthday, I tasted my first beer and whiskey.

In all my life I had never been told that there was anything in the Bible against drinking. Never once. In fact, except for being taught not to lie, cheat or steal; go to church when the doors were open; pay my tithe and taxes - I was never taught anything about God's instructions - his Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Just pretty Psalms, indecipherable parables, and miracles - which I was expected to accept at face value - which I did.

Fishburne Military School

I had a learning disability and was a poor student, so I was sent to a Military School. My learning disability consisted of "double thinking". My mind takes an instructor's words and decodes several meanings for each word while he speaks. He may say 10 words and I hear 30. I always fell behind in class when instructors spoke faster than my mind could decode what he was saying. I learned more than a lot of students, but it took longer.

Religion was a required course. My FMS Bible teacher was a Lutheran preacher. He was one of the best Bible teachers I ever had. He didn't teach God's Laws, but I learned the Bible stories - that Jesus walked on water and Moses parted the Red Sea. They were parables. I never learned what a "parable" was.

My belief system contained no doubts about God. I would have done anything God told me to do, but God never told me to do anything. My teachers hinted that they knew secret things but never told me what they were. They told me that God said not to lie, cheat or steal - but I knew that when I was seven.

Lynchburg College

I went to Lynchburg College. It was a church school. A religion course was required. My professor was Dr. Hunter. He was a red headed florid faced man who had been a missionary to China.

Dr. Hunter taught that the Biblical miracles were the result of natural causes - and went into great detail how such things could be explained by acts of nature. He never told us, for instance, that if in a parable God's Law of gravity were violated it generally indicated a parable, and, that a parable is a disguised saying because the king will kill you if you speak out and criticize him. In those times, parables were necessary.

Dr. Hunter didn't tell us either that God is omnipotent. God can do anything he wants to do. He just taught that the miracles in the Bible were the results of natural causes. The result was that many impressionable young people, like me, left school believing that the Bible and its teachings were hoaxes - thanks to a preacher turned teacher.

I graduated from college an atheist.

Korean War

When the Korean War broke out I volunteered for AF pilot training. When they stamped my dog-tag and asked my religious preference - "Protestant", "Catholic" or "Jew"? I told them "Atheist".

Home Again

After I came home from the Korean War in the early '50s, the king's courts decreed that there must be forced mixing of the races in schools, restaurants, and everywhere else. It was the law of the land.

Lynchburg's churches had supported racial separation for nearly 350 years. When the federal courts decreed race-mixing - except for 3 or 4 - they all switched and became integrationist in a couple of weeks.

I was shocked! How can something be right one day and wrong the next? What sort of people held opinions that flip-flopped on a dime? Even more amazing - preachers I had heard hold forth for "racial separation" now preached "race-mixing".

This confirmed things that people said about churches and preachers.

Richmond

I worked in Richmond for the Defenders. I traveled Virginia as an organizer setting up chapters to fight the fed takeover of Virginia schools. In Richmond I was a lobbyist at the state capitol keeping an eye on our state legislators. While there, I didn't know a single other person my age who admitted to being a Christian. Organized Christianity was a visible enemy. It switched sides and declared itself on the side of the oppressor.

Berlin Call-Up

From Richmond I went to NY, trained to become a securities portfolio manager and moved back to my hometown of Lynchburg.

In 1961, I was called up as a filler in the 100th Airborne during the Berlin Crisis.

On active duty I was a general's aide; ran Visitor's Bureau welcoming VIPs; shot on the pistol team; and worked "escape and evasion" training recruits with my shepherd, Thor.

My most delightful experience was baiting two young chaplains. As ignorant as I was, I knew more Bible than they did - what do they teach in seminaries anyway?

Home Again

The Berlin Crisis ended. I returned home to an investment business ruined by the Crash of 1961. I had to start all over again.

Now I had a wife and two children. My source of income had been ruined. It was difficult paying the rent and putting food on the table. Ten and fifteen hour days were the rule. Social drinking became habitual - like my father, grandfather, and my Uncle Thompson before me.

In 1963, I had a nervous breakdown or "deep depression" some call it - take your pick. My workday decreased drastically. I couldn't go to a doctor - there was no money.

When required to provide answers for problems that had no answers, such as, "When will I get my stock certificate?", my mind would slip into neutral and I was through for the day. My firm, Francis I. Dupont, was having back-office delivery problems that resulted from installing a new computer system, and there wasn't a thing I could do about it - or for that matter - there wasn't a thing they could do about it. It was like living in a box with no windows or doors - no escape.

This happened every day. I would work from ten minutes to an hour and an unanswerable question would send me home to spend the rest of the day walking in the woods. You can't make a living working 20 minutes a day - and this was happening to Dick Hoskins. Nervous breakdowns happened to other people - not me!

My critical attitude alienated my wife and we did not live as man and wife for over a year. Bills piled up. My emergency savings was gone. I was an alcoholic. I couldn't work. I couldn't even sweep floors. I figured by selling the furniture in the house I could hold out another 10 days.

Reality

I had come home from work and was sitting in the green rocking chair on the front porch of my house. I was thinking about ending it. I had tried everything and nothing worked. Well, more accurately, I had tried "almost" everything. The one thing I hadn't tried was the "Christian thing" - and that was the one thing I didn't want to try.

On the other hand, the two men I really respected, Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson, were Christians. Hands down they were better men than I could ever hope to be. They must have known something that I didn't know.

The Agreement

I thought this over and decided, that since Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson placed their confidence in this mysterious God, I'd see if I could work out something.

My thinking went this way - I remember:

"If there really is a God, and I honestly don't believe there is - and, if this God will let me work a full day - I don't mean that I have to make any money - just work a full day, I will do the following in return:

(1) "I will try to believe."

This was the hardest part. It meant giving up my beliefs for something unknown. It was scary. This God could turn out to be a crazy!

(2) "I will go to church on Sunday." I considered this last my bona fides.

It was also an humiliation. I can't describe how it felt for a confirmed atheist to be seen dead in a church!

I was asking a lot. I felt that I had to offer something more. Sort of a payment. But, I had nothing . All I had left was my ability to shoot. I offered that ability to God - if he could use it. He never used it.

Frankly, the whole deal was "iffy". If there was a God - he was scraping the bottom of the barrel with me.

Done Deal

Nevertheless, it was a done deal. It was 10 o'clock in the morning, April 28, 1965. I had given my word - the switch was thrown.

Away From Ground Zero

I didn't hear bells or whistles - just silence. I needed direction.

Does God talk? How?

It hit me. If I were God, I would make it easy for people. I would have my WORD where it can be easily reached. Bibles! Everybody has a Bible. No one reads them but everyone has one.

I went inside and hunted through the book shelves. There it was. The same Bible I used in Bible summer school a quarter century before. I started reading. God talked to me.

The Road Back

STUDY: The first thing I was told to do was to diligently study (II Timothy 2:15). I could deal with that. Reading three chapters of the WORD a day and four on Sunday I could get through the Bible in a year. If time prevented regular reading - a chapter of Proverbs corresponding to the date of the day of the month filled in. "Proverbs" are instant smarts.

When reading proverbs, I marked the proverbs meant for me: "A Star" - wisdom; "A" - adultery; "D" - drinking; "B" - business; "G" - government; "C" - children; "M" - for my big fat mouth; "W" - women/marriage; "Lightning Bolt" - anger; "P" - politics; "$" - money/usury; This way, when I needed to, I could go back and flip the pages to quickly locate the wisdom I needed that moment.

I compiled my own "index" in the back so I wouldn't have to spend half a day searching for things.

ENEMIES: The next was harder - get right with people for whom I had grudges or had injured.

I got one of those big yellow legal sized pads, made two columns, filled them with the names of my enemies. I went to see them. It took me a year and a half to get to them all. This was a load off. To this day the enemies I have left are those I've inadvertently offended and don't know about, and those you would naturally expect. I guess you could say that even with them there is nothing personal involved. For what it is worth - I was "Just following orders."

Work

I found a copy of "The Power Of Positive Thinking". From this I got the anti-stress motto - "Don't criticize, condemn, or complain." For me this was a tough one.

I can't tell you how bad my health and mental state were. I learned to lie down 10 minutes out of every hour and one full hour midday. Absolutely no thinking about work while resting. No newspapers, TV, or stress. I forced myself to try to be agreeable to my wife and even planted a garden. Gradually my workday increased. In a few years, I worked a full day and became my firm's leading producer.

Drinking

I still drank. Many a time I went to church after having had a few drinks. A visiting preacher said that Christians shouldn't drink. He quoted chapter and verse. I looked them up. This was the first time I had heard this. I had never been told this before.¹

¹ Prov 31:4-6; Pr 31:4-5; Hos 4:11; Deut 29:5; Prov 20:1; I Esdras 4:18-22; Testament Of Judah 3:27; Deu 29:6; Habakkuk 2:15; Eph 5:18; Testament of Issachar 2:7

I thought about it. I didn't want to stop, but, if the WORD said so - .

On January 1, 1966, I was in Washington, D.C. in Willis Carto's apartment. He offered me a beer. I took it, drank half, and put the half empty can on the kitchen counter. That was it - my last drink.

The WORD says that the body is made by the WORD and made in the image of the WORD - which is God. And, it's obvious - smoking harms the body. I stopped smoking January 1, 1967. I had smoked since I was five years old.

Churches

My promise was to go to church every Sunday. I soon learned more about churches than I wanted to know. I went to a different church each Sunday. No two were alike. Not one of them taught the things I was reading in the Bible - God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Still, my promise kept me going. I went to one of them for 18 years: Thomas Road Baptist Church. That is a story in itself.

Things I learned From The WORD

To me - The WORD was the beginning of understanding. It seemed that the older I get the more things come crashing in on my understanding. Here are a few of them:

HOME CHURCH: After wasting years with the gods of organized churches I learned about home church. GRACE: "Grace" is when God accepts you. If God accepted me he will accept anyone. That's grace. REPENTANCE - This means that you are sorry and will shape up. GOOD DEEDS are what you do because that's what you are supposed to. USURY - a capital crime. The head of that episcopacy is the anti-christ.

KINGS - are appointed by the head of the usury episcopacy to keep peace - or make war.² GREAT MERCHANTS - gather and manage wealth created by the people. PRIESTS - who are not being persecuted - are not teaching the WORD: "If they have persecuted me they will persecute you."; STRANGERS - the descendants of Esau are at war to the death with descendants of Jacob. Strangers worshiping with Saxons is a red flag indicating all are servants of the strangers. (Num 18:7, Num 1:51; Jer 51:51; De 23:2). SERPENTS take the Lawful, attach the unLawful, and make the whole unLawful. ESAU'S SERVANTS are kings, establishment preachers, usury bankers, great merchants and actors. GOD'S CHOSEN are not 7th century Khazar Turk converts to Judaism. WIVES & CHILDREN are special treasures. The WORD teaches how to treat a wife and to properly raise children. PRAYER works. My mother prayed - I lived. I was dead - now I live. Prayer works! CHURCHES - are not what they seem. Most are government agents who teach Judeo-Christianity to separate Saxons from the WORD which is their God.

Conclusion

All knowledge, all truth, all wisdom, all protection is to be found in the WORD which is God. Whenever someone obeys the WORD, or disobeys - God speaks to us and tells us all we need to know about them. And God The WORD does speak to us. He spoke to me. And if he will speak to me he will speak to anyone who will listen.

² "I beheld the angels of punishment ... Then I inquired of the angel of peace, who proceeded with me for whom those instruments were preparing. He said: These they are preparing for the kings and powerful ones of the earth, that by this shall they perish. ... I beheld a deep valley burning with fire. To this valley they brought monarchs and the mighty." I Enoch 52:3-5; 53:1-2, Enoch 1 95:8.

LETTER FROM S.AFRICA BY K.J.

Dear Mrs. Ann Hoskins:

As requested, I visited the home. For the first time I met all the children.

It is hard to explain the feeling a person gets to see all these happy faces and the love that flows from their little hearts. The boys just want to shake my hand and the girls just want to hug me. It brings tears to my eyes.

Thank our kinsmen in America again for us.

Hans - S. Africa

LETTERS

BLACKS & NOAH: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Since Noah's Flood destroyed all life - from which of Noah's sons did blacks descend?" Z.H. - Nevada

RKH: None. Blacks aren't descended from "man". In the beginning God made man and beasts. Man is "blush red Adam". Whatever is not "man" is "beast". It's not a derogatory term - it's just the name used by the ancients. Noah loaded the Ark with his "man" family and with "beasts" as he was commanded to do. That's how beasts came through the flood. They rode through with Noah- Adamites.

WORD: "Thank you for using 'The WORD' to signify the complete expression of The One and Only True Living God, Jesus, Holy Spirit and all other self-expressed manifestations of YHWH. From this moment, WORD will replace YHWH in our writings. It has taken years to reach this understanding."

R - Alaska

BROKENHEARTED: "Dear Richard: Our youngest daughter went to school in Colorado. In spite of our instructions she met and married a black student. We counseled her against it but she was adamant. We did not attend the wedding. From now on our daughter will be welcomed home only if she returns without her alien husband and has no children (Lev 22:10-13) - as the Bible teaches. Our hearts are broken."

D.R. - Tennessee

RKH: God will bless your stand. Now is the time of separation for our people. It's one way or the other. You cannot live another's life - or deliver him from God's wrath in the "Day of Revenge".

DECISION IN MEXICO: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I was born of Norwegian stock and raised in Minnesota. I homeschool my children because I discovered that many things church schools taught me are wrong. While gathering materials I ran across "Reform Christianity", which you also believe, which teaches that only The WORD can be believed. This makes sense. The problem is that I married a Mexican who is a mixed-breed and have several children by him. He says he is descended from the Aztecs. The WORD says that to return to my own people I will have to leave both him and my mixed-breed children. Is there another way?" M.K. - Mexico

RKH: No. I'm sorry. The WORD of God spoke the rules - not me.³

³ HR has three handout pamphlets dealing with the problem of mongrelization: "Do Integrationists Go To Heaven"; "Censored Scriptures"; and "The Balak Plan". They are free. Write for copies and enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

UNFILTERED NEWS

RUSSIA'S OLIGARCHIES: "Eight Oligarchs share the rich Russian resources between them. They split the country amongst themselves. Eight huge industrial-financial cartels control today's Russian economy." (Die Welt, Jul 5, 2003)) (Nationalist Times, p.5, Sep 2003)

RKH: Usury creates monopolies. Corporations are the parking place for usury's monopoly wealth. Oligarchs are Russian corporation managers. "Oligarch" is a Russian euphemism for "Jew". Jews are the ITCs "civil service". They do what they are installed to do and take the blame. In return, they are forever protected by those who benefit. This is how the system is supposed to work.

In Russia, instead of working with the ITC system they seized all of Russia's wealth for themselves. It is quite likely that Russia's rulers will be permitted to punish these rebellious individuals and have others more amiable to the system installed.

American Empire Crumbling

French historian Emmanuel Todd who predicted the fall of the Soviet Union in his 1976 book Before the Fall: The End of Soviet Domination, says the US is in the process of following suit.

"The world has become too large and complex to accept the predominance of one power. There will not be an American empire ... Its' industrial capacity is clearly smaller than that of Europe and approximately equal to that of Japan, with twice the population. Its' trade deficit meanwhile is in the order of $500- billion per year. Its military potential is nevertheless still the largest by far, but is declining and consistently over- estimated. The use of military bases is dependent on the good will of its' allies, many of whom are not so willing as before.

"Its' theatrical military activism against inconsequential rogue states that we are currently witnessing plays out against this backdrop. It is a sign of weakness, not of strength. But weakness makes for unpredictability. The U.S. is about to become a problem for the world.

"The U.S. leadership doesn't know any more where to turn. They know that they are monetarily dependent on the rest of the world, and they are afraid. There are no more Nazis and Communists ... This is the reason for the rush into military action and adventures.

"The only remaining superiority is military. This is classic for a crumbling system. The final glory is militarism. The fall of the Soviet Union took place in an identical context. Their economy was in decline, and their leadership grew fearful. ... and the Russians embarked on adventures to forget their economic shortcomings. The parallels to the U.S. are obvious."

Impact's Opinion

How parts of the world see the United States. Impact, p. 14, Oct/Nov 2003, P.O. Box 28233, Sunnyside 0132, Rep. of SA

"With a low birthrate and runaway childhood obesity, the USA simply cannot support an army for global conquest. As Iraq and Afghanistan are demonstrating, the U.S. Air Force can bomb almost anywhere with impunity, but the Army cannot occupy and control anything, if the local population wages guerrilla warfare.

"The beginning of the End will come with the collapse of the occupation of Iraq. Or maybe Afghanistan will go first. ...

"The current era will end with the collapse into chaos of the USA and much of the rest of the world ... the Globalists and Jewish Supremacist will turn on each other, creating something akin to a civil war. Not a single American institution will survive this struggle. Even now, most of them, such as the Episcopal (Anglican) Church, barely functions at all. They continue solely on momentum and massive apathy."

Chapter 351

ZIONISM

Every group has divided loyalties. The basic loyalty is to one's own kind. This is "separatism." The other is a loyalty demanded by one's ruler.

Since the priorities of these two loyalties are different, conflict is natural.

Jewish Loyalties

Jews necessarily have a high profile because they are seen by everyone all the time. They are the "civil service" of the International Trade Cartel - they are the cartel cement that holds a country's "King, Priests, and Merchant" governing caste-system together in a single operating unit. They are also responsible for overseeing international relations. Kings always have a Jew standing close to them. Their job requires that they be everywhere in every land filling their job requirements. They are the Cartel's "civil service."

Divided Loyalties

Jews are a complex people. Like others, they have divided loyalties. Their basic loyalty is to their ruler-employer - the Cartel - for reasons that will soon become clear. Jews are also loyal to their own kind - their nation.

Khazaria

Today's Jewish nation is the result of the mass conversion of Khazar Turks to Judaism in the 8th century.

At the time of their conversion the Khazar Turks were a powerful combination of Turk and Turkic-Slav-Mongol tribes ruled by a powerful king. The name of their country was "Khazaria" - a country larger than Charlemagne's Empire on the Russian rivers starting at the Black and Caspian Seas (see War Cycles/Peace Cycles, Hoskins).

Its wealth resulted from its strategic location commanding the rich Russian river trade to Constantinople - and the wealth was enormous. During the several hundred years of Islamic-Christian wars they handled much of the far-eastern overland spice-trade that had been displaced to the safer northern routes.

Following the Khazarian conversion experience, the people of Khazaria were divided into two distinct castes consisting of priests and the rest of the people - a fact confirmed by DNA tests.

The reason for this division is ancient. It has to do with the inability of the Children of Esau, whether Arab, Turk, Hun, Mongol or Khazarian, to trust or cooperate with each other. They solved this problem in the following manner - which is unique and strange to Western minds:

"The sons of Esau swore, saying, from that day forward they would not choose a king from their brethren, but one from a strange land until this day." Jasher 57:40¹

Judeo-Talmud

The new religion of the Khazar Turks was called "Judaism." It was actually two religions in one. The basic religion was "Talmudism" - a Babylonian Hindu trade religion dealing heavily with money- making and sex.

This Talmudist religion was concealed within a religious wrapper called Judaism. The reason being that Judaism was understood by surrounding Christian and Islamic nations as a religion of the Bible - something they understood and could deal with. Judaism covered and concealed Talmudism like a cloak which allowed Khazar Jews access to practices that are often the opposite of those in the Bible.

It is important to note that the history of the Children of Esau all over the world is one of bloodshed, oppression, betrayal, and subterfuge. The Islamic Koran justifies these failings in part, but the Khazarian Jews managed to do it in a simple easy to understand manner that is easy for one and all to understand. It is called - Kol Nidre.

Kol Nidre

A Talmudic practice partially concealed by its Judeo wrapper is the Kol Nidre prayer. This prayer, or oath, is repeated or sung in unison by "Jews" worldwide every year making possible the success of their media announcements, international trade agreements, and implementation of Cartel government policy. Judiasm; IKol Nidre

The Kol Nidre, prayer of the Judaic religious ritual, is sung at evening service every year on the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) which means "All Vows":

"All vows, obligations, oaths, anathemas... which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this day of atonement unto the next... we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, and void and made of no effect: They shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths." Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol VIII, p. 539.

A further explanation of this prayer can be found in the Talmud in the Book of Nedarim, 23a-23b which reads as follows:

"And he who desires that none of his vows made during the year shall be valid, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'every vow which I make in the future shall be null.' His vows are then invalid, providing that he remembers this at the time of the vow." Talmud, Book of Nedarim, 23a-23b.

The Result of Kol Nidre

The Kol Nidre prayer nullifies promises in advance - which is the reason that few educated people take anything Khazar Jews say at face value (or for that matter the word of any Turk).

Jews complain when people doubt their truthfulness. Many say that they really should be believed because they are really "atheists" and because of that they haven't taken "the oath." Therefore, they should be believed.

However, a Jew having taken the Kol Nidre oath would be expected to say that he hasn't taken the oath.

The Kol Nidre oath in service to the International Trade Cartel gives the Cartel a tremendous advantage in dealing with naive peoples who base their actions on contracts and agreements that are supposedly not to be broken.

This is why the Cartel has placed ALL major media networks in the hands of Kol Nidre Jews. The result is that nothing that passes as media "truth" can be believed without further confirmation. Kol Nidre practitioners insisting that Khazar Turks are God's "chosen" - demand proof; their claim that the War Between The States was over slavery instead of separatism and loot, that the Boer War was over "apartheid" instead of separtism and gold mines, that WWII was fought over German persecution of Jews instead of separatism and German land - remember "Kol Nidre."

Complications

Complicating the understanding of the "Jew" is the fact that many "Jews" are not "Jews." Business, social, or political reasons have caused many of them to convert to Buddhism, Hinduism as well as Christianity and conceal their Talmudism in various religious wrappers. Constantly, some "Christian" steps forward to confess that he is really Jewish and had just pretended to be Christian.

Khazaria Destroyed and Reborn

When Khazaria, the ancient homeland of today's Khazar Jews, was invaded, its inhabitants were scattered, but the memory of the glories of their great Khazarian Empire were never forgotten. In the 1880s, Jewish nationalists organized a movement called Zionism. Its purpose was to re-establish the Khazarian Empire and reclaim its ancient glory.

Khazar Jews, wherever they live, naturally are part of this dream. However, this is not looked upon with favor by the Cartel. Jewish loyalty to the Zionist movement subtracts loyalty from the Jewish caste which serves the Cartel. Making matters worse, many Zionist Jews use their Cartel civil-service positions to reroute Cartel business to serve Zionist interests instead of Cartel interests.

The Zionist State

In choosing a place to establish a Zionist state, many lands were considered; lands in Asia, S. America and E. Africa. The land selected was the most dangerous place in the world to establish such a homeland - Palestine. Palestine is located in the midst of a hostile sea of Islamic peoples. This place was chosen with a purpose in mind.

Zionists - Nazi Allies

In the 1930s, the Zionist settlement of Palestine called for co-operation between German Zionists and German National Socialists.

The Zionist Jews wanted to leave Germany and colonize Palestine but couldn't. Their problem was that Kol Nidre trained Cartel Jews are not allowed to have a peasant class to feed and take care of them. This would make them independent of the Cartel. A homeland was impossible with no people of their own who could farm, build or repair the new country they planned on creating.

On the other hand, the Germans wanted the Jews to leave. They wanted the Jews to turn the Cartel assets they were managing over to them and leave.

Here was a common interest for both Germans and Jews.

To make it possible for the Jews to leave, Hitler built instruction camps and provided SS instructors to teach Zionist Jews how to work as peasants so that they could survive on Kibbutz in Palestine.

German nationalists helped Zionist nationalists in the one thing they had in common - their desire to be separate from each other.²

The Real Reason For Palestine

Years ago I expressed the opinion that the Cartel selected Palestine for the new Zionists because it was located in the midst of Islam. The reason - so it could be destroyed.

² All nationalists wish to separate from each other. Beware the Cartel wolf who arrives preaching war between nationalists. There are always things we do not like about other peoples. There are things they do not like about us. But, beware blanket condemnation of Zionism if their objectives and ours coincide. It can happen.

Radical Zionist separatists gathered together in one place can more easily be destroyed than if they are scattered. If radical Zionist Jews were eliminated it would leave cartel loyal Kol Nidre Jews - the cement that has long held the Cartel together.

Disaster

The Financial Times on Nov 15-16, 2003, p.1, carried these front page headlines: "Former Security Heads say Israel faces Disaster."

"Four former heads of Israel's Shin Bet security service yesterday made an unprecedented attack on the Sharon government's policies towards the Palestinians. They said Israel was heading for catastrophe unless the government switched course to reach a peace deal with the Palestinians. ...

"... Moshe Yaalon, the Israeli army chief ... said the crackdown in the occupied territories was against Israel's 'strategic interest' because it fostered militancy ...

"We are heading downhill toward near-catastrophe', said Yaakov Peri, who was head of Shin Bet from 1995 to 1998. 'If nothing happens and we go on living by the sword, we will continue to wallow in the mud and destroy ourselves. ...

"Carmi Gillon, who left Shin Bet in 1996, accused Mr. Sharon's government of short-sightedness. 'It is dealing solely with the question of how to prevent the next terrorist attack,' he said. 'It ignores the question of how we get out of the mess we find ourselves in today.'"

Shin Bet, the Israeli security organization is the most prestigious and most feared organization in the Israeli state.

This unprecedented announcement, issued by four of the most important people in the state, reveals a state of affairs in Palestine that can be described in no other terms than "disastrous" to the Israeli state.

Bush's Tail On Fire

U.S. rulers, egged on by their Zionist sympathizing civil service, is responsible for making possible the Israeli murderous assault on the Palestinians. It furnishes them money, munitions, gunships, cannon, and all other necessary weapons of war.

The result is that except in the highly censored U.S. media, pictures of Israeli atrocities have been spread worldwide by the internet. Right now, the U.S. and Israel are the most unpopular countries in the world. Bush is met with protesters wherever he goes. One hundred thousand recently greeted his arrival in England with loud expressions of disapproval - and Britain is America's firmest ally.

Turkey has refused to send troops to help bring "freedom" to Iraq. So have France and Portugal. Italy took casualties and is considering withdrawing hers. Japan and S. Korea have refused troops.

Revolt?

If these were free independent countries - their refusal is understandable. But, for the most part, these are among the 130 or so countries the puppet government of the U.S. has conquered and occupied for the cartel around the world. Their refusal borders on revolt. It is like captive Germany refusing to furnish troops for Napoleon after he lost an army in Russia.

Conquered nations aren't supposed to refuse their conqueror's requests.

Then too, Iraq's refusal to roll over and accept the "freedom" being rammed down their collective throats is costing the U.S. army daily casualties. Daily casualties are causing a reversal of American public opinion. Alarmed, Bush now says that Iraqi rule will be returned by June next year - and there is talk that the entire American army may be withdrawn.

These developments no doubt contribute to recent Israeli announcements: "Israel must be like a mad dog so that it will be left alone." "Israel nukes are pointed at every European capitol." Worldwide people are asking, "What in the world has gotten into these Jews?"

It's quite simple. They have at last awakened to the danger of their position. If America is forced out of Iraq, and American reaction to the abortive war causes the 9 billion a year in U.S. aid to Zionist-Palestine to be curtailed, they will be left isolated with few friends and many powerful enemies.

Combined with this, the Iraqi Israel oil pipeline is constantly being shut down because of sabotage by Iraqi freedom-fighters. Russia, another source of Iraqi oil, has expressed disapproval of Israeli affairs and has even locked up a Zionist-owner of Russia's newly privatized oil industry. None of this bodes well for Israel. Saudi-Arabia, the seedbed of violent Islam, is another dubious oil source.

End Of Zionism?

The Israeli Khazar Turks have not behaved well in Palestine. Their actions have alienated its native Arab Turk population, that of its neighbors, and people worldwide.

Cartel Jews worldwide have begun to add their voice to the drumfire criticism of Palestine's Zionists - which they would do if the elimination of the Zionists in Palestine were in the works.

Isolated, stripped of allies, its oil supply threatened, the Israeli state may be reaching the place where it can be destroyed by its neighbors. If so, it could signal the end of Zionism as a political movement.

Conclusion

If Political Zionism vanishes from the face of the earth; if its extinction triggers WWII; if such a war reduces populations of the world by 3/4; if any of these things happen - one fact will remain:

The International Trade Cartel will continue to rule the world just as it is doing right now with its "Priest, King, Merchant" caste system continuing to use the surviving Cartel Kol Nidre Jews as its civil service.

Our people will continue to be slaves through war and peace, famine and plenty, until they obey the Commandments of the WORD which is our God.

The Sons of Esau do what they do because they are naturally lawless and cursed by God: our own kinsmen are Lawlessness because they have chosen other gods and abandoned the WORD - the God of their fathers. It is they who will receive the white-hot anger of God's faithful in the "day of revenge".

They know to "Fear God and obey his commandments," and refuse. It is they who are bringing down God's wrath on us all.

God's WORD will be obeyed!

FLOOD: "Dear Brother Hoskins; In your recent HR #350, you responded to a question asking how the "Black Race survived during the flood?"

"Your response was: 'Blacks aren't descended from man. In the beginning God made man and beasts. Man is bluish red Adam. Whatever is not man is beast. Beast is not a derogatory term - it's just the name used by the ancients. Noah loaded the Ark with his man family and with beasts as he was commanded to do. That's how beasts came through the flood. They rode through with Noah-Adamites.'

"A friend sent this following message on 'Beasts Of The Field' a day after that. I got a kick out of how quickly God sent confirmation."

"And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them." Leviticus 20:16

"The bestial man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know [them], because they are spiritually discerned." 1 Corinthians 2:14

"Eight different Hebrew and Greek words, behemah, b'iyr, ziyz, chay, cheyva', trephah, nephesh, and ktenos, are all translated into the one English word "beast", but they each mean different things in different contexts. The word behemah describes "beasts" who have boils on their bodies, who have hands, who could lie down with a woman to have sex with her, who have a conscience, who are put to death for violating God's Law, who have possessions which can be sold or redeemed, who hold authority which can be taken away, who have feet, who are inhabitants of cities, who God promises to crossbreed with Israelites and Judahites, who can be hired, who are kept in tents, who can cry mightily to God, who can turn away from evil, who wear sackcloth, whose seed Jeremiah predicted would be mixed with the House of Israel, the House of Judah, and man [read: the people of the land], none of which any four legged animal on the planet is capable of.

"The word chay describes "beasts" who are allowed to eat from the corners of your field, who are evil, and who can prevent Israelites from passing through the land."

RKH: Adding to the above:

"Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast." Jeremiah 31:27

Whatever is not man is considered to be non-man or beast. To narrow the field we assign the above mixture of "man" and "beast" the name "hued-man" - human. The following Commandments deal with this human:

"The stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) that cometh nigh (the tabernacle) shall be put to death." No 18:7, No 1:51.

"A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2

"Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them." Deut 27:26

SAUDI ARABIA: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: How does backward Saudi Arabia figure in world affairs?" E.L. - Texas

RKH: Saudi-Arabia acts as a mid-east "Switzerland." It was carved out of the defeated Turkish Ottoman Empire at the end of WWI. Its puppet rulers were put in power by the victors - as were the rulers of all newly created Arab/Turkish countries - they were and are on Western payrolls - including Saddam.

The great oil reserves lying under Saudi-Arabia belong to the international oil companies. Saudi puppet rulers were instructed to seize the oil wells. This gave the puppet Saudi rulers multi-billions of oil money to fund any task the cartel tells them to fund. Behind the Saudis lurk the cartel with a finger in every pie. In my files, I ran across the following:

BANK OWNERSHIP: A report filed with the SEC, Apr 22, 1991, reveals that Saudis now hold over 5% of Chase Manhattan Bank. This is the second largest Saudi investment made since the war. The largest was a $590 million 'investment' in Citibank. This very possibly gives effective control of these two banks to that group. These two banks control much of America's industry through voting stock held in trust. It would be interesting to learn if this is the reason for America's corporate decisions to send America's industry to foreign lands.

Almost nothing in America is American owned or controlled. It's the same everywhere else. See below:

GOLDMAN SACHS GETS 7%: "Goldman Sachs will invest $1.27 bil in Japan's #2 bank. Sumitomo Mitsui Financial will issue convertible preferred shares to Goldman Sachs, or a 7% stake if converted. Sumitomo expects the deal to bolster its financial base and rid bad loans; Goldman gets access to a big corporate client base." (Inv. Bus. Daily, p2, Jan 17, 2003)

The above deal delivers Japan's #2 bank to Goldman Sachs. It's not as if the Japs owned this bank in the first place - Remember, they lost WWII - with all that implies. For that matter it would be interesting to learn who owns Goldman Sachs? Regardless, the ultimate owners would still be Esau.

UNFILTERED NEWS

MOORE FOR SENATE: "State officials wheeled the (10 Commandments) monument away this summer, but Moore said that he would ... push for laws limiting the power of the federal courts. 'You will hear from me again when it comes to the right to acknowledge God,' he said after the hearing. A crowd cheered and chanted, 'Roy Moore for Senate!'" The Week, p. 7, Nov 28, 2003

RKH: America's Cartel government had long been a rotten apple. Her people were ready for a revolt. The media covered Governor George Wallace standing in the school house door - and then filmed him as he stood aside and let the feds take over the school system. The Cartel media then went to work and made George Wallace the new White Hope. The result surprised everyone. To stop his grassroots organization that threatened to win the election and overthrow the Cartel - Wallace was shot. He then reverted into what he had always been - a sniveling, lickspittle, Cartel puppet.

Today, discontent in America seethes. America is looking for someone to lead. It appears to many that Judge Roy Moore has been tapped. Without naming a specific Commandment - Moore took a stand "for the 10 Commandments." A safe bet. Most of the people in the country approve of the 10 Commandments! To judge the righteousness of his cause he took the case to the anti-christ federal courts. It takes no rocket-scientist to guess how they would rule. Now, Roy Moore, the abused underdog, stands forth alone in his persecuted defense of God's "10- Commandments", of which almost all approve.

Didn't we see this before? Doesn't this look like a Wallace replay? To be believable, Roy Moore must take an actual stand for God's Commandments: He must stand up and say that the nation must do away with usury or some such - in other words - he must burn his bridges.

Until he totally alienates the establishment so that they will never take him back again, he looks suspiciously like another DeKlerk, another J. Lindsey Almond - another George Wallace. We've been bit before and now demand proof.

Come on, Judge Roy Moore, Show us!

VOODOO: Voodoo priestess Miriam Chamani, Nicholas Cage's spiritual advisor, said that Cage and Lisa Marie Presley, Elvis's daughter, just "needed time alone" to get back together. (The Week, p. 10)

RKH: Everyone knows that Cage, the new Hollywood icon is Jewish.

Lisa Marie too.

"The Lebanon Times, 8/18/02 Jerusalem (AP) - reports '... the king may have had Jewish blood. Elvis' maternal great-great-grandmother, Nancy Tackett, was Jewish, according to one author. Tackett's daughter Martha Tackett was the mother of Doll Mansell, who in turn was the mother of Elvis' mother, Gladys Smith, according to a book, Elvis and Gladys, by Elaine Dundy.

"Religious law says Judaism is passed down through the mother, so Elvis could be considered Jewish even though he was raised Christian." (From The Eagle Newsletter, Sept-Oct 2002.

RKH: Lisa Marie Presley, Jewish, was married to Michal Jackson, a black - and Cage has a Voodoo advisor.

PRINCE CHARLES: "Great Britain is now abuzz with rumors that Prince Charles once had a homosexual encounter with his personal valet, Michael Fawcett. The explosive claim comes from George Smith, a former valet, who says he found them in flagrante delicto sometime in the 'early 1990s.' Smith is not a particularly reliable witness." (The Week, p 19, Nov 21, 2003)

RKH: What makes Smith's story believable are pictures showing Prince Charles, hands together praying, with the Hindu third eye painted on his forehead. Hinduism permits sodomy.

IRELAND: "Sinn Fein recently launched an anti-racist charter for local councils and their members to sign. It includes a 'Declaration on Anti-Racism' that its members should sign to show their support for a multi-racial Ireland (north and south) and their support for more third world immigrants and asylum seekers to be let into the country!" Heritage & Destiny, p10, Autumn/Fall 2003.

RKH: So much for Sinn Fein being called a Nationalist organization.

REWRITING HISTORY: Martin Luther King had offended so many people that he was a liability. J.F. Kennedy did the same and was doomed to serve one term only. Living, the two were political liabilities. Dead - they were whatever spin-masters said they were. They were executed and their liabilities were turned into assets. Now streets and buildings are named after one and airports after the other. But, nothing can change the fact that both were Lawless sweepings of the country's gutters.

YUKOS: The ITC installed the Tzar who claimed all Russia's land and wealth and was head of its Orthodox Church and God's representative on earth.

With its scattered wealth centralized - the ITC then financed a revolution, killed the Tzar, his supporters and potential counter-revolutionaries. The new Cartel state then owned the Tzar's assets and was the defacto head of the Orthodox Church.

Russia's assets were then "privatized" into the hands of seven bank agents ("The borrower is slave") whom the Russian's call "oligogs." This robbery of Russia's assets incensed Slavic nationalists who arrested and imprisoned without bail the new Russian oil assets owner, Mikhail Khodorkovsky. This act of open rebellion calls into question the "privatization" of the rest of Russia's wealth into the hands of cartel agents.

After the Afghanistan and Iraqi treasure hunt is resolved, we can expect cartel surrogates to try to confront Russia to retrieve its loot. It's a dangerous world we live in.

INFORMERS: Arab gunmen killed two Israeli informers and displayed their bodies in a town square. (IBD, p.2, Oct 24, 2003)

RKH: Study Esau's war against Esau, and his war against the American agents of Esau - if one would learn war. In time Esau will bring his war to these shores to try to destroy his brother Jacob - again.

BODY ARMOR: The army has adopted a body armor made by Ceradyne Co. which is light weight and impervious to high velocity .30 cal bullets. This leaves only the face, arms and lower body exposed as targets. It will be at least 6 months before the US army of occupation in Iraq is fully protected. Let's see what tactics the Iraqis develop to deal with this new development. Watch carefully - the present Iraqi War is a window on future wars.

S. AFRICAN BLACK ORPHANAGES: "A POLOK-WANE place of safety has become a place of danger for white children ... being victimised and terrorised ...allegations of sexual molestation...

"The white children in the facility complain that they are under severe stress, due to the constant aggression against them. They allege that they are bullied and beaten by black children. ..." (Story in Citizen Oct 21, 2003)

"He was beaten. I saw his body just before his funeral and it was bruised and beaten. My child was killed in that home. ... His arm and nose were broken, his spleen injured, his stomach ruptured and his whole body bruised due to some kind of abuse. ..." (Story in Citizen Oct 23, 2003)

RKH: "If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel." I Tim 5:8 In obedience to God, HR readers help support a S. African home for white children.
